FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES*Book VII*Chapter One*"The Mystery Mark"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven. Blessings to you this day, My Child; and blessings to those, who read My words and receive My words with pure hearts. For, these are My children. Yes, My Child, deep calls to deep; and deep are My words in Book Seven. For many days, I have told you that Book Seven will start soon; and even yesterday I told you that Book Seven will begin today, as on this day I begin dictation, but in actuality it began on June 07, 2001. It began on My day and My number; for great are My words, which are to be revealed in this book. My child, I know that you want to know how this book shall be dispersed; and I say to you that it will be dispersed freely on the Internet. For, those, who want a written copy, they are to send $25.00. This will cover the cost of the book and the postage. Outside of the USA, they must send $20.00 extra for additional postage. To mail the same from the USA to some parts of the world will be more than $20.00; but all will even out.

"Cherished One, I know that you wonder what I could speak of which could be so majestic, so great, so full of My wonders; for this book contains My number, the number Seven, the number of Me, Jehovah, Most High God. My Child, as I said, "Deep calls to deep," and My mysteries shall be revealed herein.

Unlike Books Five and Six, which all had to order, this book is free to all; for a great work among My people is at hand; and a great and terrible tragedy the world over is also at hand. For, the Antichrist is about to rise in Europe. You are seeing his handiwork in the many plagues, which are hitting the world on all fronts. But, before he steps forth, I shall pour out My Spirit in great measure and prepare My people spiritually for what is at hand. Yea, a great and terrible judgement, My judgement is upon the world; and Europe will suffer mightily; for Europe is the seat of world Satanism; and what is unfolding will be told by you and others of My prophets and apostles.

"The Mark"

"The 'mark,' My Child ... Look at the Mark of the Beast!"

"My Father, I see fabric, and it is a beautiful fabric, which catches the light and shimmers in an iridescent way as if it is made of many colors. This fabric rolls out in front of me on something like a conveyor belt at first. Then, it seems that a wind catches the fabric and it is carried forth into the air, a most beautiful billowy fabric. Now, it seems to glow, a most beautiful, radiant fabric. Around and 'round this fabric swirls in the air as if it is caught up in a whirlwind. And, as I watch this fabric, the whirlwind picks up in speed. Then, suddenly, this fabric flattens out, as if the whirlwind causes it to flatten out; and the fabric seems to be a flattened whirlwind, which is spinning in layers, somewhat like a whirlpool in water, yet flat and with only a very small center, which whirls. Suddenly, the whirlpool, or whatever it is, begins to lose its sheen and darkness begins to set in. It is as if a very dark shadow begins to settle in over the whirlpool and I hear sounds, like sounds of a train, putting on its brakes; and out of this whirlpool I see a pair of black boots emerge. These are obviously attached to a person, but I do not see his face, only his boots.

"It seems suddenly as if the whirlpool is sucked up into the boots, where it dissolves. Now, I see the man, who wears these boots! He is dressed like a prince, with all manner of ornate and decorative attire, similar to that, which I have seen Prince Charles wear. But, he is not Prince Charles. However, I do see him at a table now with Prince Charles and they are sipping a glass of wine together. I see that Prince Charles looks up to this man and that he obeys him. He respects him and even seems to fear him. In the background, I am aware of the train. It is a black train; and back at the table I see once more this "prince" with Prince Charles. He is now puffed up, standing with his chest protruding; and he wears a black baton by his side. My Father, I hear the word, "charisma;" for this man has charisma. He is a powerful persuader of people, yet he is heartless and cruel. His heart is as black as ebony. My Father, surely this man is the antichrist!"

"You have seen it."

"But, My Father, tell me about the mystery of this fabric."

"You mean that it is woven together tightly, and that it is shimmering and beautiful."

"Yes, My Father."

"Oh, these are his works; and to the worldly they are beautiful. They are shimmering; for they offer to the worldly a great freedom, which is the cloth, floating in the wind. But, this freedom is short-lived, indeed! Once the people of the world come to admire this Satanic cloth and latch onto its empty promises of freedom, they shall enter into a Satanic whirlwind. This whirlwind of darkness shall get tighter and tighter upon the people of the world until it becomes a whirlwind of solid steel, which is as black as night. This whirlwind of evil is unyielding and those, who are trapped by its shiny allure will seal their fate, as if in steel. They will not be able to get out. The true author of this evil will emerge, who is the Antichrist, and he will bring forth the dark train of evil and destruction."

"My Father, what is his relationship to Prince Charles?"

"My Child, they are of the same family. But, remember this. The Antichrist has not taken his seat yet; for the height of deception has not arrived; and he is not fully empowered to do so."

"My Father, who empowers this man? You, or the devil?"

"My Child, I empower this man to utterly destroy the corrupt and to force Mine to choose either Me and My Son or the devil and his ways. And, this choice shall be forged through the mark of the devil."

"My Father, what is his mark?"

"Let me say this, My Child, that all, who enter into a covenant with Lucifer are marked by him. All churches, which have agreed to the 501 ( c ) 3 have entered into a covenant with Lucifer, Satan, the devil and he has marked them. He has claimed them. This mark takes several forms and has several levels. One is the physical mark, a mark of ownership in the hand and forehead. Another is a spiritual mark, a spiritual covenant or agreement with Satan, Lucifer, the devil, which is binding spiritually. A third is an eternal agreement, which is binding through the eternities."

"And, what might the eternal agreement be?"

"A total renunciation of Me and My Son and a declaration that one is god!"

"My Father, this is what Lucifer, Satan, the devil, did when he started the war against you in Heaven!"

"This is so. He said, "I am God," and he fought Me. One Third of the hosts of Heaven also claimed themselves as gods, and they fought and were expelled. Nowadays, you have in the Earth ignorant souls, who have willfully entered into a covenant with Satan, Lucifer, the devil and they espouse his teachings, calling themselves gods. They have totally rebelled against Me and have sided with Lucifer in his on-going war."

"So, My Father, this war in Heaven just goes on down through the ages and Lucifer is continuing to build up his army with human souls, who say they are gods, and that they are truly parts of his army, making an eternal covenant with Lucifer that they are gods."

"This is so; and you see this in freemasonry and all religions and organizations, which have been founded by freemasonry."

"Oh, My! My Father, I understand that the Mormon Church was founded by freemasons and that even today Satanic sacrifices of humans, especially children, are done in the subterranean levels of these temples."

"This is so."

"And, some of the leaders are reptilian shapeshifters."

"This is so."

"And, My Father, they espouse eternal marriage and until recently, as I understand it, all took blood oaths in these temples."

"This is so."

"And, the Mormons are told that they are gods, gods in the making."

"You have known this to be true and it is yet true."

"But, My Father, you are saying that these people are entering into an eternal covenant with Lucifer."

"They have done it; and they know it not!"

"But, My Father, is the penalty different for one, who enters into such a covenant, knowing that they have entered into a covenant with the devil, than if they do not know?"

"Yes, indeed, but many know! The freemasons take increasingly more severe oaths until they give away all to Lucifer. They do so willingly, knowing what they are doing; and by the time that they reach the 32nd and 33rd degrees, they know exactly what they have done. Those, who enter, are dupes! But, My Child, member the beautiful cloth. They take what is good and of Me, what is Biblical and they mix it with all, which is dark and full of lies, which is of the devil. Mormonism is a huge diabolical cult. The people are in bondage, and they know it not! They believe many lies and willingly allow themselves to be controlled by reptilian hoards. Many of the Mormon children are sacrificed to the devil in the bowels of these temples and many little and precious children are sodomized and raped. Their lives are ruined. Many others are used by Lucifer in his mind control programs all over the USA and around the world. Yes, indeed, the church of Mormon is the devil's church, yet they are all made to believe a lie that this is the only true church. I ask you, My Child, when My Son, Yeshua, was on the Earth, what church did he belong to?"

"None."

"My Child, My church is free. It has My Son at the head. Those, who preach and teach at My Church are free; for they espouse no denomination. My gifts of Spirit flow freely in My Church; for it is not bound by shackles of the world. Those, who go in and out of My Church are healed and set free; for My true leaders are free. I am your Father in Heaven and we shall speak more on this."

FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES*Book VII*Chapter Two*"Great Judgement for Europe!"

"My Beloved Child, hear Me speak this morning and know that I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Little do the masses know that as they sleep, the enemy advances on every front. Loud cries and protests the world over are heard against the UN/Satanic agenda; but look, My Child, the voices are few; and in many cases, the same ones cry out against these gross injustices over and over. I tell you, My Child, that the Antichrist has hit Europe with plagues and he is scheming on every front to waylay and subdue all peoples of the world; but I ask you, My Child, 'Have the people changed, who have been hit by the plagues?' Have they come back to Me in Europe? Have they repented? Nay, they have not! Though, they have been faced with grave hardships and losses, they continue on in their darkness and rebellion.

"Listen to Me, My Child, My whip is going to pop over Europe! It is going to burn the air; for it shall pop loudly and swiftly. Terror is coming down on Europe; but I tell you now that its effects shall be short-lived; for the people, in general, have lost their moral compasses. Tragedy is about to hit Europe in an even greater way and a fervent heat shall soon melt a third part of Europe, but I say to you, 'Do you believe, even then, that the people will repent?'

"No, My Father, I do not believe that the masses will,... that only that a few here and there will repent."

"I tell you, My Child, that you are entering therein the time of the great sorting, the goats on one side and the sheep on the other, the wheat here and the chaff there. This is a time of sorting and it is fixed. The train of destiny is set to start off soon and the harvest is ready for the plucking. Here and there the train of destiny will stop and its ride will mark a turning point for all upon the face of the Earth. You have seen the train of destiny in the first chapter of Book VII and I tell you, My Child, that this train is real and it is charged up and running, ready to head out across Europe. My Little One, in many of the visions, which have been given you by the Spirit of God, you have seen calamity strike Europe. You have seen war hit Europe and you have been told that the Antichrist will rise in Europe; but My Child, hearken unto Me; for you have not seen what is about to hit Europe. Many in Europe are smug; for they believe that the USA will be destroyed by war and that they will go free. Alas, My Child, what utter foolishness! What utter nonsense! Europe, the whole of Europe, is under shackles of the Antichrist. The stench of rebellion in Europe is foul! The stench has hit My nostrils and it is putrid! The rebellion among leaders and lay people alike is worse than that of Jerusalem before it was destroyed! It is worse than that of Babylon and Rome alike! Yea, every evil vice is made to look good; for evil has been given a wide license! Oh, wicked Europe, you believe that you will come out unscathed; for My anger is upon America. But, I tell you, Europe, My mercy is also upon America and though wickedness and rebellion is extant in America, the love of the few carry the nation. The love of My Beloved for all of mankind, but especially their devotion toward Me, keeps this land afloat. This pure love softens My anger; and for a season I have promised an extended time of mercy for the USA. What you see is a mercy run, but this mercy run will not go on forever! Yea, it is for a given time only and only I know what this time is. But, I say to Mine, 'Work, for the night is coming! Work, for the time of great troubles is at hand! Work, for the cornfields and the wheatfields will soon be empty! Work, for the storehouses will soon come up lacking! Work, for there is an appointed time and season for all things and this time of great judgement will soon hit the land! Work, for the harvest is great and the workers are few. Work, for the time of great peril is at hand and the dusk passes into nightfall. Yea, work, for the work is great and the dedicated workers are few!

A New Song!

"Sing, My Beloved; for I am giving you a new song! Sing, My Beloved, for this song is about freedom! This song is about joy! This song is about breaking the yokes of bondage and persecution. Sing, My Beloved, and make merry; for I, Jehovah, Most High God, give you a new song!

Reaping is at hand!

"Reap, My Beloved, for this song is the song of the reaper! Reap, My Cherished ones, for what is planted is now ready to harvest! Sing songs of praise and joy; for your sickle shall not fall on barren ground! Reap, Mine Anointed, for it is a new day unto Me for My Faithful. Be of good cheer and look heavenward; for I shall pour out blessings upon My Faithful so bounteous that they shall not be able to contain them! Reap, My Cherished Ones, for the time of harvest has come!

"Behold My Hand; for it is stretched out to Mine Anointed for greater things. I have seen the dedication of My Anointed. I have seen their great trials; for I have orchestrated them. I have known their walks through coals of fire; for I have held their hands; but I say to My Cherished and Anointed Ones that these trials have not been for naught. They have not been for no reason at all; but they have been given you to strengthen you spiritually, that you would be ready for the long hours of reaping. They have been given you that you would not faint when the furnace gets hotter. Yea, My Little Ones, many of you have struggled sorely through the thickets of briars. You have shivered in the bitter cold and you have cried out in your loneliness and sorrow; but I say to you, 'Rejoice; for you have been tried and tested in the furnace of adversity for greater works. Now, many of you are ready, while many of you are yet babes with much time in the furnace ahead of you!'

"I say to you, My Precious Child, that I have a greater work for you! How you have wept and cried out because of your sorrows down through the years; but My Child, this has not been for naught. Great and mighty works I have for you; for I have given you a task of calling the people of Arkansas to revival. But, be advised, My Child, that you will not only be calling the people of Arkansas to revival, you will go hither and yon and you will pray for revival in lands both near and far. For, I have given you the revival fire anointing. Yea, great and mighty miracles shall follow you; for I have bathed you and your husband with a covering of the miraculous! Wherever you go, I shall open up the heavens and I shall pour miracles out upon you and upon those, whom you seek them for in the name of My Precious Son. Mighty miracles, healings and deliverances, these things shall follow you; and you will set the captives free, both near and far! Those, who bless you, will be greatly blessed; and those, who reject you, who scorn and mock you will be greatly cursed, immediately so, for what is in their hearts and for what comes from their mouths! Those, who love you, I love; but those, who hate you, I will turn on with a vengeance! For, those, who hate you, hate the One, who sends you; and this One is Me. For, I am at the helm of your ship.

"Good tidings come to you even now, My Child. A chapter is closed in your life and a new chapter is opening with mighty miracles and manifestations from Heaven on a regular basis. Great and horrible trials and persecutions you have been through for My namesake and you have endured, My Child. You have not been angry with Me and you have not cursed Me for your great trials; but you have humbled yourself before Me in great tears and sorrow, seeking more of Me and repenting daily for your many weaknesses. But, My Child, I know your heart and it is full of a pure love for Me. It is overflowing with love for your fellow man and it is time for you to move on out into a greater work for Me. My Child, you shall not want!

And, the material things, which you need to live a comfortable life, are at hand. You have waited long to be free of a great persecution at the hands of the enemy and this time is at hand. Fret not, My Child, but rejoice; for great blessings are hand and these will not be stopped by any person, place, or thing; for these blessings are straight from My throne! I am your Father in Heaven!"

FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES*Book VII*Chapter Three*"Revival Fire"

"My Beloved Child, blessed are you this day; for you come in earnest seeking My will and My heart. As you know Me, I am your Father in Heaven. Yes, My Child, this is Chapter Three of Book VII. Rejoice! For, great and mighty are My works, which lie before you. My Child, I will not call one to such a task as the one, which lies before you, if I have not already prepared one for such an undertaking. Yea, I have prepared you, My Child; and I have found you worthy for the task at hand. You ask, 'Is this revival anointing, which I have called the "Revival Fire Anointing," not also called the "Holy Fire," or the "Holy Wind Fire" Revival Anointing? And, My response to you is that all are correct; but, I have shortened this to read, "Revival Fire." Yes, My Child, this fire is holy; for it is straight from My throne; and it is complete and pure. It is a wind as well; for it comes as a wind and most often you have heard the roar of this Holy Wind Fire. Does this give you the understanding, which you seek?"

"Yes, My Father."

"My Child, I have told you that great blessings are at hand for you; but this does not mean that you will not be persecuted. For, even now the letters are coming in a steady stream from some of the errant churches; and they are full of hate and malice. My Little One, these churches, which are run by these errant preachers have already been judged; for My Spirit has long since left them. They are empty shells; and they are run by empty shells. Shake the mire from your feet; for you have entered therein with My word and they rejected Me. They have called you all manner of names. They have ridiculed you and they have stoned you in the spirit. Let the dead look after the dead; but keep your eyes on Me and My Son; for the dead shall not stop My works through you. Yes, My Child, this Revival Fire Anointing is falling upon you in its fullness; and in due season ministers of some of the churches will contact you in earnest. You will pray with these ministers and when prompted by the Spirit of God, you will bless them with this same Holy Fire Revival Anointing. This anointing, this spiritual gift, will come through you to others. Yea, many will rue the day that they have put women into corners, where they have been kept under thumb! For, indeed in these last days, I am calling some of My anointed women prophets, apostles, teachers, pastors and evangelists to step up to center stage, where they will lead the world spiritually. Great and mighty miracles shall follow these women; for unto them shall be given the anointings of the prophets and apostles of old. It is time to rejoice, My Child. It is time to sing songs of praise, which come from the heart; for a revival is going forth upon this land, here a little and there a little. What has been held back is now being given freely.

"Yes, My Child, at the end of this chapter, put the letter to the churches; and in due season I will also have you post some of the responses of the churches; but not now.

"My Child, look behind you! What do you see?"

"My Father, I see bleachers, like in an outdoor arena, or perhaps it is an indoor arena; but there are bleachers and they are all empty. I am standing alone, looking out across these bleachers, when suddenly I feel very sleepy, as if I am going to sleep, or perhaps being caught up in a vision. I look to see that I am dressed in white and as I look around me I see many angels; and a great light is manifesting before me.

This light seems to come from Heaven and I hear a voice, which I know to come from Heaven, for Father, it is your voice. And, you say, 'Behold, My Son!' Coming from this radiant light is our Precious Jesus. He is caught up in the light, and He is full of glory and beauty, and as I lay prostrate on the floor behind the podium He looks at me and He says, 'Arise, My Child, for the Holy Fire Revival Anointing is upon you;' and I hear a wind, like a rushing wind and the whole stadium becomes aglow with this fire as it sweeps the stadium like a great wind. As this great fire goes forth, the bleachers all disappear; for a great light is everywhere and all that remains is this great light, which is a holy white fire. I arise and stand before our Precious Jesus and He looks at me and puts a cloth around my neck and it looks to be made of something like satin; for it is radiant and on the ends of either side are one, two, three bells. Then, our Lord Jesus says to me, 'The anointing of the prophet Aaron!' And, a great heat comes over me and I begin to dance and shout and praise God in unknown tongues and ribbons of fire come from my mouth. And, these ribbons of fire have different colors as they go out, but when they disperse, they become radiant, white light. And, when I move these ribbons of fire encircle my body and as these swirls of light go out, they form a white light fire. These same ribbons come from my hands and feet and as they flow out they also turn into a white light fire. Then, our Lord Jesus places around my neck another cloth. Both of them remind me of neck garments, which are worn by priests; for they are sealed on all edges, yet they are straight. And, this cloth radiates a white fire, which also manifests a blue radiance. And, as our Lord Jesus puts this second cloth around my neck, I see that it is full of Living Waters. These Living Waters fall all around my feet; and they make a noise like a waterfall. These Living Waters bathe me all over, yet I am not wet. And, as I am bathed in these waters, I get a feeling that I am in many places at once. For, I seem to be here and there on many places of the Earth at once. I know the clouds; for I feel the clouds and seem to be a part of the clouds. I also seem to be a part of the Earth; for I feel as if I easily become a part of the Earth. I know sickness and disease in the bodies of others for I seem to be able to travel there. Our Lord Jesus now says to me, 'The anointing of Enoch!'"

As He says this, I find myself standing over a large waterfall, which reminds me of Niagara Falls; and the Lord says to me, 'The fall of man!' As I look at the falls, I see a man and a woman go tumbling over the falls and the falls become full of blood, guts and gore. As I look at this bloody scene, I begin to feel great pain all over my body. I feel as if I am being stabbed and kicked and I look to see that I am bleeding all over my body; and I, too, feel that I shall fall into the rushing waters and die. But, as I am about to fall our Lord Jesus picks me up by the back of my robe and embraces me. Then, He says, 'Save for My love, the pure love of God, all shall fall!'

I sit beside our Lord now overlooking the falls and I begin to weep uncontrollably. It seems that all the sins of the world are upon my back. I sense the murders of the billions of unborn babes worldwide. This weight upon me is so great that I feel that I will pass out. And, suddenly, I find myself sinking into the ground. I am headed down, down, down into the pits of hell! Dark, slimy creatures are all about, like snakes and eels and leaches. And spider webs abound; but these disgusting things do not touch me. I just keep going down, down, down. The wails of the lost fill my ears and their cries and moans make me feel sick all over. I stop for a minute and begin to wretch, and as I vomit, blood and guts come rushing out my mouth. I feel so sick as if I will faint and I back up to steady myself against a hard object, which I believe to be a rock; but the rock turns into a trap door and I am once more catapulted down as if in an elevator shaft. "My Lord and My God," I cry out, "Why are you doing this to me?" A black whirlwind carries me aloft and I am caught up in great darkness and confusion. "My Lord and My God," I cry out, "Why have you sent me here?"

"Finally, I hear the voice of our Lord Jesus and I see His face. Tears of blood stream from His face and as I look at him, he dips his hand into a vat and brings up dead babies, baby parts and blood and guts. All over again, I feel as if I will wretch, but I have only the dry heaves, which are full of bitter gall. I weep and howl before our Lord and tears of blood roll down my face. I feel so sick and so lost and cut off from our Lord

Jesus even though He is before me. "Why? Why, my Precious Lord," I cry out! "Why have you sent me here?" And, I sob and weep uncontrollably. Suddenly, I feel His precious hand touch me, the hand of our Lord Jesus; and in a moment I am taken from the bowels of hell. Still, I weep uncontrollably as I rest my head upon our Lord's chest. He caresses my head and He begins to sing to me. These are the words He sings:

"Upon the branches of death and mire,
A thorn, a rose, a cactus in bloom.

Upon the branches of death, a hand unseen
Touches the dead and the dying.

Weep, Little Children, for the life that is gone!

Left among the thorns and cacti in the heat,
A rose, alone and dying!

But, I in My love do not miss a one,
For, all that is pure is at home in My love!

Reach out and touch the dead and the dying!

The children, I take home ...
But, those, who murder them, will drink of the cup
Of blood, and guts and gore."

"For, this reason, My Child, I have sent you into hell to drink of this cup of blood and guts and gore; for if this nation will not repent of murder of the unborn, it shall soon drink of this bitter cup. I am sending you out, My Child, with this anointing of Holy Fire and Living Waters that you go to places you have never been before, and that you experience what you have never experienced before. This revival is the ultimate gift to the people of this land before judgement. The depths of this judgement depend upon the sincere repentance of the masses. All is not set in stone as many believe; but as our Father is merciful, He can change His mind. What you are to do, My Child, is to bring My people to repentance. You are to bless certain ministers with the Holy Fire of Revival and you are to heal the sick, raise the dead and set the captives free. All that the prophets and apostles of old did, you will do and more.

"Woe to those, who shut out women apostles, who hold apostles gatherings and deliberately shut the door to Mine anointed women apostles. For, I shall utterly embarrass those, who set themselves up to be gods. Because My anointed women apostles have been shut out, I shall raise them up to do great and mighty works."

"My Child, do you have any questions?"

"Oh, yes, My Lord! I have many questions, but one in particular comes to my mind. Is this anointing considered one anointing or two?"

"It is two in one."

"So, the Revival Fire Anointing has a counterpart, which is the Living Waters?"

"This is so."

"Yet, it is called the 'Revival Fire?'"

"This is so, but one without the other is not a balance."

"Why is it not called Living Waters/Holy Fire anointing?"

"In these realms it is; but for the sake of brevity, it is shortened to Holy Fire Revival Anointing, or Revival Fire Anointing. Remember, My Child, that this anointing is a coal of fire from the throne of God and as it goes out, it is likened unto the flow of Living Waters."

"Oh, My Lord, I wish I could understand the works of our Father, but in my heart I am happy to be only a child in His service!"

"My Little One, because you know you are a child and because you have walked humbly before God, you have been called and chosen for great works."

"Oh, My Lord, I feel so unworthy. I feel like such a lowly person. I am so deeply humbled, My Lord, that I cannot help but weep before you. Forgive me, My Lord, but I feel so unworthy."

"But, you are worthy, My Child. You are not perfect; but you are worthy of the task at hand."

And, with this, our Lord Jesus takes my hand, the hand of a child, and he and I step forth into white light, which begins to engulf us. I look down to see white rose petals filling the stadium below us. As I look out across the stadium, I see that it is full of people; and when a white rose petal touches any person, he or she is instantly healed and set free of all manner of afflictions!

Praises to our Lord and God! To Him is the praise and glory forever and ever!

Per our Father's instructions, below you will find the prophecy from our Father in Heaven, Jehovah, Most High God, which was sent out to the churches in middle Arkansas on July 10, 2001. This letter was sent to six hundred and five churches, but at last count 50 had been returned for mail-related reasons. As of July 26, 2001, we have received two hate mails and one "do not send me anymore." Not a single pastor has written stating that he and his church want the blessings, which our Father promises! It is a sad day, but in this I am not discouraged; for in my spirit I know that our Lord and God is bringing revival to Arkansas, if only one or two people want it.

Since our Lord has anointed me with this anointing, I have seen Him give many miracles to the needy; and I have seen Him move with great and mighty healings! I know that our Lord and God is moving in a great way with His Spirit and that many will be healed and set free. Even the dead will be raised; for He has promised it!

To: The Ministers of the churches in the State of Arkansas

A PROPHECY FROM JEHOVAH, MOST HIGH GOD

Given on June 01, 2001

Warnings to the Churches!

To the churches of Little Rock and those of surrounding areas, both near and far, even throughout all the state of Arkansas, behold My words; for I am Jehovah, Most High God. Be advised and know, Shepherds of My Flock, that I see and know all. I am not a God afar, but One, who resides within your very midst. My eyes go to and fro throughout the whole Earth and I tell you that I am deeply ashamed of what I see. Yea, in the state of Arkansas, even in the very capital city, thereof, I see preachers, who are harlots. You whore after women and preach a word, which is not My word. You pick phrases from My Scriptures to suit your own agenda and you swindle My people. Yea, you pass the plate many times so that you may drive your Cadillacs and feed your every desire. Greedy preachers of the Word, I am disgusted with your hollow sermons. I am repelled by your empty words. I am angered by your callous attitudes toward the hurt and suffering. Through your vices, you have driven My people asunder. You visit not the sick in the community, not even those, whom you shepherd. You disgust Me with your piousness and sorely offend Me with your "holier than thou attitude." You refuse to allow My true prophets and apostles into your havens; for you are jealous for those, who do not even belong to you. Neither, do you want the Spirit of God to chastise you through the mouths of My true prophets and apostles; for you believe that you can hide your sins. Nay, you cannot hide your sins; for I know you, who are guilty of all manner of sexual perversions. You are full of adultery and even sodomy; and you believe that no one will know, that you can continue on in your wickedness. I see all and I know all; and I command you to repent, to come away from evil and cry out in true repentance, seeking forgiveness and full deliverance. For, many of you are possessed by all manner of demons. You have given My sanctuaries over to all manner of greed, lusts and sins and I am calling you to repentance! Repent or step down!

And, for the few, the very few, who truly love Me and who truly preach My messages of Godly love and repentance, I say to you, "I know who you are; and I say again that you are few, indeed!" For, this state or Arkansas is full of the blind leading the blind.

I am disgusted with the gargantuan buildings, which are laid up for the whole world to see, wherein you say in pride, "Look, what I have! Look what I do! How great I am!" Let it be known, Oh proud and arrogant preachers, that I am against you! In one moment, I will smash your centers of pride and I will scatter your flock; for you are an anathema to your very selves!

"Love My Flock!" "Bring them to repentance!"

To the good and faithful servants, who love Me with all their hearts, I say unto you, "Love My flock! Continue to bring them to repentance!"

God's Promise!

If the pastors will repent and cause My people to repent, I promise a great revival for the state of Arkansas. I promise to turn this state from a spiritual desert to a place of Living Waters.

God's Judgement!

But, if you will not clean up your churches and if you will not bring the people to repentance, if you will not go into the neighborhoods and minister to the lost, I shall smite this state through war, pestilence, famine, disease and death! I am a merciful God; but even now my judgement is falling all across the United States of America.

501 (c ) 3 Whores, Repent!

I say to you bought and sold whore preachers. "How many of you utterly refuse to speak against a Satanic government? Through your own tax-exempt agreement with the government, you have willingly agreed to look the other way, while one country under God has become one country under Satan. This tax exempt status is all about silencing the truth. Who among you is not bought and sold by this whore system? And, who has caused you to cower to a Satanic government, save you, yourselves?"

Cowards, beware!

I ask you, "Are My people full of cowardice, that they will not speak the truth and stand for what is right?" Nay, these are not Mine; for I have given My people the boldness to speak what is true and to do what is right.

Church of Sodom, get thee hence from Me. I call Mine those, whose robes are made pure by great trials. Will a coward withstand trials and persecution for My namesake? Nay, a coward will run. A coward will renounce Me and My Son.

Church, come clean before God and be blessed, or perish in rebellion!

I say to you, Church, come clean before Me and I will bless you mightily; but if you will not come clean, I shall utterly destroy you. I am Jehovah, Most High God."

FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES*Book VII*Chapter Four*"The Seal Is Broken"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Behold My words today; for I shall give you much, which shall benefit the Children of Men, yea even the Children of God, the Sons and Daughters of the Most High, even Jehovah, the One God. Listen to Me, My Little One, when I tell you that the Earth, itself, rests within a sea of darkness; for the cumulative sins of mankind have polluted not only the Earth, itself; but they space around the Earth, even far into space. For, this reason, many see through glasses darkly and many see only partially; for this polluted sea closes in on all. Were it not for My Devoted Ones, those, who put Me first and who love Me with their all, this planet would have already imploded. For, darkness is a bitter cyclone of destruction, which devours itself. Yea, My Child, I know that you are wondering why I have allowed Lucifer and those of like mind to stick around; and the key word is 'allowed.' I have allowed the same; for this is part of My Divine Plan, that all might be tempted, that all might be tried and tested and found worthy of the Kingdom of God.

Now, My Little One, I shall carry you into a new word and some of what you see shall surely surprise you. Nevertheless, My Child, proceed on with the next chapter of Book Seven, yea Chapter Four. Beloved One, write what is revealed unto you and when you feel the need, question Me; for I will answer what you ask."

"Yes, My Father. I see before me a book." This is a very large book and it is divided into sections with tabs at the beginning of each section. At first glance, I believe these tabs to represent letters of the alphabet, but when I look closer, I see that they have fuzzy writing and I cannot make them out. This book is sealed but when I touch it, the seal begins to melt from around the edges and the book. The book appears to have a dark cover, which is almost black, but when I touch it, the cover changes quickly into a beautiful blue, like the blue of crystal pure waters. As I have my hand on this book, I hear a sound, like that of rushing wind, and this mighty wind pulls me forth, like a whirlwind, and the wind carries me headlong through the cover of the book. Quickly, I am carried into a room, where I land softly on a beautiful floor, and on looking around, I see that this room is vacant. The floors seem to be made of hardwood; but when I look closer, I see that they are made of the most beautiful radiant stone, which is cut in long strips and joined together to look like wood. This stone even has a grain, which reminds me of wood; and when I touch the stone, it is not cold, but warm. As I look around I see no furniture at first, just a room with many windows and beautiful curtains, which seem to be made of silk. These curtains have designs on them, which are pumpkins, all interconnected by green vines. Yet, these designs are very tiny and can only be seen upon close scrutiny. The background color of the curtains is a soft cream and now and then the curtains move gently as if wafted by a gentle breeze. When I close my eyes, I am so very aware of this warm and gentle breeze, which reminds me of a sea breeze on an early Summer morning. As I look behind, I see a counter, which reminds me of a counter at an inn. The front of the counter is made of the same stone, which is on the floor and all is rather plain, save a white tope, which has an iridescent hue. As I look at the counter top, I cannot tell for certain what color it is; for it seems to be alive with various shades of blue and green. Behind the counter is a most beautiful being. Surely, this being is female! And, even as I think female, she looks at me and says, 'yes.' She is adorned in white, a beautiful white robe, which is worn over a white dress. On her left hand is a beautiful blue sapphire ring, which seems to be alive with a most intriguing radiance.

"Hello, I say to her," my name is Linda Newkirk, a servant of the Most High."

"I know," she says; for He has summoned you. Enter in at the straight gate; for the way is narrow and few find this way."

"Yes," I say to her, "I know." And, suddenly I feel great sadness begin to overcome me. Tears begin to well up in my eyes and I begin to weep so greatly that I fall to the floor, sobbing uncontrollably. Great sadness seems to grip me all over as I feel the burdens of the world upon my shoulders.

"Do not cry, Precious One; for the Broad Way calls to most." And, as she says these words, a gentle wind comes and dries my tears; and blue birds appear suddenly and begin to preen my hair. I can feel the flutter of their wings and as I reach up to touch them I sense that they are busy working in my hair. Such love comes from these precious birds and in a moment I feel great joy returning to my very soul."

"What are they doing," I ask the angel.

"They are beautifying your hair; for the tears had soaked part of your hair and they have come to beautify you, carrying your hair up here and there and holding it together with diamonds from the throne of the Most High God, our Beloved Father Jehovah."

"Why have they come?"

"Soon, very soon, you shall go through the door behind the counter and you shall visit with the Most High. You shall be carried into the Holy of Holies."

"Will I remember?"

"Oh, yes, you will remember; for this book is unsealed and the words of this book will be given unto you."

"Oh, I fear that I am not presentable!"

"But, you are; and were you not right in spirit, you would not have been given the power to unseal what has been written by the Most High and saved for you at this time."

"Oh, Beautiful Servant of the Most High, I am ready!" And, I look to see that I am wearing a white robe, which seems to reflect light like Mother of Pearl; for it radiates a pure light and my shoes radiate a pure light and my hands radiate this light! Suddenly, I feel so full of joy and light and radiance as if I could fly!

"Are you ready," she asks.

"Oh, yes!" And, in an instant I am pulled through toward the door behind the counter, again as if in a whirlwind, and I rush through this door so quickly that I hardly remember passing through it. Suddenly, I find myself beside this angel and we are standing on a most beautiful radiant sea of electric blue. As far as the eye can see, this blue sea extends; and it appears to be made of pure glass, or stone of a radiant blue. I take a step forward and realize that what I walk on is as slippery as glass. Then, the angel takes my hand and lifts me up and says, "Behold your radiant feet; for they will cause you to glide above the sea!"

And, as I look down, I see my feet leave the slippery glass; for a beautiful light comes from them; and this power lifts me above the sea. Interestingly, I note that the blueness of this sea matches her ring and what is of the ring seems to be plucked straight from the sea, itself. All around, I feel an electric blueness. This vibrant blue is in the air, which is alive with electricity. Here and there I see vibrant blue swirls, vortices of blue, small electric whirlwinds. In an instant, I seem to be flying, caught up in this majestic beauty, full of joy and radiance. Oh, what a time of joy!

"Stay focused, Precious One; for we are entering into the Holy of Holies." And, with this comment I am brought back to the purpose at hand and the seriousness of this time. Before me are white banisters, simply carved, yet radiant and pure. "Wait here," she says; and she disappears before my very eyes.

In deep reverence I fall on my knees as a most beautiful song begins to bathe me. It seems to come from all directions and curiously enough I know the words of this song. I also know that I am to sing alto; however, in the Earth realm I sing soprano. This song is a most beautiful song of praise and it is about our Precious God Jehovah and His Loving Son. There is much praise for the Lamb of God. And, just as I am singing about the Lamb of God, I see before me our Beloved Lord Jesus; and He is atop a white horse. His eyes are like fire and He is dressed in white; and He carries a bow on his shoulder and in his hand is an arrow.

I feel a gentle touch on my shoulder and I rise up; for I am now prostrate on my face before the presence of our Lord Jesus. Rising up, I see that the angel has returned. "The Most High will see you," she says. I try to rise and I am aware that my knees are wobbly and my feet are so very unstable that I feel that I will once again fall on my face.

"Fear not," she says, "for you have beheld Him many times."

"Oh, Beautiful Servant of God, I am only a young child; and I fear doing or saying anything, which will offend our Father and our Precious Jesus!"

"Yes, this is known, but be at peace; for He is ever full of love and mercy." With these words, we appear quickly before the throne of the Most High; and between us and Him is a carpet with the most unusual symbols and designs. As I behold the carpet, a thunderous voice says, "The Carpet of Creation;" and, just as I hear the voice, which says, "The Carpet of Creation," an eagle flies at my head and takes his claws, ripping at the diamonds from my hair. My heart leaps into my throat and I feel such fear that I fall onto the carpet before the Most High God, Jehovah, face first.

"My Beloved Child," He says. "Arise and weep not. I do not wish to frighten you." Oh, but I am afraid! Then, the angel picks me up and carries me to the throne of the Most High, where all my fears begin to dissolve; for I am bathed in such love and mercy. Before Him is a tray of fruit and He says, "My Child, eat of the Tree of Life; for in the earthly body, you shall not taste of death." And, I pick a most luscious fruit, which looks something like a pear, but the meat is rose in color and juice flows down my arm, as it is so abundant; and I eat all. "Eat another," He says. So, I pick another fruit, the likes of which I cannot compare. For, it is orange, like a persimmon, yet inside it is cream-colored, with a hint of vanilla in its fragrance. Oh, the smell of this fruit; for it is so wondrous!. When I have finished the fruit, our Father says to me, "My Child, do you know why you are here?"

At that moment, I look up at our Father and realize how awesome He is, for His eyes are a pure sea of love. I feel so small, yet so full of love and peace that I suddenly dread the moment that I must leave. Just the thought of leaving Him brings tears to My eyes. "My Little One," He says to me, "I know all your travails; for I have brought many across your path. I know your heart and I have found it full of love for Me and for My Son and for your brothers and sisters. My Little One, I know that often you long to come home. I hear you every time you tell Me how much you miss Me and My Son. I hear you every time you say you love Me. I know and understand your zeal for revival; for you know that it is to save souls. You know that this revival is not about you and you have no motive for fame or glory. I know your shyness and that you in no way want a spotlight upon yourself. You have not made riches your goal, but have walked simply before Me. My Little One, this is why you are here with Me right now and others are not. I know your heart and I have found it pure. My Precious Child, I shall withhold no good thing from you and your husband. Yea, the storehouse of Heaven is open unto you. What is Mine shall be give freely unto you two and I shall carry you to the ends of the Earth to take My words and to share of My Son's message of Salvation. Keep focused on My word and do not let distraction steal what I have for you. For, a time of great and mighty miracles is at hand for you two. Both of you shall move in the gift of translation, yet truly My Little One, you have moved in this gift for some time. Through this gift, I shall indeed carry you to many lands and I shall bring you back safely. No weapon, which is formed against you shall prosper; for I have deemed it so. My Little One, much is coming forth in this book, which is for the salvation of all. Therefore, make time daily for much prayer and fasting as I direct you. You ask about the translation key, which was given to two of you by Timothy Snodgrass, My Beloved Servant, and I shall tell you about this key. My Child, behold the key of translation, for it is upon your lap."

"My Father, I have it and it seems so large and weighty that I can hardly pick it up."

"It seems large to you now, but not when you received it; for in these realms you can see that this is a very large gift from Me. It seems heavy for you cannot pick up this key or even use it of the flesh; but one moves in and out of this gift through My Spirit. Pick up the key and eat it."

"My Father, you said, 'Eat it.'"

"Yes."

I pick up the key, which seems as light as a feather; and as it comes near my mouth, it flies down my throat as if it were caught up in a mighty whirlwind. Suddenly, I find myself in a vision standing before a door. Over the door are the words, 'The door of translation;' and I hear our Father in Heaven say, "Enter therein." So, I reach out to touch the door; and as I do so, the door flies open. On the threshold of the door are the words, "You will never be the same." Upon seeing these words, I feel uneasiness in the pit of my stomach, but I hear our Father say, "Proceed." So, I step across the threshold and as I do so I enter into a pink light. I can feel this light slashing through me like knives, but there is no pain. I just stand there, not knowing what I was to do. The light is full of powerful energies, which seem to run in lines, yet also in waves; and the longer I stand in it, the weaker I feel. Suddenly, this light turns into a massive whirlwind and I hear the angel say, "Hold on!"

"Hold on," I thought, "Hold on to what?" And, suddenly I realize that she means "Hold on to your bearings;" for the wind and the light are carrying me 'round and 'round; and I am going around so fast that I can hardly remember who I am, much less where I am. Amidst this whirlwind, I begin to plead with God; for I am afraid. Then, suddenly I am whirled back into the room with the angel and the counter; and I pick myself up from the floor, feeling that I had been ripped to shreds. But, I am not ripped at all. I wear the same clothes and my shoes still radiate with the Light of God, but now these shoes bear a pink radiance. On my left hand is a blue ring, like that of the angel; and just as I am about to ask her a question, great power comes from my feet and my body seems to torpedo up through the roof of the room and out through the cover of the book. I look down at the first tab on the book, which has been previously invisible; but now it reads, "The gift of translation."

FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES*Book VII*Chapter Five*"The Words Unsealed"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Hearken unto Me this day; for I have heard your cries. Yea, My Child, there is nothing, which is too great or small for Me; and this day I have destroyed the plans of the enemy to subdue you. I have taken note that certain ones within the office of another prophet have labeled you 'false prophet.' Woe to those in positions of authority, who wrongly label and accuse Mine Anointed! Woe to those, who only see in black and white, yet they deny the abstract! Yea, there was a reason that My Son spoke in parables. For, the swine would have truly trampled My pearls of wisdom and rendered them as mud beneath their feet. But, now in these very last days, I have opened up My deeper truths, that those, who hunger and thirst for them may not be denied them. Yet, the babes will not receive or understand them. And, the legalists will scoff at them, label them false and trample them under foot. It behooves all, who lack understanding to seek understanding! Now, My Precious Child, I ask you, do you have questions?"

"Yes, My Father, I do; and they pertain to the last chapter of the book and what I saw and experienced. What is this book, which is sealed?"

"These are My words for Book Seven, which have been sealed until this time."

"Why does this book change from black to blue in color?"

"It changes from a sealed book of bound words to a book, which is flowing with the Living Waters, as indicated by the vibrant blue color."

"And, the sound of the rushing wind, which sweeps me away is the Spirit of God?"

"Yes."

"Father, what is this room; and why are the floors made of stone?"

"My Child, this room is called the ante-room as it is here that many are brought before they are given special assignments. The stone is called gypsum and I chose this stone for reasons of My own."

"Father, it seemed so strange as the stone was warm, almost as if it were alive."

"In the Kingdom of God, all stones are living. What you experienced was a living interaction between the stone and you."

"Are these stones alive with the Spirit of God?"

"Yes."

"My Father, what is the significance of the pumpkins, which are interconnected with the green vine?"

"My Child, look at the pumpkins and touch one."

I reach out and touch one of the pumpkins and as I do so, I see an explosion of light; and in the midst of this light is my Mother. She looks at me and says, "I love you and I miss you. Give my love to all." Then, she is gone. "Father, I am so happy to see my Mother in Heaven and I thank you from the depths of my heart for allowing her to come and give this message? But, I still do not understand all that I see."

"My Child, what did your Mother call you when you were young?"

"She called me 'Pumpkin.'"

"Then, realize that I have orchestrated this contact with your Mother, that when you came to Heaven, as you have in this vision, that your Mother would be able to say 'hello.' This has been her request and it has been granted; for she now understands that you are a true prophetess and apostle and she is pained that she would not accept this is the Earth."

"But, My Father, why are there many pumpkins?"

"My Child, there is only one, which is seen over and over. This is a remembrance of love from your Mother."

"Thank You, my Precious Father for allowing this. I feel as if I will weep that my Mother finally understands."

"Do not weep, My Child. For, I, too, weep when My Loved Ones weep. But, rejoice for the miracle, which has occurred in your Mother."

"Father, I do rejoice and I thank You and praise You; for You alone are Most High! Praises to your Holy Name! How I love and cherish you! Thank you from the bottom of my heart for allowing this visit!"

"Father, as we proceed to understand what you have given me, I would like to know the significance of the white counter top, which changes into beautiful hues of blue and green."

"My Child, this top signifies purity and it is flowing with My Living Waters. All, that is in this room, is alive with My Spirit."

"Father, what is this ring on the left hand of the angel; for when I left Heaven I saw that I, too, was given the same kind of ring."

"My Child, this ring is from the azure sea, which is before My throne. By having this ring, this angel has access to Me and to My throne at any given time. By nature of your having been given this ring, it means that you, too, have access to My throne at any given time. When you need Me, you will have immediate access to My throne."

"Oh, my Precious Father I am so very blessed and deeply humbled. You are so good to us, Father; and I praise You mightily; for I feel like the least of the least! Blessed Father, help me to further understand what is unsealed. Tell me of the blue birds, which came to preen my hair. They were so full of love. Why did they knit diamonds into my hair?"

"I sent them to you and they chose to put the diamonds in your hair; for they knew that you were coming here. This was their gift of love to you."

"Father, when this happened, it reminded Me of the way our cat preens my hair when the Spirit of God is upon Me; and this, too, is a most precious gift of love."

"If an animal on the Earth is capable of such love, imagine how much greater is the love of animals in the Kingdom of God."

"My Father, I have experienced this great heavenly love through these beautiful blue birds; and I am so deeply touched. Thank you, My Father, for this beautiful gift!"

"Father, I move on in these works to the song, which I was singing; and I ask you, 'Is this song the song of the 144,000?'"

"You have experienced it."

"This is a most beautiful song. All that I experienced was so beautiful, especially the Carpet of Creation and I would so like to understand more of Your works of Creation."

"My Child, this carpet is called the 'Carpet of Creation;' for it is just that."

"My Father, surely no one could understand this carpet, save you; for it is full of signs, symbols and electric hues."

"This is so, My Child, and even this carpet is alive. Every symbol will open into a panorama of majestic experiences across time. And, each symbol bears a symbol within a symbol within a symbol. Such symbols open up into a great panorama of experiences and tell many beautiful stories about all creation and this carpet continues to be constructed. It is a living pattern of all creation."

"Oh, Father, how I would love to sit with you some day and experience the panorama of just a few of these symbols."

"Some day, this shall be so."

"Father, as we proceed to understand what you have given in this previous chapter, please tell me about the fierce eagle, which was attacking my head and trying to rip out the diamonds."

"This is Satan, the devil."

"But, why is he allowed here?"

"Even he comes before My throne; and he is trying to steal what I give you, to unnerve you and cause you fear as you come before Me."

"But, Father, why is this allowed?"

"Satan is a legalist and he knows the holy words better than the best trained preachers. He knows these words backwards and forwards and he, himself, comes here often to demand judgement upon many of you for the smallest of infractions."

"But, Father, why do you allow this? He is so evil."

"For a short time, this shall go on and then he will be shut up."

"Father, why did you have me eat the key of translation?"

"That it is within you and not without. This key, which is now within you will open many doors from within My Kingdom. In due season, you will move in and out of this gift with great ease. Yes, My Child, I have translated you already great distances. For, I did translate you to China, where you entered a prison and released one of My Cherished Ones and even so walked past the guards unnoticed. And, I have translated you across the waters to Burma, where you brought healing to three. In addition, I have translated you into certain meetings, where I wanted you to see all. Even so, these are not all, but a few. I tell you, My Child, that you have truly seen and experienced nothing yet. For, I shall translate you into remote jungles and frozen wastelands to save My people. This gift shall allow you to make provision where there is none, just as My Son multiplied the fishes and the loaves."

"Father, I wish I understood this gift."

"My Little One, I shall explain in detail in later messages that those, who have a heart after My deep words, may know and understand My hidden truths."

"Oh, my Father, I look forward to these messages; for surely a goodly number shall operate through this gift in these latter days."

"This is so, yet some have been ridiculed, despised and put down for telling of this gift. But since you have been ridiculed and despised by many for revealing the truth of reincarnation, you are well used to the attacks. Therefore, giving this message shall be easy for you."

"Oh, my Father, I cannot control what people think or even say. Your word says that we are all held accountable for every word, which proceeds out of our mouths. People have caused me pain in the past because of great ridicule; but I just keep on plodding along, loving You and our Precious Jesus and seeking Your holy will."

"Father, will you tell me about the door of translation?"

"You have entered therein. You have received the translation anointing; and you will never be the same."

"Father, when you say, 'You will never be the same,' what do You mean?"

"When you least expect it, you will enter the translation plane and you will bring mighty miracles into the Earth."

"Oh, Father, I approach this with such awe that I do not even know how to respond to what you have said!"

"No, not now; but in due season I will have you write at length about it."

"Father, will you explain the nature of the pink light?"

"This will be revealed to you in due time."

"Father, why was I so afraid and why was I dumped from the anointing when I became afraid?"

"You were afraid because you did not know what to expect and you were dumped out of the anointing when fear developed; for to move within this anointing requires a total absence of fear."

"Father, will I get to go back there?"

"Over and over again. With this, we shall stop for today. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES*Book VII*Chapter Six*"Keys to The Nations"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Harken unto Me, My Little One; for I am giving you a message for the nations. I am placing in your hands keys to the nations; and I will open up new avenues, wherein I send you into these nations with My holy word."

"My Father, as I stand before your throne, I take both the written words and the keys upon a ring. There is one large key and many smaller keys and when I lay hold of these keys, the weight is so great that I am straining to carry them."

"Neither by might, nor by human power, but by the Spirit of God."

And, as the Most High says these words, the keys and the ring, which bears them, begin to radiate a great light; and I find myself above the Earth, traversing the lands. The waters move quickly beneath my feet; and here and there I see places on land and sea, which light up as I pass by. Here and there I throw seeds, which come from a bucket in my left hand; and these seeds are called the Holy Seeds of Salvation. North and South I go and East and West I go as these seeds dot the world. Then, after a while I stand above the North Pole and as I stand there, Our Father comes, full of love and mercy; and He places a crown upon my head. This crown is called the Crown of Salvation; for as He places this crown upon my head He says, "The Crown of Salvation; for you will bring many souls to salvation."

And, suddenly before me, I see a door; and our Father in Heaven says, "Enter therein and eat." So, I enter through the golden door and I sit to eat what is before me."

"Eat this book," says the Most High.

So, I eat the book, page for page; and the taste is bitter and salty and also tastes of mold and mildew; and I believe that I shall be ill, for the taste is so bad.

"The travails of salvation," He says.

Soon, the book is eaten and I drink of the cup, which is before me and the taste is bitter and acidic, and it burns my tongue and throat. But, I drink all and He says, "Bitter is the cup of salvation."

I rise from the table and behind me is a mirror and standing beside the mirror is the prophet Timothy Snodgrass and He says, "Look!" Then, I look into the mirror and I see beasts of the jungle and I cringe; for there are rhinoceros and tigers and various birds of prey, snake and vermin. As I see what is before me, I clutch my chest and exclaim loudly, "Oh, my!"

Then, Timothy says, "Look!" And, I look again and behold that Dennis and I are in a boat and we are traveling a river in an outback and I gasp, for there are snakes in the trees and again I proclaim loudly once more, "Oh, my!"

Timothy touches the Crown of Salvation upon my head and I see that he, too, wears such a crown. Suddenly, for no apparent reason, I feel faint; for it seems that when Timothy touches this crown I am slain in the Spirit. And, as I am slain in the Spirit, I enter into another vision and I see souls, as it were, all dressed in white and they are levitating just above the ground. In the air above them is a great radiance and within this radiance is our Lord Jesus. He says, "Blessed are the peaceful at heart; for they shall inherit the Kingdom of God!" And at this instant I see a black door open and it leads directly into the burning fires of hell. Coming from these fiery pits, I hear great cries and moans and shrieks, like those of the devil, himself on a rampage; and I say, "Oh, Lord! Lord Jesus, save for your mercy, your love and your grace, there go I." And, in an instant the trap door is closed and I am back at the table. Timothy is behind me, yet he is fading away, as in a dream, and once again I am given to eat. This time an egg is before me, yet not a real egg; for this egg is made of jewels and precious pearls and it opens in half. Within this egg is a gold necklace and as I lift it out, the voice of the Most High God Jehovah says, "Eat this gold; for riches you have not, but in due season the wealth of the wicked shall be yours; and it shall be used for the salvation of many souls."

So, I take the gold necklace and I eat it and great smoke comes from my mouth. Acid, like that of sulphuric acid, spews from my mouth and the pain is almost unbearable; for my mouth burns with great pain. Then, I see a volcano blow; and I hear the words, "like unto that of Popocatepetl" and ash and smoke and molten lave fill the air. People try to escape and some make it while others do not. Cities are burned and claimed! Then, another volcano erupts, "likened unto that of Kilauea," and houses are consumed and the sea is full of molten lava. Then, a third volcano blows sky high and this one is "likened unto that of Mt Fuji in Japan," and the top of this mountain is blown clean off. Huge boulders fly high into the sky and ash and fiery stone fly out for miles. Molten lava and boiling water and steam pour forth and I hear the voice of the Most High God Jehovah say, "Only three of Seven!"

I slump to the table and I weep and howl before God as tears of blood run from my eyes; and as I weep tears of blood I see the prophetess Sherri Elijah. She is sleeping; and I say to her, "Awaken, my Sister; for the sound of the horn fills the air!" And, as she looks, a great fireball fills the sky and another and another, such that great terror is upon the people and as she watches, she says, "Oh, My, what is that?" And, the Most High God Jehovah says, "My wrath and My fury." As I watch in great awe, I say to her, "Sherri, come here. Come high upon this Holy Mountain and look!" And, she comes with me high upon the Holy Mountain and as we stand and look below we see a great and mighty dam break and waters rush down between mountains and whole cities are claimed and I hear the words, "Like unto Peru." Suddenly, I feel faint all over; for the calamity is so great and many perish beneath the waters! And, just when I feel that I shall faint from the great sorrow and pain, a great bolt of lightening strikes over our heads and a "burning star," as it were, a great "burning star," crashes into the ocean and we both hear it and see it as it crashes. Then, I hear our Father say, "Like unto the Pacific Ocean." The winds howl and the air is electric with fire; and as rushing waters claim the islands, smoke, darkness, and steam fill the air. The world over, people are terrified; for great horror has hit the skies; and the people mourn and tremble. But, the angels rejoice; for they cry, "It is a new day unto the Most High. Souls will e saved! Victories will be gained! The Most High God Jehovah reigns supreme!"

But, below I see the Red Dragon and I say, "Look, Sherri!" For, the Red Dragon has risen to new heights and he thinks to seize this time of terror to advance his own agenda; but he is not allowed. His tail is pinned down by the Most High and his feet are pinned down by the Most High; for it is not yet his season. And, the voice of the Most High God Jehovah rings from His Holy Mountain and His words fill the air as He says, "Unto man is given a season longer!" Then, Sherri and I weep. We fall to our faces upon God's Holy Mountain; for we know that we will be given additional time for the salvation of souls. To Jehovah, Most High God, is the praise and the glory, forever and ever!

FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES*BOOK VII*Chapter Seven*"The Box of Diamonds, and more"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven. I bring you before My Throne this day to bring you to a new awareness. Open up your hands and receive of Me; for I have a blessing for you this day."

"Oh, my Precious Father! Glory to Your Name! Holy is Your Name! To You is the praise and the glory forever and ever!" And I fall on my face before the Most High God and I begin to weep. In my hand is a white box and this box radiates great light; but already in my spirit, I sense that Lucifer wishes to steal what is given to me; so I clutch the box tightly before my chest."

"Fear not, My Little One; for what I have given you none shall take away. Open the box. Eat all contents. Then, eat the box."

So, I open the box, which is full of radiant stones, which look like cut diamonds, and I do not know how I shall chew them. Nevertheless, I grab a handful of these stones and stuff them in my mouth; but to my surprise, these stones are not hard to chew. As I chew them, they crumble easily in my mouth and release the sweetest flavor. They are actually full of juice and oh so tasty that I look forward to eating all. I sit before the throne of God and I eat until I have eaten all stones and at the bottom of this box is a key. It looks like the key of translation. And, even as I think this, the Spirit of God says, "But, it is not."

"Father, what shall I do with this key?"

"Come hither, My Child; for this key opens another box." So, I get up; for I am seated before His throne and I take the key and the small box and I glide toward the throne of our Father."

"Place the key in this box; for this key has been reserved for you to open this box at this time."

"Father, should I eat this small box first?"

"As you wish."

So, I fold the small box, which is malleable and I eat it bite for bite until all is gone. As I eat it, I hear and see explosions going off in the Spirit and I begin to feel unsteady, even drunk."

"My Father, I am feeling lightheaded, as if I am drunk."

"Yea, you are not drunk, but drunk with the power of My Spirit; for all is given to you for the increasing of My Spirit within you. This is My gift to you today and it is a mighty gift."

Slowly, the imbalances begin to subside and I sense a great radiance around me and one me, like I have never seen before and my heart leaps with such joy; for the love of God fills me and bathes me with such beauty. In my hands is the key and before me is the large box, and as I move to insert the key, I feel such anticipation as that of a young child at a birthday party. Gently, I insert the key into the box and I turn it

1/4 turn to the right and the box lid swings open. The box is rather large, almost large enough for me to crawl into, so I have to rise somewhat to see what is in the box. What I see are packages; and all are bound with ribbons. Curiously, I look at our Father and ask Him what I should do."

"Open all," He says.

"So, I take the first package and as I touch it the ribbon unties itself and the wrapper unwraps itself and a flowing robe unfolds before my eyes. On the back of the robe is the word, 'China;' and as I grasp the robe and pull it to my chest, I ask our Father, "Does this robe represent what I believe, that I will go to China?"

"Yes, My Child, my words through you shall get into China; for the door is now open."

"Father, what do I do with this robe?"

"Eat it."

"Eat this robe also?"

"Yes, My Child."

So, I take the robe and as I begin to put it into my mouth, it rushes down my throat and I hear and see a volcano blow its top. "Father, what was that?"

"That was communism in China. One day, it will blow sky high, just as you saw with the volcano."

"Father, how long?"

"When the sea implodes with the 'burning star,' that is when."

"Is this when I shall take your word into China?"

"This is when you will pass through the open door. Now, proceed."

Then, I look in the box and take out the next package, which is thick, but light as a feather. I open the package and see that there are five robes, which are wrapped as one. As I think to unwrap them, the ribbon lets go and the packages unwrap themselves. Before me are the five robes. One says, 'Malaysia.' Another says, 'Indonesia.' A third says, 'Bahamas.' A fourth says, 'Sahara Desert.' And, a fifth says 'England.'

"Eat them all," our Father says.

And, immediately, all five robes become intertwined and they rush headlong down my throat. Immediately, I see terrible visions of fighting and killing and many lie dead in the streets with blood all about. And, the smell is a putrefying. Flies congregate and evil people with guns roam the streets. "Oh, Father, what is this? Is this what we will see?"

"You will, but violence will not come near you. Those, who think to harm you from henceforth will suffer a rapid death! Woe to those, who come to lay a hand on Mine Anointed, or who come to mock and scorn; for as the bear killed the rebellious children, who mocked Elisha, such will be the fate of those, who come to mock, scorn, and harm Mine Anointed."

"But, Father might I ask, what could we possibly do in such a desert?"

"Heal the sick and raise the dead! Provide Living Waters where there are none and physical water, too, to do what the mind calls impossible."

"Father, is this all I need to know about these five places at this time?"

"At this time, this is all."

"Father, I see three more packages in this box. So, I will take out the next one, which is on top. As I pick it up, I see that it is very heavy. It looks small and light, but feels like stone. Father, why is this?" And, as I say these words, the ribbons unravel and the paper unravels and I see a robe, which look like it is made of steel. It is radiant like metal, but malleable; and on it are the words, 'Robe of Translation.' And, within this robe is another robe, which is also attached to the first robe. And, this second robe says, 'For Dennis, in due season.' Father, shall I eat both?"

"Proceed."

And, even before I can think about what our Father has said, a long metal pipe goes down my throat and great steam bellows from the pipe as it goes down. I feel steam coming from my mouth, eyes and ears and my feet and hands. Suddenly, I feel myself shooting straight up, like a bullet; and I know that I am flying, soaring all over the Earth. Then, I hear the words of our Father and He says, "Precious Child;" and I am suddenly standing before Him.

"My wonderful and beautiful Father, what happened to me?"

"You got a taste of the gift of translation."

"But, Father, it seemed like more than a taste as steam was coming out of me everywhere."

"Yes, My Child, I know that to you it seemed to be more than a taste, but I can assure you that what you experienced is only a taste."

"Father, I am left with two packages and as I reach for them, I see that they are joined together. It is two packages in one." As I touch the top of the package, the two rise from the box and I witness them unraveling before my eyes. Two robes, side by side, yet with no names. One robe has a checkered pattern of white and dark brown and the other has a pattern of white with green stripes. Father, these two robes, which are joined, are a mystery to me. Will you explain this?"

"Yes, My Child, these two mystery robes, which are joined together, are you and Dennis. Your union was ordained before the foundation of the world. You are very different, yet very much alike. You have a different pattern, but a similar purpose."

"Father, what shall I do with the robes?"

"Eat them."

"Both?"

"Yes."

And, even as I think to eat the robes, a plate is handed to me and the robes have suddenly been turned into a meal. I eat the robes, which appear as a pile of radiance on a plate; and when I am finished eating them, I begin to feel very sleepy. "Father I feel so sleepy, as if I shall fall off to sleep." But, before I can finish these words, I see myself in a bed with a canopy. This is a very expensive room and Dennis is sitting in a chair and reading a paper. I awaken and feel very sleepy still. I look out the window and know that we are in Israel. "Honey, tomorrow is Rosh Hashanah," I say; and a mighty celebration is at hand. Far below, a horn sounds in the street and I have a vision of people, who are fighting and dancing at the same time. In an instant, I am back before our Father on my knees, "Oh, My Beloved Father, how I love and cherish you and your Beloved Son, our Precious Jesus!"

"This, I know, My Child."

"Father, we are so blessed, truly blessed beyond words. How grateful we are! Thank you, Father, from the bottom of my heart."

"My Child, you have left a small book in the box."

I rise up to the top of the box and peer inside and see that there is remaining one small box. Inside are many airline tickets and train and ship tickets; and on the last page of this book, I read these words, 'You and Dennis will travel the world to save many souls. You will carry my gospel to the ends of the Earth and you shall not want. You shall stand before rulers of nations and you will decree My word. For, I, alone, am Most High. I, alone, am Jehovah, the One and Only God, the Great I Am.'" And, as I read these words and shut the little book, our Father says, "Eat the book; and go in peace this day for I know your every concern and you shall not want!"

As I think to eat the little book, it rushes down my throat quickly and with a great wind. The mighty wind of the Spirit of God catches me up and brings me back past cities and hills, until I rest comfortably in my home. Blessed is the name of Jehovah, Most High God, forever and ever!

FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES*Book VII*Chapter Eight*"The Seven Thunders"

"My Beloved Child, hearken unto Me and write; for this is the eighth chapter of Book Seven; and My words shall flow unto you like rushing waters. For, even now you are bathed in and swimming in the River of Life. I have told you, My Child, that no good thing from My Kingdom shall be withheld from you; and from henceforth you and Dennis shall see blessings coming to you from the most unexpected sources. Yea, I shall raise you up and I shall use you as a harbinger of My word from continent to continent, from sea to sea, from East to West and from North to South. Great and mighty miracles shall follow you; for My hand is upon you and I shall not fail you in My word to bless you two and to keep you safe.

"My Child, today I shall tell you of the Seven Thunders and if time allows before you get tired I shall then answer your questions from two chapters past. Listen unto Me and write as I tell you; for as you know much that much of this has been sealed until this time."

"Yes, My Father."

"My Child, have you see a raven hop on one foot and then the other?"

"My Father, I know that I have seen birds do this, but I cannot remember whether I have seen a raven do this."

"Well, now you have. Behold the raven, which hops on one foot and then the other!"

"And, My Father, not only does the raven hop on one foot and then the other, but he has shiny rings on his toes; and when he hops on a given foot, I hear the clinking of metal and very briefly I see sparks flying from his feet."

"You do."

"But, my Father, this is an unusual thing to see a raven with rings on its toes, hopping in such a way."

"My Child, who is this raven?"

"Is he Satan, the devil?"

"You are half right in this and therefore, you are half wrong."

"Rather, what do You mean?"

"I mean, as the raven shifts to one side, he is Satan, the devil; and as he shifts to the other side, he is the Kingdom of Man."

"The Kingdom of Man?"

"Yes."

"Father, what do You mean?"

"I mean that all, which is aligned with the devil, and focuses on the lusts of man and the things of the world, cannot be separated from the devil, himself."

"Yes, my Father, this I understand."

"Therefore, man will always fall, so long as he aligns himself with the world and with the chicanery of the devil."

"Yes, my Precious Father, I know this and I understand this, but surely there is more to this picture than meets the eye."

"My Child, you are coming to understand somewhat that My words are much deeper than what the eye can behold."

"Oh, my Father, I always feel so foolish when you talk to me. I always feel so small; for I know that I cannot understand even a single picture, a single word, or a single sentence, given to me by You, unless you give me understanding. This is why I always feel so foolish and have such a fear that I will not hear You correctly or will misinterpret what You say. I have a great fear of this, Father, and tremble and weep inside, lest I should offend You or our Precious Jesus in any way."

"This is known, My Child. What do you know about the Seven Thunders?"

"My Father, I know nothing of the Seven Thunders, only of the reference to the Seven Thunders in the Book of Revelation."

"Go and find the reference."

"Father, I have found it. It is in Chapter Ten of the Book of Revelations and it says, "And, I saw another mighty angel come down from Heaven, clothed with a cloud; and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire; 2. And he had in his hand a little book open; and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the Earth, 3. And, cried with a loud voice as when a lion roareth; and when he cried, Seven Thunders uttered their voices. 4. And, when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from Heaven saying unto me, seal up those words, which the Seven Thunders uttered and write them not."

"My Father, I have written, that which appears to be relevant. But, the word goes on to declare that there should be no more time, as spoken by the angel. But, in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God shall be finished, as he has declared to his servants, the prophets. Then, John took the little book from the angel and ate it and it was sweet in his mouth, but sour in his stomach. Father, I have read as you have directed, but I do not understand why you wanted me to read this."

"My Precious One, sit quietly; for a meaning is about to be given to you."

"Yes, My Father."

"My Child, we shall go back to the hopping raven; and I say to you: Go and take a piece of paper from beneath his left wing and read this paper."

"My Father, I have this paper. It is an envelope; and as I open the plain white envelope I see a piece of paper, which says, 'Seek ye first the kingdom of God and all shall be added unto you.' On the reverse side of this paper are the words, 'You are one of the Seven Thunders.' At this instant, the paper catches fire and I see a great explosion in the heavens. It is as if a great nuclear bomb has hit; for I see windows of buildings blown out and palm trees swaying as great tidal waves hit; and ravens, black ravens are coming at me and clawing at me, trying to peck me. But all around me there is a wall, which seems to be made of glass, yet it is not glass, but the pure power of God. All ravens have rings on their toes; and the whole horror scene reminds me of a very old movie, which is called 'The Birds.' I would be sorely afraid, My Father, save for your power. Oh, my Precious Father, I do not know what to make of all this; for I am only a child and I feel so insecure about writing what I have been given."

"My Child, were it not so, I would not have spoken it."

"Oh, my Father, what does this mean and why did you have me take this note from the back of the devil?"

"For, My Little One, he would have this hidden securely beneath his wings; but now is the time for the Seven Thunders to appear; and you are one of the Seven. See that the devil is quivering in his boots; for great power is given unto these seven to do great and mighty works in the Earth. Yes, My Little One, up to this time, you have been relatively hidden; but from henceforth you will not be hidden. Unto you this day are given many keys, and there is no way you can understand this now; but soon, very soon I shall go into this."

"Oh, my Father, this overwhelms me. How can I write this? For, I do not even understand what I write."

"Do as I say and write as I say, lest you should be found disobedient."

"Oh, my Father, I have such a fear, a terrible fear of upsetting you. Please forgive me for thinking such a thing."

"My Little One, you have seen the door open and you have seen on a wall many keys."

"Yes, my Father, I have seen this."

"All these keys, My Child, you will access and use. All. For, as I have said to you, 'No good thing from My Kingdom shall be withheld from you.'"

"My Father, I am deeply humbled. I feel so lowly, yet you have bestowed this unto me. Is this why I dreamt this morning of a great storm and darkness coming against our house and saw myself breaking giant trees in half and throwing them, roots and all into the fiery furnace of hell?"

"Yes, My Child, for Satan knows who you are and he knows what is being given you. But, to you is given the power and authority to break, to kill and destroy the enemy. For, this day the full power of the Rod is given unto you."

"Oh, my Father, I feel weak in the knees as if I shall faint."

"My Child, sit and drink of the Living Waters; for a great renewal and restoration is at hand for you."

"My Father, I am in such awe, such total awe. I ask you, shall I write what the Seven Thunders spoke? Or, shall I write part?"

"You shall write parts; for to each if given his own parts until all that is sealed is spoken."

"How long, Father? How long will this take?"

"It will take months and years; for as you know I have extended a season of favor to My people. During this season of favor the Seven Thunders will speak great and mighty things. They will transverse the globe. And, when this season of grace is past, there will be no more time. Mankind will either go the way of the Raven, or he will go the Way of the Kingdom of God. My Child, ponder what you have seen. You cannot comprehend it at this time; but in due season you will. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES*Book VII*Chapter Nine*"More Time"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God, the I AM that I AM, Creator of all. Blessed are you, My Child; for you have been steadfast in your faith; and you have a heart after salvation of souls. My Love for you and your fellow man and woman is kindled within your heart and this love shall bless many. Harken unto Me this day, My Child; for I know that you have many questions; but at this time we will continue with the Sons and Daughters of Thunder; for surely there is much, which needs to be explained."

"Oh, yes, My Father. I am eager to know more that the people might also have understanding."

"My Little One, do you see the eyes of the owl as He is perched on the tree?"

"Yes, My Father, I see the owl and I see its eyes; and as I walk by his eyes move. They follow me; but he never moves a feather."

"Yes, My Child, I want you to remember this; for I am as the wise old owl; and wherever you go, My eyes are upon you, though you cannot see Me move, not so much as a twitch. I know your every movement. I know your every thought. I know your every emotion. There is not one thing that escapes Me about you and nothing escapes Me about any, who cross your path, who come in contact with you, or who have any communications, whatsoever, with you. I know every person, who has called you a false prophet. I know every conversation anyone has ever had about you. I know every finger, which has been wagged at you. Conversely, I know every person, who has extended an act of kindness to you. I know everyone, who has helped with this ministry and likewise I know every person, who could have helped, who saw a need and had the means to help, but refused to do so. My Beloved, those, who have helped with these works, and who continue to help, will reap a mighty reward in Heaven. Those, who love and honor My chosen servants, are loved exceedingly by Me. They are blessed by Me and they are honored by Me. Woe to the scribes and the Pharisees. Woe to those, who see only in black and white and who deny higher truths. Woe to those, who bloat themselves up with pride and arrogance and go off on their own tangents. Woe to those, who love the world and follow after vanity, but will not help My chosen servants in a labor of love for souls! Woe to the hypocrites, who know to do right, but live a lie. Woe to the workers of iniquity, who love what is of this world, but know Me not. You have your just reward in the Burning Lake. Woe to the preachers, who feed the people honey, but will not speak the truth of My words, lest they offend. Woe, woe, woe to a generation of vipers. You have your just reward in the fiery pits. This said, My Child, let us proceed; for I have much to tell you. My Little One, what do you see before you?"

"I see the ravens; and they are lined up in a row. They most assuredly have the silver rings on their toes. They are standing shoulder to shoulder; and they are doing a jig. As they dance, I am once more aware of the clanking of the rings; and the sparks are shooting from their feet. My Father, I do not know what to make of this; for it seems that now and then, the heads of the ravens change to human heads."

"This is so, My Child."

"Father, what does this mean?"

"My Child, do you see what is before them?"

"Yes, my Father, it is a sun dial."

"And, according to the sun dial, what time do you make it out to be?"

"Father, I am afraid that I do not know how to interpret this sun dial time very well. Will you let me see the time as if it is a clock with a face?"

"Yes, now what do you see?"

"My Father, the clock says three minutes until 12:00. Is this 12:00 midnight, or is this 12:00 noon?"

"My Child, through there is light on the sun dial, My light, what do you see when you move past the ravens?"

"I see a forest and it is very dark, save a 1/4 moon."

"So, you see that it is not yet midnight."

"Yes, my Father, I see this and this most assuredly means that you have given us more time, In the Spring of this year, in March, when you said that you would give us more time, I knew you were truly extending us a time of mercy. Then, about two weeks ago when I was praying with another apostle, she said that she saw the hands of the clock suddenly turn back. To add another confirmation to this, the apostle Timothy Snodgrass came here to visit us from the Philippines and he told us that he felt that you would give us another generation as you did for King Hezekiah, and that this decision on your part was hanging in the balance at that time."

"This is so, My Child; and what you have all been given is correct. I have indeed extended My mercy upon an errant and prideful generation; but when this reprieve is up, there will be no more extended."

"Father, so many people believe that you do not change your mind. So many believe that what you say is always set in stone. And, when you say you will bring judgement and then extend your mercy, those of us, who spoke Your warnings, are often labeled as false prophets. The prophets warned and many people fasted and prayed and you heard their cries and were merciful. Above all, Father, you are full of love, mercy and tender kindness; but people cannot understand.

"My Precious Father, I will be the first to say that the stress of this close call with war this Spring , the illness of my Mother, plus the attempted murder of me by the covert government groups, all nearly finished me off. But, my Precious Father, in spite of all that I went through, when you decreed that you would give a reprieve from this war, I was so relieved, so grateful, Father, and so full of love for You. I was so happy for the people, My Precious Father, that they would have more time to come in out of the cold. Oh, My Beloved Father, I was and am so very grateful that your mercy prevailed once more. To know that we have been extended more time that people might repent and that souls might be saved brings indescribable joy to my soul. Father, Precious Father in Heaven, how I love You! How grateful I am and how blessed we all are! Father, I beg you, please do not let the people go back to sleep! Do not let them forget your love and grace! Do not let them forget Your precious love for all of us! Father, I implore You! Do not let this happen!"

"My Child, you are in a war; and this is a war for the souls of all. Each, in and of his or her own volition, will make a conscious choice to choose Me and My Son, to follow after righteousness; or they will go the way of the world and the devil. My Child, the raven and his clones know that the time has been extended.

They know and they also rejoice; for they know that they, too have more time to advance their evil agenda. But, I warn Mine that the sorting is going on, even now. My Child, the tall trees, which you broke and threw into the fiery furnace were servants of Satan, the devil. These tall trees have been taken down in the spirit and the physical bodies will soon follow. My Little One, you are a worker of the harvest and you are sent to harvest both the souls for hell and the souls for Heaven. This harvest is on-going and you will send many souls to salvation; but to each is given a choice. Will it be Heaven, or the fiery Pits of Hell?

I warn all not to put off until tomorrow what must be done today; for some will not see another day. Violence and oppression will escalate the world over. Do not be so smug as to think that you, any of you, can sit back and do nothing while the devil advances. There is a great work to do and those, who will not do their part, who will not lift a finger to help in this war, may very soon become a victim of it. So, I say to each of you, who reads these words. Will you help My chosen with these works that souls may be saved, or will you sit on your wealth and take it to your grave? Will you do your part to save souls; or will you go the way of the grave in your own selfishness? A revival is coming to Arkansas and to the USA. Those, who will help with this revival, will reap mightily; but if you see and know of this need and you will not help, you will be judged accordingly. Now, My Child, I know that you have questions about the Seven Thunders."

"Yes, my Father, I do, but I really do not even know enough about the Seven Thunders to ask sensible questions."

"My Child, the Seven Thunders are Seven musical tones. They are Seven prophets and apostles. They are seven messengers from the Kingdom of God. They are called the Seven Thunders; for their walks shall be walks of thunder. Their words shall be words of thunder. Their demeanor shall be that of thunder. Wherever they go, they shall shake the people up. They shall wake the people up; for their words shall be as a double-edged sword. They shall cut to the heart of a situation; for My power and anointing shall be in their words. They shall reveal that, which has been hidden for millennia and because they reveal that, which has been hidden, many shall mock and scorn them. Many shall criticize them. Many shall deride them for the secrets and mysteries, which they speak. But, every foul word, which is spoken against them, shall be like a whip, which goes back and beats the one, who spoke the foul thing against Mine anointed.

Fire shall come from the bodies of these seven. Over and over again, they shall stomp the head of the devil and his minions. They shall truly bruise the head of the devil. To these seven is given much authority and though many speak of the two witnesses, few, very few upon the face of the Earth, know of the Seven Thunders. Much wisdom and much understanding is coming forth through the mouths of the Seven Thunders; for their very words shall shake the heavenlies. Their very words shall rattle the world's infrastructure. Their very words shall smite the enemy and send him flying. To all seven is given the fullness of the Rod. All seven operate from the highest level in My Kingdom and all seven will be sent around the world to take My word, to take My miracles, to heal the sick, to raise the dead and to save souls. They walk upon the Earth and the devil trembles. When they stomp the Earth, the devil and his minions flee. When the Seven Thunders speak, lightening clouds and thunder will often follow them.

Great judgements will be spoken out of the mouths of the Seven Thunders. All have the keys of translation and none of them will die. Many know of the two witnesses and what they will do; but now it is time that My people know of the Seven Thunders."

"My Father, I want to know about all the keys and also the storm in the Spirit, which took place yesterday."

"My Little One, I know that you are getting tired from writing, but we shall continue on. All keys in this room, you will use. These are keys of My Kingdom, which are given to the Seven Thunders to use in the latter days. No good thing will be withheld from the Seven Thunders. These keys will open many doors, which you believe to be totally inaccessible; and they will also close many doors. My Child, in no way can you comprehend the magnanimity of this with your carnal mind, but only through the Spirit of God.

Wherever you go, these keys will go with you and when you need a key it is automatically given to you without your conscious awareness. You will see and understand more about these keys as time goes on. As for the storm, which hit the spirit world yesterday, yes indeed this was a mighty storm. The devil, Satan and his minions, have been put on notice; for soon, very soon, tall, very tall trees in his kingdom will meet the fiery furnace." (As I proof-read this chapter on 09-16-01, I can truthfully say that in no way did I know just how soon this latter sentence would come to pass; and I am afraid that we have truly seen nothing yet!)

"Father, what of the clones?"

"Those, which they have cloned, to look like those, who will be taken out, will begin to drop dead like houseflies. I am against the clones. I am against the genetic sciences, which they have devised to destroy My purity. I am against the evil alchemists, who play god. When they least expect it, I shall utterly destroy them. Go this day in peace, my Child; and know that My love for you is great. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God.

Beloved and Cherished Brothers and Sisters through our Precious Jesus, these last six chapters were given to me while I was on a ten day Daniel fast. The storm, which is referred to in this chapter, was also heard by another apostle. While I saw the storm and witnessed the devastation of the storm in the Spirit, this apostle heard the howling wind audibly, as if the wind were really blowing. This was a most powerful storm, which most assuredly manifested later in the physical realm in the disastrous chain of events, which we experienced in this country through the so-called terrorist atrocities. Great and awesome events are truly unfolding in the Kingdom of God!

FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES*Book VII*Chapter Ten*"Our Father's Warnings of Impending Judgement"

"Beloved and Cherished Child of Mine, hearken unto Me this day; for I have words of meaning to pronounce to My People. My Child, you know that I am a jealous God, that you are to have no gods before Me. But, I say to you, look around and you will see that the world over people have made idols of vanity. They have made idols of perversion. They have made idols of hate! They have made idols of lust. They have made idols of blame and shame. They have made idols of endless chatter. They have made idols of news and print. They have made idols of broken heartedness. They have made idols of work. They have made idols of learning. They have made idols of comedy and play. They have made idols of sin and rebellion. They have made idols of witchcraft and on and on. What I am saying is that people the world over have made many things their gods and these gods have separated My people from Me, the Creator. My Child, I tell you that I am a jealous God. I tell you that I am a God of love and a God of patience; but I am also a God of destruction. I am a God of vengeance. I am a God of control; for when a world gets out of control, it is I, who puts on the dampers. It is I, who quenches the uncontrollable and destructive fires of man. It is I, who will bring order out of chaos; and I tell you that I am weary with the chaos on this Earth. I am weary with the rebellion on this Earth. I am weary with the excuses made by so many of you, excuses which are nothing but dust in the wind, excuses, which you conjure up to keep going on in sin and rebellion. Yes, it is I, who gives you every breath; and it is I, who has given you a body. It is I, who has given you the intelligence to work and make a living; and it is I, who at any moment can take all that you have. It is I, who stands beside you when you have no one else. It is I, who hears your prayers and who makes the impossible possible. It is I, who knows your every move and who attends to your every need even when you have no clue. Yes, It is I, yes Jehovah, Most High God, who hears your every cry and who attends even those, who have not a single clue; and I tell you now that it is I, who judges even when you expect it least.

I tell you now and be advised that I speak the truth. I am ashamed of the greed on this planet. I am ashamed of the unbridled lust on this planet. I am ashamed that so many of you know My name; but you do not know Me; and you do not know My Son, Yeshua. Yes, I am ashamed of your fox-hole prayers! I am ashamed that when you need me or when you need my servants you have no qualms about asking, but when I ask you to do a certain thing, you do not carry through. When I ask you to repent and come clean before Me, you do not even hear. When I ask you to help with my works through My anointed servants you do not even hear. You read what you want to read and you understand what you want to understand, but when I ask you to do things you take it as an arbitrary decision.

I am telling you, My Cherished Ones, that I am deeply ashamed of the masses. I am deeply ashamed of the way you take and take and take, but you are willing to give so little. Woe to the selfish and woe to the hypocrites. Woe to those, who cry out for truth, but you do not want to live truth. Woe to those, who take freely of what is given you, but you dare not give back.

I have promised you a season longer without a great judgement upon this land. Yea, I have promised to hold back this war for a season; but I have not promised to hold back other kinds of judgement. I have not promised to hold back personal judgement upon the masses. I have not promised to hold back judgement of the finances of this land; for you have lived lavishly. You have lived selfishly! You have lived for self and when you have been asked to help my anointed servants, who labor with a love for you and for your salvation, you do not help. You look upon my pleas with blind eyes and I tell you that all, who have looked upon My pleas to help with blind eyes and have listened with deaf ears, yea when you come to me, I shall also look upon you with blind eyes and I shall listen to your pleas with deaf ears. Yea, this is truly a time of the sorting and my judgement is falling upon a proud and stiff-necked people. My judgement is falling upon a greedy people. My judgement is falling upon an errant and haughty people. Yea, my judgement is falling upon a rebellious people; so be forewarned!

I am about to hit the finances of the USA. I am about to hit the factories and I am about to hit the farms. I am going to cripple the economy of this land in a great way; and woe to the greedy. Woe to the proud and to the stiff-necked. Woe to the tale bearers and to the false accuses. For, this day the rod of judgement falls on the stock market. This day, the rod of judgement falls on the congress of the USA, a gathering of many whores. This day, my judgement falls upon the trucking industry of the USA; for I shall cause a traffic jam of trucks to push and pull at one another the length of this land. I shall cause trains to stop for weeks and I shall cause airplanes to fall unexpectedly from the sky. I shall cause many signs in the Heavens to fall all over the USA and on other parts of the world; for through these signs you will see and know that the wrath of God is stirred. You will know that My anger is kindled. You will know that what you see is not only a warning, but is a harbinger of much greater things to come. You will see the assassin strike to kill a man of great power. You will see the assassin strike not once but twice in quick succession.

Yea, you will know that mine anger is kindled against a proud, arrogant, and stiff-necked people, a people, who are caught up in their own prideful ways; and you will know that the God of Abraham and Isaac is still the God of All Creation, yea the Most High God, Jehovah, the One God. You will know that my judgement is upon this land; for you shall hear more and more of pestilence and plagues.

Yes, I am warning the greedy to get off their so-called "stashes of money" and help My people in My works; or I shall move in and take every dime. I shall move in and take your homes and your vehicles. I shall move in and I shall wreck your comfortable lifestyles and I shall leave you with little or nothing in your pockets. Yes, it is true that those, who have the least often give the most, but I tell you this day that they have their rewards in Heaven. Now is the time that you will come forth and help mine anointed with these works and you will help other of mine anointed with the works, which I have given them to do, or I shall cause a great and mighty fire to hit your finances; and this is not a fire, which will bless you. This is a fire, which will curse you; for this is the holy fire, which is from my throne.

I tell you this day, My Child, take the rod of power, which I have given you and hit the stock market of the USA seven times"

"My Father, I am taking this rod of power and I am doing as you say!"

"Now, I say to you, My Child, take this rod of power and hit this website seven times!"

"My Father, I have taken this rod of power and I have hit <http://www.prophecies.org> seven times."

"Very well, My Child, take this rod of power of hit the congress of the USA seven times!"

"My Father, I have taken this rod of power and I have hit the congress of the USA seven times!"

"Very well, My Child, you have done as I have asked and as of this day you will see changes in all. As of this day, you will see my handiwork go forth and bear fruit, not once but seven times over and above what you expect.

"Father, what do you mean?"

"This day, the stock market will begin to show the effects of my judgement! This day, those who see a need through this website, and are able to help and do not, will reap my judgement upon them not once but seven times greater than what they believe. Conversely, those, who see a need and help with a need will be blessed seven times more than they could ever believe. But, be warned! Those, who refuse to see and refuse to hear, will also find that I will refuse to see them and hear their cries before Me. What people do not understand and what they had best come to understand is that this is a new day for My Anointed. This is a new day wherein I have given you much power and authority in My Kingdom. What I have spoken to you in Book Seven about your being one of the Seven Thunders is a mighty word from Me and it is truth. What I give you bears much power and you have received the mantle of the Seven Thunders. Woe to those, who turn a deaf ear once they have received truths from this site; for they will be judged mightily. But, conversely when one receives truths from this site and acts accordingly such a one is in line to receive the Seven Thunders blessings. So, each will decide if he or she wants the blessings or the cursings.

"I tell you, My Child, that eyes have not seen and ears have not heard what I am about to do through many of Mine anointed. Great and powerful works are coming forth through My Chosen Ones! Woe to the unbelievers and to those, who will not repent when you see and know that truth; for you will be doubly judged. You will either choose to do what you know to be right and you will turn from your rebellion or you shall perish in rebellion. I say to each of you, you have been given a reprieve from a devastating war; and many of you have already gone back to sleep; but be warned. For, when you expect it least, judgement will come knocking at your door. Are you ready for My judgement? Are you ready to bear Mine anger? Are you ready to reap what you have sown; for none of you knows how many hours, days or weeks that you have left. None of you knows how long you have! None of you knows at what hour the death knell will toll for you! None of you knows! Only I know and I have extended My hand of mercy to a proud and stiff-necked generation, but I am not holding my judgement totally. So, I say you, 'Get ready; for you know not when I shall require your life. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God!"

"God's Judgement is Falling"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah Most High God. Proceed to write, even as I say, that the people might receive from Me. Behold the number eleven, which is given at the top of this prophecy, yea the number, which is cherished in the occult practices of the Luciferians. Yes, My Child, place this prophecy ahead of the last prophecy on "A Message for You" that the people may read, that those with the eyes to see may see, that those with the ears to hear may hear! For, these two prophecies are related!

"Yea, in My words below, wherein I told you to take the rod to the stock market and to the congress of the USA, I wanted you to see and know in advance that I am judging the finances of this land! I am judging the leadership of this land! The devil and his hoards know that I put the power in the rod, which is in your hand; and they know that I have orchestrated this judgement on this soil, which has been carried out by the very Luciferians, who carried out the Oklahoma bombing. These are the very same ones, who carried out the bombings of the embassies in Africa. Yea, these are the very same ones, namely the Rockefeller whores and their allies, who no longer count the USA as worthy to survive; for they are hell-bent towards the New World Order. But, remember, My Child, that I allow the New World Order to rise for a season, all to test and try, to humble My Faithful, and to make them ready for their heavenly rewards. Yea, I allow the old system to crumble and fall; for I am bringing into the Earth a new system through My Son. Yea, I am tearing down the old, the rotten and the putrid; for I am bringing in My glory. Yea, I warn all to take note, to observe what has happened today! I warn all, who trust in the riches and the fat of this land to behold; for what you see today is meant for the whole of this land! Yea, I warn each of you to get your spiritual houses in order and to get ready for the Coming of My Son; for He will come when you expect it least. Truly, here and there, one or two will be taken and the rest will be left standing. Yea, a grave warning is going out across this land to all, who trust in their riches, or in their self-sufficiency to sustain them! I tell you now that today many souls went to hell! Today, they cry out in anguish from the bowels of hell for water! They cry out for forgiveness, but it is too late! They cry out for another chance; but it is too late. They have missed the Marriage Supper of the Lamb! They have missed their heavenly inheritance because they trusted in the arm of the flesh. Yea, this day the bowels of hell opened up and took many; but few, very few made their way into Heaven. I tell you now that you do not know how long you have! Today could be your last day! Did those, who died today, think that it would be their last? Nay! They did not! For, even unto the end many partied! Many loved the world and what was in it and at their death, the Lord of this dark world, the devil, himself, was ready to claim his prey.

"Are you devil bait? Are you? If you will not live My commands, you are! Just as surely as the sun rises, you will end up in hell if you will not obey my commands! Will you stay in hell forever? Some will! Will you ever get out of hell? Only I know this answer! But, I can tell you this. The blood of the Lamb is not lost on those in hell! The blood of the Lamb will not forsake those in hell! Even My Son visited them in Hell; and as you see in Zechariah 9:11, some of them are loosed. (This is the reference, which our Father speaks of. Zech. 9:11 As for thee also, by the blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.) But, I tell you now that only I know which ones and only I know how long you must anguish in suffering and in agony in a desolate place, wherein there is no water! I tell you that you do not want to go to hell!

"Those of you, who live for this world are devil bait. Are you ready for the consequences of being devil bait? Nay, I say, 'You are not!' You are not ready; for how can you be ready for a torture, which is so great and so awful that it defies human description. Nay, you are not ready for hell and neither are the masses ready for Heaven!

"This calamity is a wake-up call. It is a wake-up call for those, who slumber. It is a wake-up call for the greedy. It is a wake-up call for the leadership of this country. It is a wake-up call for the fat and greedy whores in congress! Yea, it is a wake-up call for those, who will not lift a finger to help My struggling prophets! It is a wake-up call for those, who take and take and take; but will not give! Yea, it is a wake-up call for all, even and especially the rich!

"I say to you, My Child, take the rod and hit the right arm of the Rockefeller family seven times!"

"My Father, I take the rod and I hit the right arm of the Rockefeller Family high up in the shoulder seven times; and the arm breaks off and falls into myriad pieces. And, just as suddenly I see the remnant pieces of this arm become as dust in the wind and they blow away."

"Now, My Child, I say to you, take the rod and hit the left leg of the Rockefeller empire at the knee; and hit it there seven times!"

"My Father, I take the rod and I hit the Rockefeller empire in the left leg at the knee one, two, three, four, five, six seven times. And, as always, when the rod hits, great white fire explosions take place in the Spirit. My Father, I see that the leg buckles at the knee immediately. Then, suddenly the whole leg begins to twist and as it twists, all the clothing disappears readily from the leg revealing not bone, but steel instead of bone. And, this steel twists as a piece of twisted liquorice candy until the leg disconnects quickly from the hip joint, which is also made of steel; and this piece of twisted steel bursts into smoke and flames and is gone."

"Now, My Child, take this rod and hit the Rockefeller head seven times."

"My Father, I take this rod and I hit the Rockefeller head seven times and the head begins to splinter off and break as if is made of soft, yet brittle wood; and in place of the head, there remain brittle wooden stubble, which are hollowed out in the center as if leaving a nest. And, at the instant that I say, 'nest,' I see the black raven with the silver rings on its toes; and it is standing on first one foot and then the other. (For more about this black raven see the latest prophecies of Book Seven.) The raven looks at me with his black eyes and says, 'I am a wise, old bird, yea a trick, a whore am I; but My plumes on My tail are fresh. They are all here! Neither a dot nor a tittle do I miss! A whore, a goat, a whore am I! Oh, yes a fanciful whore!"

The bird begins to hop, first on one foot and then the other, with its tail feathers stretched out like a peacock. Then, as it were, a whirlwind hits the raven in the rear end and this wind sucks the feathers out of the raven's rear end, leaving only three tail feathers. On the feathers are the words: 1. Standard Oil is still here! 2. Corrupt banking and fraud is still here! 3. Stinking, rotten, dope trade, body parts, terrorism and theft, these are all here!

Then, the bird turns to see that it is bald in the rear and the bird gasps and says, "A whore am I, a coward, a whore! How can I stand in a land where My arm is gone? My legs are gone! My head is exposed! "

Then, I see the Rockefeller body turn and on the rear end of this body, I see the words, "As of this day, the Rockefellers are burned and they are burned badly!"

"And, so it is, My Child, go in peace this day, knowing that those, who are mighty in this world, shall one day be as dust in the wind. I am your Father in Heaven"

FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES*Book VII*Chapter Eleven*"Interpretation from Book One about the Towers"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea, Jehovah, Most High God. Blessed are you, My Child, for you are faithful to My purposes. Yea, they come now to stone you from many directions. Even some among My Chosen Ones, My Elect, stone you. They speak lies about you behind your back and gather against you as a pack of wolves; for they see you standing alone before Me and proclaiming My word. They believe that there is strength in numbers, so they pile up on one another, like football players in a football game, who are out to tackle a quarterback. The wolves do not win, so they send in the wolverines, their 'yea-sayers', to attack you and to bring you down. But, the wolverines fall and are utterly defeated. For, those, who stand around a circle, looking for a bombshell to drop, are practices of witchcraft. They are full of rebellion, believing that they are in a circle, which cannot be broken; but I tell you that they are broken and they know it not. For, their wooden bombshell is only a shell; and it is wooden. It has no power and no substance and with a slight of the hand I will utterly consume it with fire. Those, who come to make war with My Anointed need to know that they do not make war with you, but Me. My rod shall utterly destroy My enemies. Those, who are enemies of My Beloved Servants are My enemies.

"Yea, I am bringing Mine through fires of cleansing. Those, who will not knuckle under and do what they know to be right will be consumed with these burning fires. I will cause their lives to be hell on Earth if they will not repent. It is an abomination to Me to see My Chosen Servants backbite and gossip and mistreat those, who have only shown them kindness. I say, 'Beware to the users and abusers of My People; for I shall make your walk slippery like one's walk over ice. I shall cause you to fall over and over until you will not get up again, save you repent and come clean before Me. Yea, be advised that the wolves will come back empty handed. The wolverines will come back empty handed; and the circle of witchcraft, along with the wooden bombshell, will be devoured through My unquenchable fires.' Get ready, I say, for your redemption draws nigh! You have been warned in advance. Repent, or perish! For, I am cleaning house!

"Now, My Child, as one of My Loved Ones has called you repeatedly regarding certain parts of Book I, I shall further explain this vision. Write as written on page Four of Book One, that I may explain further.

"Yes, my Father, I am copying this vision from Book One below:

Vision from Book One

The following vision takes place as I am standing in the Vatican. Something falls from above and hits the floor in front of me. What I see reminds me of a cap, which we used to see on carbonated drink bottles, the kind of cap, which would have a cork at the top of the cap, which is placed therein as a sealant. I picked up the cap and could see that the cork was already lifted on one corner, so I lifted the cork from the cap. The following is what I saw after I lifted the cork from this cap.

Something came pouring out from beneath the cork. There were many pictures connected one to another by plastic holders. These plastic holders reminded me of the ones used to hold pictures in a wallet, and were about the same size. The long line unfolded like an accordion, and fell from my chest area all the way to the floor. It kept unrolling all the way down the hall and into The Square outside where it finally stopped by a brick wall.

Someone climbed out of the last plastic picture holder. He wore cowboy boots and saddle pants with jeans. I followed his feet as he climbed a ladder by the wall. He kept climbing up the ladder until he stood on the wall. "Who is this man," I said.

Then, I saw him pull off his cowboy hat. He stood there on The Great Wall of China waving his hat back and forth and smiling. It was Bill Clinton.

Someone from the Secret Service ran up to Mr. Clinton, and said, "Mr. Clinton, you must come down from there. We've had a bad explosion, Sir. America is burning. The United States has been bombed, Sir."

"By whom?" the president asked.

"We do not know, Sir. Our towers aren't functioning. We can't track it. We can only tell that we're surrounded, Sir."

"My Father, I ask for an interpretation as You say that you will reveal more."

"This is so, My Child. Let us go back to the picture holder. As you held these empty picture holders before your chest, they tumbled out in front of you, like an accordion. Is this so?"

"Yes, Father."

"And, the last one, the last picture holder, is the one, which opened up to show what is above. What do you make of this?"

"My Father, I do not know."

"My Child, what is a picture?"

"It is a way of capturing an image, which can be held over time."

"This is so, My Child, time as you know it."

"So, you have therein an image, which is held over time. Yet, an image, which is held over time without any reference to a given time is illusion. Is this not so?"

"My Father, You know that I do not have all understanding, but only a small part. As I lack understanding, I ask that You give me this, that the reader may also understand what you are saying."

"My Child, I am saying that within the Earth, time is based on a linear system. Is this not so?"

"Yes, my Father."

"And, when a picture cannot be connected to a specific event, does it not generally fall into illusion?"

"Yes, my Father, this is generally so as I understand it.

"So, with this vision of Bill Clinton upon the wall of China, have you been able to connect it to a certain event?"

"Not specifically, my Father; and even now I cannot be sure."

"Nay, you cannot be sure unless I give you understanding; but have I not said to all that if you lack understanding, come to Me and I will give you understanding?"

"Yes, my Father, you have said it."

"Therefore, I say to you, why did you see the series of plastic picture holders unfold before you?"

"Father, surely these represented a series of events, which would unfold at some point in the future; but as there was no point of reference they amounted to illusion to many."

"This is so, but I will show you that this vision is not illusion; and I will show you that a babe in Christ called to question you about this vision; for My Spirit stirred him to do so. Did he not ask you on more than one occasion if this vision and the one subsequent to it, plus another following vision had to do with the bombing of the Trade Towers and the Pentagon?"

"Yes, my Father, he asked this."

"And, what did you tell him?"

I told him that I could not answer this; for the visions, which you give Me, are often complex and that I do not understand them, save you give an understanding. But, I told him that I would present all to you."

"And, so you have. But, I say to you, 'What is the significance of the last picture holder and the fact that they are all plastic?'"

"My Father, I can only speculate; for I do not know for sure."

"My Child, have you ever seen a spotted camel?"

"No, my Father."

"Have you ever seen a camel with stripes?"

"No, my Father, I have not seen this."

"Have you ever seen a black leopard?"

"No, my Father, I have not."

"Have you ever seen a bird fall from the sky and die in flight?"

"No, my Father, not that I can remember."

"But, you have seen desert sands and you have felt the heat of the same?"

"Yes, my Father, I have seen and experienced this."

"Well, then, My Child, I ask you this, "Does My River of Life run dry?"

"No, my Father, but I do not understand what these things have to do with this plastic picture holder and Bill Clinton."

"My Child, is there a common thread among these questions, which I have asked you?"

"Yes, My Father, and I believe this common thread to be truth."

"This is so, My Child, and this being so, I ask you, "Does the Spirit of God bear falsehood, or truth?"

"Truth, my Father, always truth."

"But, does it not speak in symbols, which many do not understand? Therefore, many regard visions as lies or illusions, unless backed by a parallel event in time."

"Yes, my Father, I understand this to be so."

"My Child, I have taken time to go into all this that the babes may be weaned from the breast. It is time that they begin to think for themselves and to question what they do not understand, even as the babe, who called you, that they may be given understanding. Thus said, My Child, behold the fountain of Living Waters. Go there, cup your hands and drink."

"As you say I do, Father."

"Then, take the last picture holder in your hands and write as seen and given."

"My Father, as I hold the last picture holder, it begins to crackle and to melt in my hands and as it melts, I see Bill Clinton at a table with Saddam Hussein. My Father, they both wear a ring, which has a Goat head of Menendez on it. These rings suddenly become ablaze with a roaring fire and in the midst of this fire, I see the vision of Bill Clinton, dressed as a cowboy, climbing this wall. On the wall, I see the words, 'Heroin and dope trade.' As Bill Clinton waves his cowboy hat, large numbers of dollar bills and large stacks of checks, measuring into the millions, all come streaming out and form a long trail in the air. This trail goes all the way to the leader of China and when he opens his mouth to smile, I see a front tooth with a goat head star on it. This is his left front tooth. Then, I see some strong hands with a set of pliers and these pliers rip out the right front tooth and what is within the tooth and left is the end of a screw. I do not see the head of this screw; for the head is embedded in the jaw of the Chinese leader. Suddenly, this screw turns into a peg leg soldier, who is wounded and blind in one eye. This soldier walks with crutches; and on its rear end I see the word, "Pakistan." The word "Pakistan" is actually written on a door and when this door opens up and I see within it US soldiers with helmets, combat gear, face grease and guns, and they are crawling on their bellies. Overhead, I see a helicopter and I see someone standing in the door of the helicopter. It is a Chinese soldier with a megaphone and the soldier is saying, "All aboard." The US soldiers, who are crawling on their bellies rise up, and form a line. The helicopter lands and the soldiers prepare to enter onto the aircraft. As each one enters the helicopter, he salutes the Chinese general. The general utters something, which I do not understand, but as the Spirit of God translates it, I know that it means, "Attention, this is a new order."

"This is a very large helicopter, which is flown by the Chinese and the US soldiers are now subservient to those in charge."

"Oh, my Father, I must go back; for I am so concerned for these things, which I see. Let us go back to the last picture holder. My Father, please explain."

"Did it not melt in your hands?"

"Yes, Father, but why?"

"My Child, the last picture of Bill Clinton, which represented freedom in America, was only an illusion. In the Clinton years, many espoused all manner of freedoms, yet all become ten times more a prisoner. During the Clinton years, he espoused great financial growth; but you know that this, too, was only a lie, for America is bankrupt and each of you is taxed more than ever. Bill Clinton took away many of your freedoms in the name of preservation of freedom; but how can one lose freedoms and preserve them at the same time? Yes, My Child, Bill Clinton was the last great picture holder. Oh, he rode high and he still rides high. He does not travel the world for the fun of it. He travels it; for he and George Bush are partners in power and crime. Many believe that Clinton is gone, just another retired president; but alas how far could you all be from the truth. You will see, My Child, that he has gone nowhere, but is very much involved in the shenanigans of Lucifer and the New World Order. You will soon see that he is very much alive and well and at the forefront of Lucifer's works."

"So, my Father, we know well that Saddam Hussein is a New World Order whipping boy. We know that he is just someone they use when needed."

"Oh, my Child, Hussein is a class servant of Lucifer. When I say, 'class,' I mean that he ranks near the top of the class among Lucifer's servants. He is key to much, which goes on in the Mideast and he is a silent key, very silent, to the dope trafficking in that part of the world. On, yes, he and Bill Clinton, the Bushes, the Rockefellers and even the Rothschilds and the Queen of England and more, are all pawns of the devil in this work of evil. For, remember, My Child, that Lucifer desires to enslave every person on Earth; and what better way to enslave all, save through the mental straight jacket of drugs? Not only are many enslaved in this way and tortured on and on by demons; but through addiction, many are robbed of the money they need to survive and support their families. Then, all in the family suffer because of the chains and shackles of dope. Therefore, at this time, there is a great push to increase the dope trade and this is why Bill Clinton is standing on the wall of China waving. My Child, he is dressed as a cowboy; for he is herding in the dope trade. He is herding in the body parts trade. What a blasphemy thrown into My face! And, what a stench upon the land! But, alas the body parts business flourishes through these very faces, which I have just shown you."

"So, Saddam Hussein, Bill Clinton and the Chinese connection all pull together; and this is why Bill Clinton is grinning and waving. For, his hat is full of evil money and the trail leads all the way to the President of China."

"This is so."

"But, Father, why is he told to come down off the wall?"

"He is told to come down; for he is oblivious to what is going on back home."

"My Father, if he works with Bush, how is he oblivious?"

"He is not told all."

"Why?"

"For, often the right hand in government does not know what the left hand does. Clinton is an insider in this evil, but does not know all."

"But, my Father, You have shown that he is a Rockefeller and you have implicated this family in great evil."

"This is so; but it is also known that Bill Clinton is a liability. It is known that Bill Clinton can be manipulated and he is both an outsider and an insider."

"So, he is called off the wall and told that there has been a bad explosion and America is burning."

"Yes, My Child, this is the devastation of the Trade Towers and the Pentagon. These towers are not functioning and neither can the aviation towers provide accurate information."

"The Secret Service calls him Mr. Clinton and not President Clinton."

"This is so and also a clue that he is no longer President when this happens."

"And, the Secret Service says, "America has been bombed."

"This is so and you are learning that it was not the planes, which took out the towers, but explosives, yes even bombs."

"Oh, my Father, this is most interesting. I wish to go back to the vision, which proceeded Bill Clinton, Saddam Hussein and the goat head rings. My Father, much is self-explanatory, but what hand removed the covering from the right front tooth of the Chinese leader?"

"My hand."

"And, what does the screw mean?"

"That the Chinese screw will be applied to the American military."

"And, Father, what is this screw?"

"It is a twisted rod of steel, which will be put on the backs of the American military and it is coming from the Chinese head. This twisted rod of steel will cripple the American military. They will be sent out to crawl on their bellies like snakes in the dark and they will answer knowingly or unknowingly to the Chinese military. Eventually, they will be broken and will not only salute the Chinese generals, but will obey them. No good thing will come of this present war; for it is a war, which is based on total enslavement of the world' people. It is a war against terrorism, which is sponsored by world terrorists. In due season, all within your military will openly understand that this is truly a New Order and that China has been chosen by Lucifer to enforce the New Order. Let all be advised for you will not win this war. As a nation, you will fall through this long and protracted war, which brings terrorism upon this land over and over again. My Child, we shall stop for today and letter resume to explain more from Book I and how it relates to the burning towers."

"Father, I have just one more question before You go. What is the Pakistani door in the rear of the American military? What does this mean?"

"My Child, this door is in the rear of your crippled military and for this reason is not seen."

"What do you mean, 'rear?'"

"I mean that this Pakistani door is hidden in the Chinese tooth."

"Hidden in the tooth?"

"Yes, My Child, the twisted screw of steel will put a bite on the American military and help to make it subservient to China through the hidden Pakistani door."

"What do You mean, Father?"

"I mean, My Child, that Pakistan is allied with China and the purpose is to bring down your military. Yet, this is all known to the pigs in your very government, who know and work toward their common goal that America must fall. And, fall it will; for the masses have deserted the Very One, who has made this country great. Therefore, I am giving Lucifer power over you here a little and there a little; and if you will not repent in a great way, you shall surely fall to world communism."

"My Father, was Pakistan involved in the bombings?"

"More than you will ever know."

"What about China?"

"Have you not seen Pakistan in the Chinese head?"

"Yes, Father."

"Then, know, My Child, that this is complicated picture. All is orchestrated within your own government and the end goal is the enslavement of all. Go this day in peace. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES*Book VII*Chapter Twelve*"God's Judgement will soon fall on the Mormon Church"

"My Precious Child, be at peace this day and know that mighty spiritual blessings are at hand for you and Dennis and for your household; for I shall soon part the heavens. And, I shall show you great and mighty things.

"My Little One, do not be dismayed because of two defensive letters, which you have received from the Mormons. My Child, do you not know how freemasonry works? Do you not know that those at the bottom levels innocently believe that they do right? Do you not know how these cults work, that deception is a slow process? Do you not know that the greatest numbers must be utterly deceived and tricked into following after Lucifer, that they would never openly agree to his shenanigans?

"Lucifer knows these things. He knows that he must operate behind the scenes. He knows that he must operate in the shadows and above all, he knows that he must control the top. Those at the lower levels of any freemason organization must all take oaths of allegiance. These oaths may vary, but they all serve the same purpose, to bind one to the leadership of the organization. Those, who receive temple recommends must show that they are loyal to the church. They must show that they are worthy to be counted 'in' and that they are not trouble makers. They must be made to see what a privilege and honor it is to receive a temple recommend and they must be made to believe that such a trip to the temple is a trip to the 'Holy of Holies.' In all things, those, who go to these temples, must show their obedience. Like wide-eyed children, they treasure these trips. They treasure these oaths, which they carry out in secret. They treasure this obedience to an organization, which at its highest levels, openly worships Lucifer. Willingly and in ignorance, they pledge themselves and their families forever to Lucifer and his oaths. And, as soon as they do so, the thick tentacles of blindness and deceit of Lucifer reach out to snare another person, another couple, another family. Yes, indeed these become 'marked' by Lucifer. They then come under his covering. Just as those, who pledge allegiance to My Son are grafted into the Olive Tree, so are those in Mormonism, who pledge themselves and their families, grafted into Lucifer's eternal tree. Without their open knowledge or consent, they have made an eternal covenant with Lucifer, the Devil.

"My Child, what I have shown you about sacrifices of children to Lucifer in the bowels of some of these temples is absolutely correct. What I have shown you about rape and sodomy of little ones and others within these satanic circles is absolutely correct. What those at the lower levels of freemason organizations do not know is that Lucifer always requires human sacrifice. He always requires desecration and defilement of the human body; for this very body is the temple of the Spirit of God.

"What you need to know, My Child, and what people need to understand is that 'eternal marriage' is a lie. Neither are children sealed to their parents through time as many believe; but satanic agreements and curses can extend down through generations. When these innocent people go into these temples and make such covenants, they are putting themselves and their children under bondage for generations. In no way, do I honor such covenants; for they are purely Luciferian.

"Lucifer demands obedience and sacrifice, human sacrifice, and defilement of the human body. Those at the top of the Mormon Church are prisoners in the worse kind of way. You have been told of forced drugging at very high levels of this church and I tell you, My Child, that what you have been told is so. You have received words, which have backed up the previous visions of many months past, about human sacrifice and orgies in the bowels of some of these temples. Yes, My Child, the word is out and it is true. Let those, who will see, see. And, let those, who will hear, hear. For, My Son will not take a single one as His Bride, who is married to the devil.

"Yes, My Child, all, who have taken these lying covenants in these temples, are unknowingly, or knowingly (though these are few) married to Lucifer. They bear the same burden as all freemasons anywhere in the world. They have entered into Satanic agreements with the devil. They have made oaths and covenants with him, which are binding, yea upon their souls and upon the souls of their children.

"But, Father, how can such a covenant be bound upon an innocent child?"

"I say to you, My Child, that such a covenant is not binding until the child reaches the age of accountability."

"Which is?"

"Twelve years of age."

"But, my Father, how can a child discern right from wrong at this age?"

"Many do not; for they go along. They accept what their parents have given them to accept; but from this age on, each of you bears a grave responsibility for your choices."

"Father, there is so much, which we do not understand."

"My Little One, ignorance is not a blessing. It is a curse. I would not have Mine to follow around as blind sheep; for the wolves of the devil are looking to harvest the blind sheep. I tell you now that the Mormon Church is full of blind sheep. They willingly do as they are told without questioning; for blindness is accepted and encouraged as a way of life. They are kept in place and threatened about going against the 'Only True Church.' But, I say to them all, 'You had better open your eyes to your plight and for your own salvation you had better seek refuge under My hand of safety; for therein is your truth. Yea, truth shall set you free if you will truly seek truth and be willing to give up a lying network of false security and fraud, which has been perpetrated against you. But, if you will not seek to be free with all your heart, you will remain a captive of Luciferian false doctrine and slavery."

"Yes, indeed, many, many within the Mormon Church would weep and howl if they could see the truth of what goes on in the bowels of some of these temples. Many would be so sick that they would pine away in great sorrow if they could truly see and understand. But, alas, they cannot see how they reptiles have taken over the leadership of this church. They cannot see why it is frowned on for members to prophecy and that they are told the big lie that there is only one prophet in the world and only 12 apostles. Do they not realize that even and especially Lucifer knew that in the Latter Days, that prophets would be called and apostles would be called; and knowing this, he set up his church masterpiece upon this very order. But, alas, now many have been thrown out of the Mormon Church because they began to receive visions and prophecies from Me and My Son? My Child, you personally know of one, who was excommunicated for such; but this is only a small part of the story. Yes, indeed prophetic gifts within the Mormon Church must utterly be squashed by Lucifer; for he demands to be in control of all prophecy.

"Therefore, I say to all Mormons, 'You are first My Children; but alas you, who have entered into temple covenants have given yourselves over to Lucifer and his doctrines. I warn you to wake up and take note of what you have done; for none of you will be Bride of My Son. Yea, you have knowingly married yourselves to Lucifer, the devil, and you are his bride, whether you accept it, or not."

"Oh, Father, I am so sad; for I am not ignorant of this church, since I was a member of it for seven years in my youth. I have known some of the kindest and most gentle and loving people in this church and they are full of love; but I must also say that when I knew them they possessed a blind obedience to this church and to what they think it stands for. They are clean-living and decent people and this is what pains me so. Father, I am asking You for a miracle that these people are saved."

" My Child, you will not want to hear this and you will not want to see the end-results; but this day I command you to take My rod of power, which is in your hand and to strike the Salt Lake Temple seven times."

"Father, you know that I fear for those people, places and situations, which receive the power of Your rod; for this is not my rod of power, but yours. And, it is not in my hands, but Yours. Therefore, I fear, Father. Regretfully, Father, I hit the Temple in Salt Lake City seven times, knowing that Your judgement is going to fall on this church. With this rod in my hand I reach out and hit this temple one, two, three, four, five, six, seven times. And, I witness in the Spirit great explosions of light and with the seventh blow, I See Your power consume the temple far into the ground. I hear the wails of children and see their tears. I see prison cells burst open and I see a rolling fire consume an underground area, that looks like the bowels of hell. Father, I do not know what is going to take place, but You know. I worry for those, who must suffer; but I know that Your will shall roll forth as a great and mighty, thunderous fire."

"My Child, this day My judgement falls on the Mormon Church; for I would not have millions of souls go into captivity unknowingly as the Bride of Lucifer. Though you are only one small voice this day I add My power to your voice. I add My hand of judgement to this rod that those, who would be free, might be free.

"Go this day in peace, knowing that a shake-up is at hand for the Mormon Church; and I am the author of it. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God.

FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES*Book VII*Chapter Thirteen*"Our Father Opens the Heavens!"

"My Precious Child, be at peace this day, knowing that you are within My will. Yea, I awoke you in the early hours of the morning that you would come out and pen My words. Harken unto Me this day, My Child; for I have a new word for you and it is to go on "A Message for You" as a message, but also as the next chapter of Book Seven. My Child, I have recently told you that I shall part the heavens and I shall show you great and mighty things. Is this not so?"

"Yes, my Father, and I have been eager to see what You will reveal."

"My Child, see My sword go before you. See its brilliant and fiery blade. And, see it move under My hand to cut and divide asunder the heavenlies."

"Yes, my Father, and as it moves forth beneath the power of Your hand, I see great fire and explosions in the heavenlies and awesome steam pours forth. Clouds roll forth, mighty storm clouds, and they are churning with a great wind. I hear piercing thunder and I see great lightening, as violent storms move in. Rain falls in sheets and hail the size of baseballs pours forth from the angry clouds. Below the clouds, on the face of the Earth, I see mountains crack and earthquakes rumble and rattle the earth, breaking and splitting the ground. Fiery lava flows are seen below as they ooze from the ruptured mountains. Then, suddenly I witness a great stillness come upon the land. The clouds develop a calmness and the wind is only a whisper as I behold before me a great rip in the heavenlies. And, even as I behold this rip in the heavenlies, Father, I hear your voice say, "A rip in the fabric of time." But, I do not understand what you mean when you say, "A rip in the fabric of time."

"Come up hither, My Child."

Suddenly, I am drawn through this rip; and even as I sit and write, I know also that I am drawn upwards and through this rip in the heavenlies, flying within this rip in time. Great energy and power bathe me and a coolness settles on my face. I am traveling in spirit, yet at the same time I seem to be a part of rushing waters. The sensation changes back and forth from that of a cool breeze to that of rushing waters and I stand now atop a very tall mountain, sensing that I am on Mount Ararat. Below, I sense activity but I am prevented from knowing what this activity is.

"My Child, turn due East."

"My Father, direct my feet; for I do not know what due East is from where I stand."

"Very well."

And, in that instant, my feet are turned and my body is turned and before me is a substance, which looks like a fibrous web. I know that I am to part the web with my hands and it is as a cloud, but also like a web; and as I push my hands through it, I am drawn through this web. On walking through this web, I find that I am standing at the edge of a busy street in India. All around me, Indians are milling around, going about their daily activities. The streets are full of dark-skinned people and many of them just stare at me. I smell a foul scent and I look to see a dead corpse on the street near me. As I look closer, I can see that houseflies are all over his body and flying around in the street. I glance around to see people in a nearby shop and a few are at a counter, drinking something from cups. "My Father, there seems to be so much confusion here and so much sadness. Here, near my feet is this poor soul, who is most certainly dead, and people are going their way, seemingly oblivious to his plight. Why am I here; for I feel so sad."

"Do you not know?"

"No, My Father, I do not know and I feel so distraught by what I see. The people, in general, appear to be so poor and here at my feet is this dead man. What shall I do?"

"Reach down and touch his left wrist and tell him to awaken; for he only sleeps."

"Father, I know that you say he only sleeps, but surely he is dead; for as I reach down to touch his wrist, I see many flies coming out of his nose and his mouth and the smell is so putrid. My Father, I feel so sad; for he is dead like a dog on a road and it seems that no one even notices. "Reaching down, I touch the man on the wrist and I feel that he is ice cold; and words come out of my mouth, which I do not understand. However, I know that I am saying to him,

"Awaken in the name of Jesus Christ; for the Most High God Jehovah has commanded it." Then, as a zombie, the man begins to stir. He moves his eyes and blinks them a few times; and then he staggers to his feet, spitting out flies and muttering unintelligible words. He just looks at me as if he is frightened and I do not know what to say to him. His shirt is unbuttoned and his ribs are protruding. His trousers are very dirty and ripped and torn here and there and he appears disoriented. "Be healed in the name of Jesus," I say to him; and he looks at me, shaking his head in the affirmative as if he understands. As I behold the man before me, I look around to see a small crowd of people, who have gathered and as this man begins to say a few words, several of them jump back in disbelief or fear. One woman seems to faint and as I look at them and begin to tell them not to fear; for all is well, they look with wide-eyes disbelief. Then, the one, who is raised from the dead, begins to dust off his pants, and to brush his dusty hair back with his hand. One woman rushes forth with a sick baby and puts the baby in my hands. I touch the forehead of this child and feel that its head is very hot and its nose is thick with mucus. "I stand before you, Father, and present this child to you in the name of our Beloved Jesus, that this child may be made whole. Father, I pray that this child is healed in the name of our Precious Jesus. And, to you, our Beloved God Jehovah is the praise forever and ever." I hand the child back to the Mother and even as I do so, I feel that the cloud is moving in on me. I see the web-like substance and I am moving through this substance again, once more caught up in the wind and rushing waters, travelling at a great speed until once again I am here at home, yet deeply aware of this rip, which I perceive in the heavens. My Father, I do not know how to comment on what I have experienced. Please explain this."

"I parted the heavens today and a time of great and mighty miracles, My miracles, is upon this planet."

"But, Father, what do You mean when You say that You parted the heavens; and why was there such a mighty storm?"

"When I say that I parted the heavens, what I mean is that I have caused changes in the space/time continuum, which will make it easier for My Chosen Ones to be translated to distant parts of the world to work My miracles. The mighty storm, which you witnessed, is both a spiritual storm and a physical storm. Lucifer knows that I am empowering My Elect with My power to do great and awesome miracles in the Earth. This empowerment of Mine at much higher levels will put a severe crink in his work. Therefore, you will see him pick up speed in his evil in an attempt to stop what Mine are empowered to do. You will see him begin to restrict travel in an attempt to stop Mine Anointed from going to distant lands to work My miracles and to save souls. You will also see him pick up in his destruction and attacks on Christians worldwide, as in the "holy war," which he is initiating between Christians and Muslims. You will see evidence in many areas that Lucifer is building up steam to persecute and do away with all Christians. Just as King Herod sought to kill all babes when My Son was born, you will see great annihilation of Christians worldwide, in an attempt by Lucifer to kill off many before they can realize this new power. And, truly many, many Christians will die; but I will work great and mighty miracles through My Faithful. And, this will not be stopped."

"Father, was I just translated to India?"

"You were."

"Father, this was so awesome, but also so sad and painful. What happened with these two?"

"The man lives and the babe is healed."

"Father, do they understand that this is a gift from You through our Beloved Jesus?"

"They do."

"When I went back through the web, or curtain, did they see this?"

"They only saw you disappear."

"What did they do then?"

"They are still talking and a greater crowd has assembled."

"But, Father, will they come to You. Will they serve You and our Lord Jesus?"

"Some will."

"But, Father what will it take for them to come out of paganism and to give up demonic gods?"

"The same thing that it will take for the Mormons to give up membership in a freemason cult."

"Which is?"

"A shake-up of major proportions."

"But, Father what could this possibly be?"

"When their world falls apart and they see that their religion does not save them, but it persecutes them."

"And, when will this be?"

"When the mystery mark begins to burn them."

"What do you mean?"

"I mean that those, who are marked by the devil, will be claimed by the devil. Those, who resist will be severely burned by him."

"My Father, how long will so-called Christians be allowed to continue in a lukewarm walk? Father, how long?"

"To each is given a free choice. Will each of you get a hunger and thirst after righteousness? Will you be on fire for more and more of Me? Will you hunger for deeper and deeper truths? Or, will you rot in complacency? Those, who are lost in cults, such as the Mormon Church, are rotting in complacency. Their religion will not save them. It will condemn them."

"Father, what happened today when this rip took place in the heavenlies?"

"As I said, I have caused this rip in the heavenlies and this rip will allow My Chosen Ones to move about much more freely in the miraculous."

"Do You mean, as far as being translated to other places, or as regards the manifestation of all miracles from You?"

"As regards all miracles."

"Father, how will this manifest?"

"Just as you experienced today."

"You mean with translation?"

"And, healing and other kinds of miracles."

"Oh, Father, I wish I understood this; but I feel so ignorant. I feel like such a babe. How can we ever comprehend your great and mighty ways?"

"You cannot save I give you understanding."

"Father, I wish I knew more questions to ask about what I have just experienced and what you are about to do for Your people, but I do not know what more to ask. However, I do have a very important question. Father, two days ago, you showed me an angel atop Your Holy Mountain and this angel was blowing a horn. Then I saw angels descend from this Mountain and they had scrolls and various ones around the world were give to read these scrolls. Father, what does this mean?"

"My Child, look at the trumpet, which is in the hand of the angel. What do you see on the banner beneath the trumpet?"

"I see the word, 'plagues' written on the trumpet. But at the time of the vision I did not see this."

"And, what do you see written on the scroll, which is in the hand of the angel?"

"Father, I see the words, 'Great judgements from Jehovah, Most High God. And, on the rear of the scroll. I see a woman, who is weeping at well. She points at a water bucket, which only bears sand and debris and she says, 'We have no water. Israel thirsts for water.' Then, I see again this angel with the trumpet, who continues to sound the trumpet; and on the banner I see the word, 'plagues' again and beneath this word in smaller print I see the words,

"Devastating plagues are about to hit the USA!" The angel keeps on sounding the horn; and I look again and on the reverse side of this banner, I see a skull and crossbones. Beneath the skull and crossbones are the words, 'Antichrist machine rides the world.'

"Oh, my Father, on the afternoon following the morning when I saw the angel sound the trumpet, I read on the net that an ebola-like plague had hit the Afghan border. As we have read of Russian troops on the Afghan border, my first thought was germ warfare."

"You have sensed what is true. For, WWIII moves on."

"But, Father, what are the people to do? How can the masses survive such a war?"

"They cannot and they will not; for the greatest numbers will die."

"But, Father, what of those, who say that the Bride will be taken out and not have to go through hardships?"

"My Child, My Child, all are purified and made clean, who wed My Son. And, how are they purified and made clean, save through great trials?"

"But, Father, what does our Lord Jesus mean when He says that we should pray that we are counted worthy not to have to go through these things?"

"He means what He says. Some will actually be translated out of devastating situations or totally protected. Some will come home and will escape in this way. But, those on Earth, when He comes, will be purified by great trials, just as the apostles of old."

"So, Father, what we are about to experience is germ warfare right here in the USA?"

"Sooner than you can possibly realize. Go in peace this day and type this soon, that people might prepare. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

The very day that our Father in Heaven parted the heavenlies, a storm came through this area; and for several days time we experienced a series of storms. Great, dark angry clouds continue to roll in and it is as if what I saw in the spiritual that day is now reflecting in the physical realm.

September 11 is "Only The Beginning of God's Judgement for America!"

My Blessed Child, I am your Father in Heaven. Blessed are you, My Little One; for you obey Me. You put Me first and you have heeded My words to come out of the worldly traps. You have walked the straight and narrow, loving Me with you all, putting Me and My Son first; and because of this I am using you in great and mighty ways. Just as I parted the sea for Moses, I now part the heavenlies for you. A new day is at hand for those, who love Me with their all, and who put Me first. And, this, My Child, is a day of great and mighty miracles, wherein My Faithful shall regularly drink of My Living Waters. They shall swim in My River of Life and eat of My heavenly manna.

Yea, My Child, it is a new day for those, who are faithful. It is a new day for those, who have willingly given up the world and its traps for love of Me and My Son. Yea, it is a new day for those, who are obedient to Me.

But, alas, for those, among My servants, who will not come out of the world, who will not give up the lure of its traps, yea even these, whom I love greatly, shall be whipped with many stripes. For, they will not give up the lure of the world. Those, who rely on television, and will not give up this mind control box, will be beat with many stripes by their own choices for mind control. Those, who will not live a life, which is based on truth, will be beat and gashed deeply by every lie, which they tell. Those, who will not knuckle under and live a life of obedience to Me, will obey Lucifer, willingly or unwillingly. Those, who return evil for good, will be deceived by evil. They will eat the fruits of evil and they will suffer mightily for it. Those, who are living a lie, will be consumed by a lie and the fires of lying and deceit will burn them with a white-hot fire.

Yes, My Child, I am cleaning up My people. The Bride of My Son is being washed and scrubbed through adversity. In the past, many have been allowed to put off for another day what must be done today. But, I tell you now that those, who run from My spiritual responsibility, will be beat by the irresponsibility of their choices. Those, who will not willingly give up the world and its traps will wrestle with these traps on a greater scale on the Broad Way to destruction. Yes, indeed, Mine will live a clean and pure life before Me and they will weed out the deceptive practices in their lives. They will broken by their own choices and obey me willingly, or they will fall to Lucifer and his wiles.

My Little One, I have put a rod of iron in your hands (See Book V); and this rod will judge the nations. This rod of iron will judge the wicked, along with the so-called righteous, who are inwardly no more than ravenous wolves. This rod of iron will break the backs of the wicked and it will deal deadly and consuming blows to the New World Order heads and to their plans. This rod of iron will judge and it will judge in a mighty way; for My power and My unbending will is in this rod; and when I tell you to pick up this rod and use it, it is not under your power that judgement goes forth, it is under My power. My hand rests atop your hand when this rod is used and those around the world, who are hell-bent on wickedness and defiance, had better get ready; for great judgement, My judgement is at hand.

Yes, My Child, I know. Many believe that the devil has orchestrated the attacks of 09-11-01 on the USA. But, I tell you now as I have told you previously: I orchestrated these attacks; for it is I, who controls this world. I am the Creator of all and I have orchestrated this destruction. I control Lucifer and I allow him to rise in these end-times, that each of you may be judged as to your faithfulness. It is time that you wake up to this; for I am Creator of all. I set the universes in motion. I created all life forms; and I always bring judgement upon a proud, stiff-necked and arrogant people. I am judging the USA and I am judging the whole world; for wickedness has taken over and the masses have loved wickedness. They have forsaken Me and most churches the world over are bone dry.

I am sickened by the stench of mediocrity. I am sickened by your paltry offerings to Me and to My work. I am tired of your petty foxhole prayers and I am putting the rod, My rod of judgement to the root of a spiritual tree in the USA and elsewhere, which is growing abominations. If the preachers will not repent and if they will not cause My people to repent, I shall utterly devastate this land from North to South and from East to West. Over and over, I have warned the preachers to repent and to cause My people to repent and you would not. Now, you shall repent and you shall cause My people to repent or you shall go by the way of the grave, lost in sin and rebellion and mediocrity; and the fires of hell shall rise up to meet you.

What you have seen on 09-11-01 is only a beginning of judgement in the USA. Soon, grievous biological attacks shall hit this land and you shall find yourselves dying by the hundreds of thousands with no cure. I have warned the leadership of this land not to start a war of annihilation against the Muslims. For, these 09-11 attacks were orchestrated by the hidden leadership of the USA and other countries, which you see at the forefront of this war. However, they would not listen; for, it is their design to start a "holy war" between the Arabs and the Christians! I tell you now that because they will not listen to My warnings, many shall fall by way of the sword. They shall die from strange and unusual conditions.

Within the USA, I shall cause the real sleeping terrorists functions to awaken and these terrorist functions are not orchestrated by your own government. I shall cause them to awaken in Europe. I shall cause Red China to attack Taiwan and North Korea to attack South Korea. I shall cause a bitter war for control of the world's oil supply to break out among China, Russia and the UN antichrist conspiracy. This bitter war for control of the world's oil supply will cause a war to ravage the USA. It will ravage Europe, Russia, China and the Mideast.

Yes, My Little One, the Antichrist machine is rising and they foolishly believe that they have the world in their pockets; but this could hardly be farther from the truth. Beware of the roads, which have been heretofore untraveled. For, the Antichrist, One World Order Machine is doomed to fail. But, I tell you that it shall rise and because of it, the world will be utterly devastated.

"My Father, I have a question and it is one, which has been passed on to me by a reader in Singapore. Since you moved back the hands of time, does this mean that the sequence of certain dates, given in previous prophecies, has also been moved forward?"

"My Child, some of these dates have been moved forward and some have not. My advice to all is to live a holy and righteous life; for great and devastating changes are at hand and My Son will return when most least expect. Therefore, clean up your lives. Repent daily and watch always; for those, who are not spiritually clean, will not be His bride.

Go this day in peace, My Child, warning all to get prepared for some very hard times. Get ready for biological attacks of major proportions on US soil and for more explosions. But, these, which I speak of, will not be orchestrated by the US government. I will allow these things to come to pass; for you have entered into a foolish war, which I have warned against. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Post this on a 'Message for You', and also post as the next chapter in Book VII, that all may be recorded for posterity."

FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES*BOOK VII*Chapter Fourteen*"I am Cleansing My People"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. Harken unto Me, My Child, and take note; for your redemption truly draws nigh. My Child, the world over, My people groan beneath the weight of oppressive darkness. They cry out to Me and to My Son because of their great pains and sorrows. I tell you, My Child, herein is wisdom. Listen to Me and write as I say that those with they eyes to see will see, that those with the ears to hear will hear and that those with a heart after Me will understand.

"I am cleansing My people. I am washing and scrubbing My people. I am getting them ready, here one or two and there three or four. Yes, My Child, I am getting Mine ready; for as they are washed, as they are cleansed, as they are made pure, I am elevating their vibratory rate. For, that which is clean and pure vibrates at a much higher level than that which is polluted with all manner of darkness.

"Yes, My Child, I am bringing Mine through the fires of adversity, where they will either voluntarily clean up their lives spiritually, or they will continue to stumble over the great dark boulders of their own making. I will not accept half-measures. I will not accept lies! This path is bathed in truth and carved out in purity. All, who walk herein, will walk at a higher vibratory level, or they will not walk it.

"Many, who follow Me and My Son, even many of My prophets and apostles have it wrong. They believe that My Son will come and change them into perfection in the twinkle of an eye. This is a fabrication and many will not make the grade because of this kind of thinking. Those, who put Me first and love Me with all their hearts, with all their minds, with all their strength and with all their souls; and who love others as they love themselves, walk this path. Those, who will not love in this way will not know this higher vibratory rate; for it is a vibration of pure love.

"Therefore, I say to each of you, If you have a problem with your brother or sister, go to them and try to work it out. If they have offended you, tell them the truth of what they have done. If they will not listen to you and if you have no one else, no other person, to ally with you to make them see their wrongs, forgive them and go to My Son, asking him to bear your hurts and sorrows, to take your pain and to forgive you of your transgressions. He will do so and you will be free.

"Those, who will not look at what they have done with an eye toward honesty and who will not make amends, but continue to hurt others and to lie to self, will be cut off from the Spirit of God if they will not repent. What they have done will be a large stumbling block in their paths. It will become a millstone around their necks. Those, who agree with them in their wrongs, will suffer the same fate. They, too, will be cut off from the Spirit of God. They, too, will suffer the weight of the wrongs, which they have willingly agreed to carry and they, too, will have these wrongs as a continual stumblings block before them until they repent.

"My Child, the escapism and self-victimization, which many have used to manipulate in the past and get their ways is not going to work for them any longer. Those, who continue to hide behind victimization, escapism and all manner of lies and will not repent, will find themselves behind prison doors. They will find themselves isolated from Me and from My Spirit. They will find their lives full of darkness; for they have chosen rebellion. They have chosen a lie over the truth and regardless of how many they can gather as 'yea-sayers' and 'nay-sayers', numbers do not add righteousness to rebellion and darkness. Such numbers only create a feeding frenzy of demonic activity and this feeding frenzy is as one dark whirlwind, seeking to consume all, who will partake of it.

"I tell you all, I am cleaning up My people and you will either choose the higher road to salvation, that is the road of truth and purity and you will vibrate with a greater light of love; or you will choose the low road of lies, deceit, and manipulation and you will choose slavery and darkness.

"Many, who claim to know Me and My Son hide behind a fake light show! Many cry, 'Lord, Lord,' and even manifest all manner of miracles; but I do not know you. Many cry 'Jesus, Jesus, Yahshua, Yahshua, Yeshua, Yeshua, and Jehovah, Jehovah,' but you are far from Me. You will not receive your heavenly reward, save you repent. For, the darkness of your every word will keep you in chains. Your every dark deed is your great stumbling block.

"Hypocrites, hypocrites! My Son warned of you; for you are a poison among My flock. You are a seed of darkness, a bitter seed, and I spew you out of My mouth. You say one thing and you do another. You hide behind My work and you spew out scriptures and even prophetic words, all to deceive My people. You make a big show and you cry out to be seen of men; but I say to you that you are as a boiling teapot, wherein all the water is gone from you, save a few drops; and you are intent to get the most out of the last few drops. But, I say to you, You are barren and you are empty inside. You talk, talk, talk because you cannot stand the shrills of emptiness and confusion, which come from deep within your soul. You have no peace in your life and therefore you must constantly stir up confusion. You are a walking tower of Babel. You take, take, take and constantly manipulate to get what you want. Your ways are an abomination to Me and I warn you now, repent or perish!

"Hypocrites, how long do you think you can hide behind a mask of deception? Do you believe that I am fooled? Do you believe that you fool all? Nay, you fool few and the ones in bed with you are the poor gullible ones, who have not yet found you out, or they are of the same caliber. You use people. You bait them and you use them. This is an abomination to Me. You have no excuses; for you know the evil of your ways; but because of your selfishness you will do or say anything to stay on top. Yea, you are indeed on top, floating on the top, like dirty oil, which floats in the oceans after a toxic oil spill; and your words are just as devastating.

"I tell you, hypocrites, the oil, which is hidden deep within the Earth may turn to coal in millions of years and some fragment of it may even turn into a diamond in due season. But, do you have millions of years in which you can repent of your hypocrisy before the return of My Son? Nay, you do not. Therefore, I say to you that you will soon repent or you will perish.

My Little One, we shall stop for now. Post this as the next chapter of Book VII. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES*Book VII*Chapter Fifteen*"Jehovah, Most High, ... God of great love and forgiveness!"

This chapter was posted with some exceptions, in the "Message for You" section of our site. You will see herein as well the prophecy of November 20th and the two letters, which were mailed to the churches in and around Little Rock, Arkansas. You will also read of the seventh tornado. You will not want to miss this at the end of this chapter.

A MESSAGE FOR YOU

Today, the 29th of November, I went to the post office; and there I saw a white Cadillac, which could have been a poster car for God's word and right to life. The windows and bumpers were full of an array of stickers and Biblical quotes. My first thought was that this person surely was not from Arkansas; for these kinds of display are illegal here. As I was driving off, he was also driving off, but as I was ahead of him, I thought for a moment to stop, get out and ask him if he were a minister. I debated this back and forth for a few seconds and then on impulse decided to put the car in park at the end of the drive, get out and ask him. He looked at me standing outside his car in the pouring rain and for a second started to drive off; but I motioned him to stop. I asked him if he were a minister and he said "No." Then, he began going through a seat full of spiritual paraphernalia and started handing some of it to me. I thought to myself, "More of us need to be this way. We need to be a road show for God!" This man gave me the following bumper sticker.

"THOSE WHO WILL NOT BE RULED BY GOD WILL BE RULED BY TYRANTS." .....William Penn

Rule by tyrants

Beloved Brothers and Sisters, pray that our Father in Heaven intervenes to stop further bloodshed by the leaders of this very government in faraway lands. Pray for a great spiritual awakening in the congress and that this land is returned to the governing elements of the constitution.

How can leaders of this government portray themselves as keepers of peace when they, themselves, have become the biggest bullies on the planet, all in the name of peace and preservation of peace?

Beloved Ones, pray for righteous men and women to raise up and to take an active part in the restoration of this government to a system of checks and balances, which it was set out to be. It was never intended for a president to be King; but now we have a president, who is making himself judge and juror over the so-called terrorists, by setting up a kangaroo court, corralling in the suspects and then denying them their legal rights to defend themselves, threatening to try them on military ships, even out to sea, so that their murders will never see the light of day! This is the kind of "justice," which has taken place in Russia for years and this is what took place in Spain years ago when the fascist elements made the so-called dissidents dig their own graves before killing them and burying them on the spot.

As we have often heard, ... "absolute power corrupts absolutely." George W. Bush is drunk with the power, which he has stolen from the people through executive orders and through a bogus "terrorist" act, which was passed by members of the Senate and House; and according an article, which I read by congressman Ron Paul of Texas, very few, if any, ever read it. Something is seriously wrong with this picture and if people do not wake up and insist on one government under God, by and for the people, we shall most assuredly be ruled by tyrants! We are being ruled by tyrants!

Write your leadership in the US congress and demand accountability. Demand to know why they voted to give away your rights and pass such a law without ever reading it! Demand accountability; for if you and I do not take an active part in what is going on at leadership levels of this government, there shall not be any government left to worry about. This land is falling fast and what we can do is only a small part; but numbers do add up; and this is why I am telling you to make your voice known about the rape of the US constitution through the passage of this "terrorist" bill. Write your congressman or congresswoman and demand accountability! The ones, who have committed such an atrocity against the American people, should be made to step down! When they were sworn in, did they not agree to uphold the constitution?
They have lied!

A Miracle from Jehovah, Most High God

Since I began working on this message, we have read that the militants in the Philippines have released 110 hostages and from what we can gather, the war is abating. Beautiful Children of God, this has come about because of your prayers. Be encouraged; for we have the same God today, who worked all the miracles of the Bible. He hears and answers prayers. We do not know what is taking place in Indonesia with the Christians there; but if any of you know, pass along the information to us and we will post it here on the site.

Proceed ahead for great news from God!

Cherished Brothers and Sisters, sometimes things happen in God's work, which are so beautiful, so awesome and humbling that we are filled to overflowing with the precious love and God, amazed at His handiwork and His faithfulness toward us and to His word. I shall tell you of such an incident.

Beginning in the Spring of this year, I felt the Spirit of God leading me to pray for revival for Arkansas and I am not talking about a revival, which is orchestrated by man. I am talking about a Holy Ghost revival, which is orchestrated by God and is akin to the outpouring of the Spirit of God during the time of the apostles of old. I am talking about a revival wherein people are healed of all manner of illnesses, restored, renewed and delivered, brought back to God and put on the road to salvation! I am talking about a mighty and sustained outpouring of God's Spirit upon His People!

I asked our Father in Heaven if He would send revival if only one or two people prayed for it; and He said, "Yes." This began an earnest desire in my heart in the hearts of a few others at that time, who also prayed for revival. But, as time went on, it often seemed to be just me, praying to God in the quietness of this house, interceding and begging God to send a mighty revival to Arkansas and to the USA.

In early June of this year, our Father in Heaven dictated a letter and told me that He wanted it sent out to the churches in the Little Rock area. One would think that this would not be such a difficult job, except for the fact that I had to secure the addresses for the churches. Normally, this would have been a relatively easy thing to get from the telephone directory, but I would soon find that this was not so easy, as the churches were listed with a street address only and their physical location could be in any one of a number of small towns in and around Little Rock. Nevertheless, persistence paid off and I was able to get addresses for most churches in the telephone book and we sent out letters to 605 churches in and around Little Rock, AR in early July of this year. From the time our Father gave me this letter until the time that I was able to get the addresses and address the envelopes and put them together for mailing, about six weeks had passed, with me working a few hours daily on this project.

As some of you know, we received a few hate mails, but no positive responses from any church regarding this letter. Then, in September of this year, our Father in Heaven dictated another letter, which he said to send to the churches, and this was mailed out in early October. On the morning that I was to send out the letters, our Father told me to take His Rod and to hit the box of letters seven times; and I knew that if the pastors in the churches rejected what our Father had given me to send them, that there would be judgement hit this area.

The very day that I mailed the second batch of letters to 540 plus churches, my son told me that he dreamt the night before that seven tornadoes hit Little Rock and destroyed the city. He said, "Mom, I believe that tornadoes are coming because I dream of them every time bad tornadoes hit this area." I told him that I believed that this may come to pass if the pastors in the churches would not accept our Father's warnings, thereby repenting and preaching repentance to the people in their congregations. With the second letter, as with the first, we received no positive responses from any church. Yet, we were aware that many were praying against us as the devil came up against us with such a fury! Witchcraft is alive and well in the churches today!

In the November 20th "Message for You," you will read our Father's warning of his fury toward the enemies of his people. At the time, I thought He was talking about his fury toward those, who are fighting against His Loved Ones in Indonesia, the Philippines, etc. But, as it turns out this is not altogether the case. In going back and reading what He says near the very end of this dictation, we see that these are His words: "I say to you, 'Go forth winds!' And, I say to the devastating fires, 'Go forth fires of devastation!' I say to the worldwide calamities, 'Go forth, worldwide calamities!' And, I say to the proud and arrogant of the New World Order, 'I shall break you as matchsticks, one by one; and I shall throw you into the fiery furnace!'"

Prophecy of God calling forth the winds, ... fulfilled!

Our Father's Message

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven. Hearken unto Me, My Little Child; for an increased state of war in imminent worldwide; and this instigated and promulgated war is a contrived war between the Christians and the Muslims. Have I not shown you the Luciferian plan to create this war, that both groups be diminished and brought under control of the New World Order? Herein is the test of the Faithful. For, perilous times are upon the Earth."

"Our Father, I see a rolling fire. It is an all-consuming fire. I stand amidst this fire and I see it roll forth, burning and consuming everything in its path. Father, what is this?"

"This is My wrath against those, who harm My Little Ones."

"But, Father, many of Your Faithful are being harmed right now. In Africa, war rages. In Indonesia, many have been tortured and killed. In China, in India, in the Philippines and on and on."

"Yes, My Little One, this is so and I have tolerated much; but the enemies of My people have not yet seen My wrath. For, My wrath shall go forth as an all-consuming fire. Soon, very soon, people around the world will see evidence of My wrath against those, who harm My people. Heretofore, many have known My deliverance. Many have seen My miraculous provision; but few have seen My wrath."

"Oh, Father, how will the world see Your wrath?"

"Through all-consuming fires. Through utter destruction. And, I shall break and take down leaders in high places!"

"Father, who will You take down?"

"I shall take down prideful and arrogant leaders of the New World Order, who believe that they are beyond correction. I shall take down congressmen and women in the USA. I shall cause trains to buckle, to collide and to destroy so-called "precious cargo." I shall cause confusion in the streets and mayhem in world governments. I shall wreak havoc with the terrorist plans of the US Government and of the governments of the world. I shall rumble and shake the Earth and people of large population centers shall perish. I shall cause strange lights in the sky and the sky in places shall look like a war zone. I shall cause the sleeping to fall into a deeper sleep; and I shall cause My Faithful to rise and do mighty exploits. I shall send parching winds and violent snow storms. I shall cause greater storms than man has ever known and I shall whip the seas with My fury. I shall consume ships and burn the lands with a blistering heat. Plagues shall consume many and pestilence shall consume crops. I shall lay waste to the enemies of My people and no weapons shall prosper against My Elect.

"I say to the winds, 'Go forth winds!' And, I say to the devastating fires, 'Go forth, fires of devastation!' I say to the worldwide calamities, 'Go forth, worldwide calamities!' And, I say to the proud and arrogant of the New World Order, 'I shall break you as matchsticks, one by one, and I shall throw you into the fiery furnace!'

"I say to you, My Child, take My rod of judgement and pound the White House seven times. For, a month will not pass until those, who conspire evil therein, know that the fury of the Most High God Jehovah is upon them!

"Father, I take Your Rod of Judgement and I strike the White House, one, two, three, four, five, six, seven times and each time Your rod hits this building, I see great explosions of white fire in the Spirit. I see the white fire go out into Washington and it hits the US Capitol with great sounds of a roaring and consuming fire. I see tables overturned in the Capitol and chairs overturned and what appears to be a whirlwind inside the capitol. I hear burning, hissing and cracking and I see several people cut down instantly as they are caught up in the whirlwind. I see the top of the capitol and it is swaying, and making sounds of hissing and spitting, like a boiling caldron. Than, I see great darkness. I look upon the Potomac River and there is great darkness, yet even in this darkness, I see the reflection of the devil in the River as he stands behind me looking over my shoulder; and He says, "I win!"

"I feel the power of God rise up in me and as I turn to see Lucifer begin to flee. I stomp his tail. Fire comes from my foot and I see an explosion of light go up his rear end. He turns and blows fire and I say to him, 'Devil, I rebuke you in the Name of Jesus Christ!' Immediately, I see a wall appear between me and the devil and it is shiny, like a glass wall, but thick. And, as the wall goes up, I can no longer see this evil serpent.

"Oh, Father, I fear for Washington. I fear for the White House ; for I see that Your judgement is upon them. I fear for those, who started this war for greed and for the eradication of Christians and Muslims. Father, I fear for their souls."

"My Child, do you not believe that those in the White House know that black is black and white is white?"

"My Father, I cannot say what all people believe in the White House, but surely most know that black is black and white is white."

"My Child, even evil knows that its works are evil. Nevertheless, the evil ones parade their evil as good. The terrorist bill has been passed for the 'good' of America; but its intent is to strip you of your rights. This is evil parading as good. My Little One, many innocent souls will die because of this evil bill and many will be persecuted for the sake of truth. But, I say to you, My Child, that even as it rises, this evil system is coming down. I say this day, 'Woe, woe, woe to the Bushes and to your cohorts in crime!' For, this evil will explode in your faces when you expect it least!"

"Go, My Child, in peace, knowing that I provide for Mine; but many of the fakers are about to have a very rude awakening. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

The Winds ...

On Friday, the 23rd of November, I went on the internet to check the local weather and was surprised to find a tornado watch in effect for this area. I checked the radar and satellite images and saw a great cloud forming in the Midwestern USA, which looked almost like the formation of a small typhoon. As time passed, this cloud formation began to form a very large donut shape and the cloud cover was great. I told my husband that I was concerned about this cloud formation as I believed that we would see some very bad weather from these clouds.

We went to be early and I prayed for protection for us and for this area, not fearing, but trusting in God to protect us from whatever might unfold. At some point in the night, I awoke to hear howling winds and thunder with great amounts of rainfall coming down. Still, I was not worried; for I felt a great sense of peace and calm.

The following morning, I saw on the internet news that severe storms had ripped across Arkansas and Mississippi with several tornadoes, and a number were killed, eight I believe. Later in the day, I caught the headlines on an Arkansas paper in a paper stand and the headlines told of six tornadoes, which hit Arkansas and a number of homes and mobile homes were destroyed with 107 homes suffering damage.

I read this and thought of what my son had dreamed. Yet, he dreamed of seven tornadoes and I had just read "six." I thought of the way our Father had told me to hit the box of letters seven times with the Rod; and as I sought information about these tornadoes, I found out that the tornadoes struck to the northwest of us, to the Southwest of us, to the Northeast and to the Southeast of us. They literally hit in areas of the state all around central Arkansas, but this area sustained no damage that I could determine.

On November 26th, great storms and howling winds hit Southeast Arkansas and brought great wind damage! This week, severely cold temperatures were shown in Texas and the weather forecasts for this area were advising of possible freezing rain and ice, even mixed with snow. But, as days passed, we would get none of these, ... only rain.

Beloved Ones, many of you may not understand this, but what I am describing above is a great miracle! Little Rock is right in the middle of tornado alley and tornadoes have frequently ripped through this very area, year after year, bringing great destruction!

As servants of The Most High God Jehovah, we do as God commands us to do; but many times we are not able to see tangible results of some of the things He has us do. But, God wanted us to see that pastors in the churches have heard! He wanted us to see that this immediate area was spared the severe devastation of the winds of his fury and even ice and freezing weather because pastors are repenting in significant numbers; and that they are bringing their people to repentance! He wanted us to see that this storm was his handiwork! He warned in advance He was calling up the winds; and He wanted to verify to us that these winds had, in fact, come about!

Beloved Ones, let us sing praises and rejoice; for our God Jehovah is full of love and mercy. He also wants us to know that many of the enemies of His people are pastors of churches, and even so, right here in the South. But, most of all, He wants us to understand that all the work of hunting addresses, addressing envelopes, stuffing envelopes, stamping and mailing WAS NOT IN VAIN! This hub right around Little Rock, the very hub to which these letters was sent, was spared the severe devastation of tornadoes and even ice and snow because many preachers have heard and many are repenting!

Very few will ever know that Little Rock was spared the terrible effects of this storm because a goodly number have heard and they have repented! But, Beloved Ones, I want you to know! I want you to know that even as we have listened to God and even as we have taken the time to send out His letters, calling His shepherds to repentance, you can do the same in your areas of the country, and as others repent, you, too, will be spared his fury!

You may believe that you cannot make a difference. You may believe that there is nothing you can do to change anyone in this world or to alter the course of evil, which is enveloping this world. Do not believe it! You can make a difference! You can do something to change the downward spiral of rebellion in this land! You can do something to stop the great spiritual erosion of backsliding! You can make a difference! But, you will never know, if you do not put forth the effort!

Why am I sharing this with you? Our Father in Heaven, Jehovah, Most High God, is so awesome; and I want you to know and understand this! I want you to see His handiwork and to know His miracles! I want you to understand that this country is under His judgement; but more than this I want you to see and know His hand of mercy toward His people. I want you to see His love! I want you to see that He does not enjoy judging His people. He only wants us to love and respect Him that He might show us His mighty miracles and awesome love and that when all is said and done that you and I receive our heavenly inheritance of eternal life. I am telling you that this past Friday night and again on Monday of this week, God showed His love and mercy toward Little Rock. He showed that He is hearing and He is seeing that people are repenting!

South of Little Rock on I-30, someone has put up a billboard with a Biblical scripture calling people to repentance! On down the interstate towards Hot Springs, there is another beautiful billboard, which reads "I am the Way." Precious Brothers and Sister, people are hearing! They are repenting. They are turning back to God, here a few, and there a few.

We must keep up the momentum! We must keep on warning and we must keep on getting God's word out! There is a war going on between the forces of good and evil and the evil ones plan to snare the souls of all! But, evil does not win out in the end! God does! Light does! Love does!

If the sleeping will not awaken, they will never know the victory of the Righteous; for they are already prisoners of the devil and they are headed straight for the dark pits of hell! You and I must do our parts to wake up the people! We must do our parts to make people see their wrongs and come back to God. You and I must fight for the souls of our Beloved Brothers and Sisters! We must take up the word of God and move under the anointing of God's Spirit and we must reclaim souls for God! We must take the banner of truth and we must fight the lies of evil! The power of God within us defeats Satan! Evil cannot stand in the Light of God. The devil is whipped by the power and anointing of God!

Over and over, the Righteous defeat the devil and his followers! Those, who live righteously, are given the power to defeat the devil! Even if we die in this war and even if the devil has a temporary victory over our bodies, we still win! We know that these bodies are only temporary housing for the Spirit and soul. It is this spirit, which is our eternal body and it is this spirit, which goes on past this life on Earth.

However, if we do not live righteously by loving God with our all and obeying Him, we will not have the power of His Spirit when we need it most! Over and over again, the devil will have victory over us. He will steal what God has given us and he will destroy our lives over and over until he has the ultimate victory, gathering up the lost and rebellious and taking them straight into hell.

Beloved, get excited about God! Get excited about His work! Get excited about turning the tide on evil! Get excited about saving souls from a sure place in the pits of hell! Get excited about God's miracles; for you and I are about to see an outpouring of His Spirit that we could only dream about! Get excited about doing your part to bring the lost back to God! You can make a difference!

Yes, we are in a war and when you set out to defeat the devil, he will set out to make war with you; but Beloved Ones, when you will devote your life to God and live righteously, you will indeed bruise his evil head with your heel!

The Judgements of Jehovah, Most High God are being carried out against America. He is warning in advance and His judgement is unfolding rapidly!

Nine Prophecies Fulfilled!

In the prophecy, which was given by our Father in Heaven on September 05, 2001, He warned of great judgement upon this land! He warned that He was going to judge the finances of this land! He also warned that He was about to judge the stock market! Has he judged this land through the great catastrophes of September 11. This is prophecy fulfilled!

Has He judged the finances of this land? Most assuredly. This very government is finally admitting that this country is going through an economic recession. Joblessness is up all across the land with major businesses laying off hundreds of thousands. How did He judge the finances? The very symbols of economic power were destroyed in the very city in this country, which has long been noted for world finances, New York City! This is a second prophecy fulfilled!

If you will recall, after the disastrous events of September 11, the stock market took a deep plunge. Fixers of this market were quick to pour billions into the failing market, but remember that this is only a fix. Our Father in Heaven told in advance that He was going to judge the stock market and He did. This is a third prophecy fulfilled!

In this same prophetic message, our Father told me to take His Rod of power and to hit the Congress of the USA with this rod. He said at that time that He was going to judge the leadership of this country! In addition to the horrors of September 11, someone sent anthrax letters into congress. As a result of this, congress was closed down; and in the midst of this chaos, the evil ones in this very government pushed through a terrorist bill, which most all members of congress reportedly never saw and therefore never read, but they reportedly approved it, sight unseen! The passage of this very bill is going to further judge the bought and sold whores in congress! *God's on-going judgement of congress is a fourth prophecy fulfilled!

In this same prophecy, our Father said that he was going to judge the trucking industry. I was not sure how this was to come about; but a Dear Sister wrote from New York and sent an article about 18-wheelers, which were backed up for miles on the interstate, all because of the terrors associated with the atrocities of 09-11. This is a fifth prophecy fulfilled!

Our Father warned of problems with trains and again on the Message for You on November 20, 2001, He warned once again of problems with trains. We shall see what He is speaking of here; and there may have already been problems with trains, but I have not seen it. If you have, e-mail us.

In the September 05, 2001 prophecy, our Father warned of airplanes falling out of the sky. Have we seen this? Yes! Four times, we have seen airplanes fall from the sky. This is a Sixth prophecy fulfilled!

In this same prophecy of September 05, 2001, our Father in Heaven also warned of signs in the heavens. Have we seen signs in the heavens? Yes, we have seen serious electrical storms around the North Pole, which have been seen even into Arkansas! These storms have been the result of intense solar flares! We have also seen mighty meteor showers! And, perhaps there are other phenomena, which I do not know about. This is the seventh prophecy fulfilled!

In the September 05, 2001 prophecy, our Father said that an assassin would strike twice in quick succession to kill a leader. Have we seen this? I cannot say for sure. But, if this has not come about, it shall!

In the prophecy, which was given by our Father on September 11, 2001, our Father says that He is going to judge the Rockefeller empire. I do not know how He has judged them. Perhaps, through the problems with the stock market is one way. However, we have read that anthrax was sent to the talking head of the Rockefeller empire, which is the New York Times; and also to agencies, which reflect the views of the Rockefellers, such as major broadcasting networks. Those, who sent this evil through the mail, probably had no idea that they were carrying out the judgement of God against the Rockefellers! This is an eighth prophecy fulfilled!

And, now we see the fulfillment of the November 20th prophecy, wherein our Father said that He is calling forth the wind! This is the Ninth prophecy fulfilled! Bear in mind that these prophecies in no way reflect the fulfillment of all that our Father in Heaven has spoken of lately, but only those things, which come to my attention now. If you search His messages, you may find many others. I am pointing out these things to you so that you will begin to take note of what He is saying; for God's judgement is upon this land!

Beloved Ones, I have saved the best for last. Below are our Father's words and a letter, which He gave for the churches of America. My husband had two weeks vacation and we thought that we might get to spend some time out in the country, perhaps camping out for a few days. But, clearly our Father did not have this in mind. Before the first week was up, He sent great winds and rains and just as the second week of my husband's vacation had begun, he was called back to work on an emergency. We thank our Father in Heaven for being in charge of our lives; for He knows best in all things. But, now I know and understand that the reason that our Father changed our plans is that He has something much more important that He wants done. Please read His words and take them to heart. He needs willing workers, who will take it upon themselves to do their parts to help bring this land back to Him. Are you a willing worker for God? If not, then why?

MESSAGE FROM OUR FATHER IN HEAVEN

November 27, 2001

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. My Little One, you have been faithful in given works; and I shall appoint unto you works or greater and far-reaching consequences. You have faithfully sent letters into hundreds of Arkansas churches, bearing My warnings of repentance, or judgement; and though many scowled and prayed against you, even pronouncing curses upon you and your household, I have made you see and understand that the greatest numbers have listened. When I called forth the wind and told you in advance that I was calling forth the wind, you saw the wind come and you witnessed devastating tornadoes and high winds, yea mighty storms strike other parts of Arkansas; but destruction did not come upon Little Rock Arkansas. Let it be known, My Child, that these tornadoes did not destroy this area; for enough people have received My warnings through the letters, which I had you send to the churches and what would have been judgement if they had not received, was averted because the greatest numbers have heard. My Blessed Child, hear Me this day; for your long hours of searching for addresses and addressing envelopes, copying and mailing, and the expenses, which have been incurred, have not been for naught. All, who helped you and Dennis with the expenses, bear the blessings, which are coming about by others coming back to Me.

My Little One, I am pleased in this and I want you to see and know that all is not lost. Yea, My Child, My judgement is falling on the USA; but any of you can make a difference if you will. Therefore, as you have asked me for a letter of repentance to go into all the churches in America and even around the world, I will first give up a letter of repentance for all churches in America.

My Child, I call upon every able-bodied citizen to take your lead. I call upon everyone, who reads My following message of repentance for the churches to copy and send to the pastors of the churches, where they live. I call upon every one, who calls himself a Child of God, to rise up and take responsibility for the gross rebellion in this land. I call upon each of you to copy My word and to disseminate it across this land, that you may be spared my fury; that you may be spared My intense judgement, which will surely rip up and destroy this land from North to South and from East to West, if you will not repent in a great way. It is time that you understood that your government will not save you! Your government will bury you! Only I can save you, for I am sending the judgement!

"My Child, write as I say that this letter may be copied and sent to every church in America. My Little One, this is a great task and it is one, which you, alone, cannot do. Therefore, I am speaking to the Faithful and I am calling the Faithful forth to take the responsibility of disseminating My warning to the churches in the area in which you live.

A MESSAGE TO THE CHURCHES IN THE USA

FROM JEHOVAH, MOST HIGH GOD

November 27, 2001

"Hear Me, hear Me, Pastors of My churches! Open up your ears and hear! Open up your eyes and see! Open up your hearts and understand! For, My judgement is upon America! Across America, churches are run by errant pastors, who teach a watered-down word. Across America, churches are run by whores, who have arbitrated My word to please the masses! Across America, the churches are run by preachers, who have entered into a blasphemous covenant with a Luciferian government, the purpose of this covenant being to silence My pastors and to keep you in shackles. Yea, great numbers of you have willingly entered into a blasphemous agreement with a Luciferian government, and this covenant is the 501(c)3 tax agreement. I tell you and hear Me well when I say that your agreement to be silenced for money makes you a whore! You have sacrificed the truth for money! My fury is turned toward you, who have entered into such an agreement; and I shall uproot you! I shall scatter your flock and I shall bring mighty judgement into your midst, save you repent! For, you have loved a lie!

"I say to you lying and errant preachers, repent or perish! I will no longer strive with such mass hypocrisy! I will no longer strive with workers of witchcraft and iniquity! I warn to you, "Repent and cause My people to repent; or I shall destroy this nation, here a little and there a little, until it lies as a heap of smoldering embers!

"Above all nations, I have blessed America. I have supplied your every need, but you have come to love the gift and not the Giver of the gift.

"I say to you today, your hours and days are numbered! If you will not repent en masse and weep and howl for the sins of this land, America shall fall and it shall fall with a thunderous roar! Hidden concentration camps dot this land from North to South and from East to West and the Satanists, who run this government from the very top, cherish the day when these camps will be filled with Christians! I warn you to take note of the persecution of Christians in Indonesia, Africa, China, Russia, as well as other countries. For, one day soon, save you repent en masse and weep for the sins of this land, you will see the same kind of persecution in America!

"I am judging this land and the intensity of My judgement is only going to escalate if you will not repent and cause My people to repent in a great way. I am sending devastating fires and I am sending more plagues and more devastation through terrorism; and these shall further divide this land, save you repent en masse! If you will not then repent, I shall tear up this land through violent storms and I shall lay waste to it through nuclear disasters!

"Too long, you have thrown rebellion in My face! Too long, you have lived and preached a lukewarm walk! Too long, you have led My people astray with your hypocrisy and I say to you, errant preachers, 'Repent, or perish!'

"Very few pastors in this land live righteously! Very few of you put Me first and love Me with your all! Very few of you honor Me through obedience to My laws. I say to you, 'I know who you are and you are few, indeed!

"The masses are lost in rebellion; for the churches are putrid with the lackadaisical and the shallow! I tell you now, 'Repent or perish! I am Jehovah, Most High God."

(End copy of letter to churches here.)

If you want to help in the dissemination of this letter to the local churches in your area, you will need to spend some time searching for the addresses. You will need to copy the above letter, then make copies, address envelopes, and obviously spend money on stamps. If you do not want to put your return address, feel free to put ours. Remember that many may pray against you and some may send you hate mail; but many will also hear and receive.

After we mailed out the first letter to the Arkansas churches in July, our Father in Heaven said that about 20% of the churches received what was written; but when His warnings of war upon this land, of plagues and even of pestilence began to unfold, He advised that upwards of 60% received the last letter, which was mailed out in October. Bear in mind that not one single person wrote a positive letter, acknowledging what our Father had said; and I could not know of any positive impact in the churches. The only way I could know for sure was when our Father said that He spared the Little Rock area of the recent tornadoes and devastating effects of high winds because enough preachers had heard and repented, causing their people to repent.

Be advised that at first you may feel the pains of defeat. The devil will surely come after you and try to unnerve you. You may feel the prayers of evil against you, but as you see these things come to pass, know that you are making headway and the devil is angry for losing souls, which have been in his grasp.

When we do God's work, often it is like swimming upstream against a great current; for we are fighting the Broad Way; but Oh, Beloved Ones, how rewarding a swim this is! For, we never swim alone! We swim under the anointing of the Spirit of God; and under His awesome power we go! Over and over again we know victories; for in and through our Lord Jesus and Father in Heaven we are victorious over the evil of this dark world!

Praises to the name of Jehovah; for He, alone is all-powerful! He, alone, is all-knowing and He, alone, created us and has the power over life and death. To Him is the praise and the glory forever; for He sent His beautiful Son, His Only Son, that you and I might have life eternal. How blessed we are!

Below, I am also re-copying the two letters, which we have sent to hundreds of churches in and around Little Rock, Arkansas. If you live in Arkansas and want to send these letters to churches in your area, copy them and proceed as outlined above. If you will do your part to reach out and cause the pastors to repent and to bring their people to repentance, you will see God's hand of protection and blessing extend into your area of the state and country. Therefore, if you feel the Spirit of God tugging at your heartstrings to send out His message to the churches, do not put off this work! Get up and get going! The salvation of many precious souls depends on the efforts of God's Faithful!!!!

To: The Ministers of the churches in the State of Arkansas

A PROPHECY FROM JEHOVAH, MOST HIGH GOD

Given on June 01, 2001

Warnings to the Churches!

To the churches of Little Rock and those of surrounding areas, both near and far, even throughout all the state of Arkansas, behold My words; for I am Jehovah, Most High God. Be advised and know, Shepherds of My Flock, that I see and know all. I am not a God afar, but One, who resides within your very midst. My eyes go to and for throughout the whole Earth and I tell you that I am deeply ashamed of what I see. Yea, in the state of Arkansas, even in the very capital city, thereof, I see preachers, who are harlots. You whore after women and preach a word, which is not My word. You pick phrases from My Scriptures to suit your own agenda and you swindle My people. Yea, you pass the plate many times so that you may drive your Cadillacs and feed your every desire. Greedy preachers of the Word, I am disgusted with your hollow sermons. I am repelled by your empty words. I am angered by your callous attitudes toward the hurt and suffering. Through your vices, you have driven My people asunder. You visit not the sick in the community, not even those, whom you shepherd. You disgust Me with your piousness and sorely offend Me with your "holier than thou attitude." You refuse to allow My true prophets and apostles into your havens; for you are jealous for those, who do not even belong to you. Neither, do you want the Spirit of God to chastise you through the mouths of My true prophets and apostles; for you believe that you can hide your sins. Nay, you cannot hide your sins; for I know you, who are guilty of all manner of sexual perversions. You are full of adultery and even sodomy; and you believe that no one will know, that you can continue on in your wickedness. I see all and I know all; and I command you to repent, to come away from evil and cry out in true repentance, seeking forgiveness and full deliverance. For, many of you are possessed by all manner of demons. You have given My sanctuaries over to all manner of greed, lusts and sins and I am calling you to repentance! Repent or step down!

And, for the few, the very few, who truly love Me and who truly preach My messages of Godly love and repentance, I say to you, "I know who you are; and I say again that you are few, indeed!" For, this state or Arkansas is full of the blind leading the blind.

I am disgusted with the gargantuan buildings, which are laid up for the whole world to see, wherein you say in pride, "Look, what I have! Look what I do! How great I am!" Let it be known, Oh proud and arrogant preachers, that I am against you! In one moment, I will smash your centers of pride and I will scatter your flock; for you are an anathema to your very selves!

"Love My Flock!" "Bring them to repentance!"

To the good and faithful servants, who love Me with all their hearts, I say unto you, "Love My flock! Continue to bring them to repentance!"

God's Promise!

If the pastors will repent and cause My people to repent, I promise a great revival for the state of Arkansas. I promise to turn this state from a spiritual desert to a place of Living Waters.

God's Judgement!

But, if you will not clean up your churches and if you will not bring the people to repentance, if you will not go into the neighborhoods and minister to the lost, I shall smite this state through war, pestilence, famine, disease and death! I am a merciful God; but even now my judgement is falling all across the United States of America.

501 (c) 3 Whores, Repent!

I say to you bought and sold whore preachers. "How many of you utterly refuse to speak against a Satanic government? Through your own tax-exempt agreement with the government, you have willingly agreed to look the other way, while one country under God has become one country under Satan. This tax exempt status is all about silencing the truth. Who among you is not bought and sold by this whore system? And, who has caused you to cower to a Satanic government, save you, yourselves?"

Cowards, beware!

I ask you, "Are My people full of cowardice, that they will not speak the truth and stand for what is right?" Nay, these are not Mine; for I have given My people the boldness to speak what is true and to do what is right.

Church of Sodom, get thee hence from Me. I call Mine those, whose robes are made pure by great trials. Will a coward withstand trials and persecution for My namesake? Nay, a coward will run. A coward will renounce Me and My Son.

Church, come clean before God and be blessed, or perish in rebellion!

I say to you, Church, come clean before Me and I will bless you mightily; but if you will not come clean, I shall utterly destroy you. I am Jehovah, Most High God.

A MESSAGE FOR THE CHURCHES

FROM OUR FATHER IN HEAVEN

September 17, 2001

Jer. 6:13-16 "For from the least of them even into the greatest of them every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely. 14. They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, peace, peace; when there is no peace. 15. Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? Nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush. Therefore, they shall fall among them that fall. At the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith the Lord. 16. Thus saith the Lord, stand ye in the ways and see and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein." (Holy scripture given by our Father in Heaven on September 17, 2001, to accompany His prophetic words below.)

My Beloved Child, hearken unto Me this day and write as I say, that these words may go again into the churches. For, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God; and I say to you now, that the wicked will be wicked, the lost will be lost, kingdoms will come and go, but My word shall not fail you.

Yea, My Child, set your face against the churches and set it against them like stone; for My word has gone out to them, sent by you, My anointed and chosen servant. Yea, in July of this year, these words were sent; and I have beheld the responses. I have beheld the proud and the arrogant! I have beheld the slothful! I have beheld the "holier than thou;" and I have beheld the "tried and true", who have read, understood and received. Yea, in spite of what you believe, My Child, all is not lost; for a few have heard. A few have seen and a few have understood.

Yea, this day, My Child, let those with the eyes to see, see; and let those with the ears to hear, hear. Let those with a heart after Me, understand that My judgement is upon this land. Let those, who hunger and thirst after righteousness rise up and take the staff of righteousness. Let them eat of the Bread of Life and drink of My Living Waters. I know who you are; and I say again that you are few, indeed!

When war strikes this land, en masse you scramble for your fox-hole prayers. As a nation, you cry out, "How great we are," and you turn a blind eye to the real culprits within this very government. Yes, indeed, the New World Order is on the rise and the wise will be quick to see the real culprits; but those, who whore after the world and what is in it will soon line up to take the "mark."

I have warned the Shepherds of My Flock to repent and to bring My people to repentance; or I would destroy this land with war, pestilence and plagues. Have you listened? Have you? Nay! The greatest numbers of you have not! I warn you now that my prophetic words, which were penned by this apostle and prophetess in July and sent to you, stand to judge you. Yea, they stand to curse you or to bless you.

Get ready; for I am sending a revival upon this land. It will not just hit Arkansas, but it will hit here and there all across the USA; and it is not now, but very soon. When you see the factories close en masse and the farmers flee to the city en masse and when you see great devastation across the land, with wars all around this planet; when lines of people gather, for their pockets are empty and they have no food or shelter, then and only then will My people humble themselves before Me to weep and howl for this land. Then and only then! Yea, when suffering hits your home, you will weep and howl for this land!

I am ashamed of America. You stand amidst My judgement and bellow, "How great we are! How great this land is! It will not fall!" But, I say to you, "America shall fall!" It shall fall with a roaring thunder and the whore churches in this land shall fall with it.

Do you hunger and thirst after righteousness! Have you given up the lusts of the world! Nay! Very few! For, you live comfortably off the fat of the land!

I tell you now that My judgement shall only intensify upon this land! Are you ready to do your part? Will you set aside your differences and gather to weep and howl for this land? Will you weep for the sins, which hold this land captive? Will you?

I have told Mine anointed to stand by for those, who will come forward to weep and pray for this land. I have told Mine anointed to get ready to pray with a few of the meek and humble, who love Me with their all, and do My will daily. Yea, a few will come forth and when you do, I will bless you mightily. I will hear your cries. I will honor your prayers and you will bring revival to this land. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God.

(The letter below accompanied our Father's words in the above message and was also sent into the churches.)

Beloved Servants of the Most High,

On the morning of October 03, 2001, while I was standing at the sink washing dishes, I saw an angel of the Lord standing atop God's Holy Mountain. He held a trumpet in his hand and he was sounding this trump.

When I later asked our Father in Heaven why this angel was sounding this trumpet, He showed me that great plagues are being poured on the USA and around the world. He told me that hundreds of thousands will soon die of these plagues within the USA, if the people do not repent in a great way. He also said that greater terror is coming upon this land, and if the people do not then repent, nuclear war will surely devastate this land.

In the fall of 1998 and again in the Spring of 2001, this country was closer to nuclear war than most will ever know; but in both instances our Father extended His hand of mercy. However, we are entering into a time wherein His judgements will become increasingly greater. We will soon see the Antichrist rise in Europe! If people will not repent in a great way, we will not escape an escalated destruction of this world.

Many believe that Lucifer and his pawns have orchestrated the latest round of destruction, but they do not realize that Lucifer is carrying out a much higher plan and that plan is the plan of the Most High God Jehovah. We are seeing God's judgement upon this land!

If the people will not humble themselves and repent, God will send increasingly greater earthquakes, hurricanes and even an asteroid impact. But, even then I fear that many will not repent; for in the Book of Revelation, we are told that even in spite of all the destruction, plagues and great judgements from God, that people still do not repent.

My husband and I are called to warn the people and we both hope that you will receive the words of our Father and repent and cause the people in your church to repent, that we may be spared some of God's great judgements. We belong to no group and represent no church. We only wish to carry out the will of God and we wish to bring God's people back to Him that their souls do not wind up in hell!

If you feel led to be a part of a prayer group for revival in this land and if you wish to gather here and there a few, we will meet with you and we will pray with you. We will weep with you and we will beg for God's forgiveness for the sins of this land. If you wish to repent of your own sins and need someone to pray with you, my husband Dennis and I will pray with you.

Our Father in Heaven recently showed me a rather large group of pastors, who had assembled for deliverance. I pray that this happens soon; for we have received numerous letters about pastors, who are lost in all manner of porn, lusts, greed and so on. If this fits you, realize that it is not too late for you to repent. We all fall short; but through the saving grace of our Lord Jesus, we are made whole. Now is the time to get right with God, to confess your sins and to seek deliverance through our Lord Jesus. Many sins seem insurmountable when they are kept secret, but confession is part of the healing process, which any troubled soul must go through.

Jesus wants us to be free and He wants us to bring every lost sheep back into the fold. But, there has been a great breakdown in the churches wherein many have become lost in the sins of the world and the Spirit of God has forsaken them. Many churches have taken the 501 (C) 3 tax number, agreeing to uphold a "satanic" government and agreeing to keep silent about government policy, to not talk against porn and a long list of other hideous kinds of agreements, just for money. This agreement with a "satanic" government has put a stranglehold on the churches and the preachers have willingly become silenced for money. By any definition, this is a whore church. If this is you, just remember that you do not have to enter into a covenant with the devil.

If these words concerning a "satanic" government seem strong to you, you need to study the works of such "secret" societies as the freemasons and understand how they work. You need to read of the blood oaths, which all must take and learn of the god, which they worship. From the very highest levels of these secret "satanic" organizations, they worship Lucifer, yet those at the lower levels are often duped. But, it would seem that when these at lower levels take increasingly more severe oaths, agreeing to have to be disemboweled, and to have their hearts ripped out if they tell of these events and ceremonies, that they would begin to suspect that something is not right. But, alas, belonging to such organizations has monetary kickbacks and prestige. These "satanic" organizations engage in human sacrifices and defilement of the human body at the very highest levels, which are all requirements for those, who serve the devil. You need to understand the occult layout of Washington DC and you need to understand something of the secret societies, such as the Bilderbergers, the Counsel on Foreign Relations, the Skull and Bones society and on and on.

Beloved Ones, these "secret" societies, who have entered into blasphemous covenants with Lucifer, now rule the world. Part of the freemason oaths require their members to hang a jury before they will convict a fellow member, even if this person is being tried for murder. When you understand the nature of these secret societies and their secret oaths, you will come to understand why many in Washington literally get away with murder. It is impossible to understand the horrors of this government without understanding how these secret satanic societies work.

I have read many times that the very president of this land belongs to the Skull and Bones, a super secret society, which is said to be the Thule Society by another name. This very Thule society is what empowered Hitler to come into power. Hitler, himself, often spoke of a New World Order and I have read that George Herbert Walker Bush spoke of a New World Order no less than 200 times when he was president. This very Bush family played a role in putting Hitler into power through the Father of George Herbert Walker Bush. This information is readily available on the internet search engines for those, who are interested.

Once you get a handle on these secret societies and how they operate in stealth and cunning, with impunity, you will never view this government in the same way. You will come to understand why prayer has been taken out of the public schools. You will understand why these same secret groups control the media from the top; and you will understand and see mass media for the mass mind control tool that it is. You will want to protect your minds and the minds of your children from satanic mind control television and movies; for you will realize just how close we are to the reign of the antichrist.

If you have believed what you have seen on television and in the controlled newspapers, you are most likely comfortably asleep. However, even now, many are seeing that this "satanic government" will not save them. Many are waking up to George Bush's comments that those of the world, who are not with him and his counterparts for World War III, are against them.

Just this morning, we received an e-mail, which said in effect that concentration camps are now good investments in the USA. Yesterday, we received an e-mail, which was interpreted from the Russian newspaper Pravda; and this article went on to tell how martial law had been implemented in the USA. Do you know that when martial law is implemented the constitution is technically suspended and that FEMA is given power to rule the land? That's right, the constitution is technically suspended! All this has been made possible by massive numbers of executive orders, which were signed by past presidents, taking away all the rights of Americans in time of conflict. William Jefferson Clinton signed huge numbers of executive orders designed to take away the freedoms of Americans. Go and read them for yourself! You will be shocked!

Many do not know that the national guard has been called out here and there all over the USA to guard certain installations. And, most do not know that the skies all over the USA are now being patrolled by NATO planes. That's right. NATO planes are patrolling the skies all over the USA! (For more on this and the real reasons for this war, <http://www.rense.com/>, on the internet has outstanding information.) Does it give you comfort that the skies over the USA are now being patrolled by NATO? Well, if it does, remember the NATO atrocities in Yugoslavia. Today, they patrol the skies, but tomorrow NATO will patrol the streets. In visions past, I have seen NATO make war against America!

We hope and pray that you will wake up and see the direction, which this country is headed in. We pray that you will repent and cause the people in your church to repent. We hope and pray that the people in general will wake up to what is going on in the world and come back to God in sufficient numbers, that we may be spared some of the horrible devastation, which is upon this land.

Please, if you feel a burden in your heart to help bring revival to this land, get in touch with us. We will pray with you and we will pray for you. We are not set up to take a volume of calls, so we respectfully ask that you write us a brief note at the following address, listing your telephone number; and we will get back with you.

We pray that our Father in Heaven blesses each of you with a new resolve to serve Him in great and mighty ways and that He anoints you anew to do great and mighty works in His Holy Name.

I am hearing our Father tell me to add this message as the appropriate chapter in Book Seven, that this message may be preserved for posterity; so therein you will see it again. I pray that in due season, we will be able to add other chapters to this book and even to subsequent books about the awesome hand of Jehovah all over America as more and more pastors come back to God and repent and cause their people to repent. I pray that many of you will write with awesome letters of praise for our Beloved God Jehovah and for His Beautiful Son, our Beloved Jesus, as You see the hand of God come down in your area of the country and spare you devastation because the people have heard and they have repented. I pray that our mail box is full with evidence of your hard work, as so many of you take up the challenge to bring the preachers and congregations in your area of the country to repentance! And, even if these churches never reveal a word to you, you will know that they have heard and that they have repented; for God will truly make you see, just as He has made us see! He will spare you and your part of the country of his fury!

Remember that you are a beautiful Child of God; and He loves you without condition. If you have drifted away from His love, now is the time to come back!. As you will see in a chapter, which will soon be posted in Book VII, God is raising the vibratory rate of His people, here a few and there a few; and He is raising this rate by taking us through the fires of adversity, wherein we are purified, made clean and filled with more of His precious love and radiance. God's work within us is about two very important things, love and forgiveness. If we will not forgive, we will not be forgiven and if we will not love we will not know the love of God. Forgiveness is an intricate part of loving. Therefore, we must forgive, lest these matters of unforgiveness become large dark boulders, which are continually in our path, over which we stumble over and over again. Therefore, our Lord Jesus tell us to forgive and to love our enemies; for if they are our enemies and we are servants of God, are they not also enemies of God? And, if they are enemies of God and his purposes, are they not lost and full of darkness, needing to be free, that they might be saved from great sorrow? Therefore, we should love our enemies and pray for them, that they, too, might be cleansed, healed and know the higher vibratory rate of the pure love of God!

Remember our Way home. His name is Jesus! Many call him Yeshua; but regardless of whether we call Him Jesus or Yeshua, He knows His Sheep! And when He calls His Sheep to come home, His Sheep know His voice! He will return soon for us; but remember that our robes must be white. And, how will they be white, save they are washed and purified in the fires, like silver and gold are purified?

You and I are tried and tested over and over again as to our faithfulness and this is only going to intensify as we near the time of the return of our Lord Jesus. Get prepared spiritually to go home; for Earth is not our home! We are only visiting. Reach out and love others. Help the lost and unfortunate and you will be blessed; for every act of love, which we give out, no matter how small, comes back to us when we least expect it. It is the love of God that makes life worth living!

Jesus is our Beautiful Love. He is our Precious Life and our Only Way home. There is no other way!

Your Brother and Sis,
Dennis and Linda

Beloved, I must tell you about the seventh tornado. If you remember in my Son's dream, he said that he dreamt of seven tornadoes, which struck Little Rock and destroyed the city. He dreamed this the night before I sent out the last round of repentance letters to the churches in this area. But, there is more to the dream. A few days ago he reminded me of parts of the dream, which I had forgotten. He said, "Mom, there were six clear tornadoes and one black tornado." When he reminded me of this aspect of his dream I did recall him telling me this, but I had merely forgotten to write of this. This part of this dream would turn out to be very important.

We know about the six tornadoes. These hit all around Little Rock the day after Thanksgiving, but what you do not know is that this past Friday night the seventh tornado came ripping toward us. Just after nightfall, on the seventh of December we heard the tornado sirens blasting with their ominous sound. I looked at my husband and we both thought it the strangest thing as there was no rain, no storm. When I went outside to look, there was only dense fog. My husband remarked that they must be testing their equipment, but I did not believe this. As he was on the computer, I asked him to go to the local weather and find out where the tornado was. At the same time, I tore down the hall, praying in tongues and rebuking and commanding the tornado to move north. The sirens continued to wail and after a few minutes I came back up the hall and decided to turn on the television for a brief moment to check the position of the tornado, something we never do, unless a tornado is bearing down on us, the last time being about a year ago. Just as I was turning on the television, the wails of the siren stopped, and I was able to see on the local weather station that the tornado had veered north. The weather announcer continued to speak of the "well-defined" hook or tail, which was harboring the tornado. I began to pray against this tornado, demanding that this hook disintegrate and that this tornado totally disintegrate and be no more. I spoke to that thing with the anointing of the Spirit of God, commanding it to break up and be no more. I just kept on praying and speaking to it and with each round of the radar, the tail had diminished and the tornado was getting smaller and smaller. By the time the radar had moved around about four times, the "well-defined hook" was no more and the tornado was history! Beloved, praises to The Most High God Jehovah; for He, alone is Most High and to Him is the praise and glory forever and ever. He commands us to speak and to pray with the anointing of His Spirit and He tells us that is we will pray with a grain of faith as a mustard seed that we shall move mountains. I tell you, pray with the power of God and with the anointing of His Spirit and you will see the mountains move. They will not stand. Over and over, you will see God move in and give you victory. This seventh tornado was the black tornado. The weathercaster even said that it was a freak as the tornado was on the wrong end of the storm. The devil concocted this tornado and sent it right toward our house, but the power of God moved it out. Beloved, God is our safety net! We must move out in faith and He will move with us unto victory! Praises to the Holy Name of Jehovah, Most High God; for He is full of love and mercy!

FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES*Book VII*Chapter Sixteen*"How God Speaks through His Prophets"

"My Beloved Child, hearken unto Me; for I am your Father in Heaven and I love you mightily. My Little One, some things trouble your mind and you have come for a greater understanding. Have I not said that if one lacks understanding, let this one come to Me and I will give understanding and 'tis the same for truth. Seek ye truth of Me and it shall be given unto you."

"Yes, my Father, You have said these things through Your holy word."

"Then, know My Child, that as you ask I shall give. The essence of your question is why I speak different things to different prophets, as some of these things seem to contradict."

"Yes, my Father, I seek to understand this."

"My Child, what do you see before you?"

"My Father, it looks like a measuring stick of some sort; for it is rectangular and it is divided into sections. I see myself walking on this measuring stick, which is well-illuminated; and as I look down at this measuring stick, I experience Your glorious light, which is full of love, peace and joy. I seem to be floating in such peace and beauty and suddenly feel so close to You. How I love You and how I miss You and our Precious Jesus every day of my life! Father, what was that? I heard a cracking sound like a whip cracking and I now see a team of horses pulling a wagon. I certainly do not understand this."

"My Child, what do you not understand?"

"I do not understand how we got from my questions about the measuring stick to this point and what this added vision means."

"My Child, when you behold yourself in the next vision before you, what do you see?"

"I see that I am a child and that I am seated at a large desk. I can hardly see the top of this desk; for my head is just above the top of it, yet I have a pen in my hand and I am busy writing at this desk."

"What do you believe this to mean?"

"Father, I do not wish to speculate; for the visions, which you give me seldom mean what I believe them to mean. I can only know if Your Spirit reveals."

"This is so, My Child and this is so for every prophet. My Little One, every prophet is a child. Every apostle, every minister, every teacher, every evangelist, every one, who works for Me is a child. You know you are only a young child before Me, but many lose focus of this. Many times, those, who are called to serve Me and My Son forget that they are only children and they will begin to usurp authority. They will begin to think highly of themselves. They get carried away with the office or calling I have given them and they begin to venture into the dangerous ground of self. Many want to stand in judgement of other prophets or apostles. Many cast unfair judgements, believing that they are beyond reproach. Many get puffed up believing that they are always right. Many set themselves up for a great fall.

"All, who are called of Me to serve Me and My Son, are children. Some of these children are older than others. It is not for the older children to 'lord over' the younger ones, but to speak truth to them and to help them if asked. My Child, the prophetic walk is unique to each of you. Though I give the same messages to many and these similar threads will be obvious, I often give very different messages. These very different messages may seem to contradict one another; for one may be lacking certain very important information, which is given to another.

"My Little One, do not concern yourself about what I say to other prophets. Just do as I say and write as I say, knowing that I do not speak the same things to all and I do not have the same plan for each prophet. Each of you is unique. Many of you live at different places around the world. Some of you will be used by Me much differently than others. Remember that each of you is unique. I warn all to look for deep meaning in much that I say. I am a merciful God and I do change My mind. To some of you, I show what is fixed and will not be changed. To many of you, I reveal what will be changed, if enough will repent. To some of you, I show impending calamities, that you may pray and ward these off. A certain prophet sees the impending calamities and shouts the alarm, thereby causing others to intercede in prayer, and the calamity is averted. Is this prophet a false prophet because what he has seen and warned of did not come to pass? He has done My will. However, many will say, 'Oh, what he warned of did not come to pass. Therefore, he is a false prophet!' I warn each of you about this kind of judgement! I warn each of you about labeling My true prophets as false prophets for some things, which you do not understand; for if you hurt one of My Faithful, you will feel the sting of My judgement. No one understands My works and no one understands My ways. Those, who believe that they know My ways or understand them are utter fools. My words and My ways are a mystery to all. Therefore, let the fools be advised. Just when you come to the realization that you have Me and My ways figured out, I will pull the rug out from under you. I will turn your life upside down and inside you. I will send a whirlwind into your very midst and show you that you are a fool. The proud and haughty will burn as stubble. The meek and the humble will enter into My Kingdom and they are all children. Not one will enter herein, who puts himself or herself in a position of power over My Little Ones. Egomaniacs are hell-bound. Those, who serve Me are meek and humble. Those, who are called to lead My people are servants to My people. They love My people. They help them. They do not suck the life out of them and use them up. My servants do not 'lord over' My Little Ones. Those, of the devil do this. My servants are not money mongers. They do not set themselves above the less fortunate. My servants are full of love and forgiveness; yet they are wise through My Spirit in their hearts. Each of you, who has a calling is to execute this calling, according to the dictates of My Spirit. Yet, look around! The masses have chased out My Spirit through rebellion! The churches are full of the proud and the haughty, full of the arrogant! I am not in this! I am not in the midst of greed and selfishness! I am not in the midst of confusion and clamor. I am a God of great love, peace and joy; but I am also a God of perfection, a God of judgement. I know hearts. You cannot lie to Me and 'fake me out.' You lie to self and when you lie, you become all the more a servant of Lucifer. I am a God of truth. I lie not, but neither do I give all truth, but part, and to each if given a work to take what I have given an to tell the people. Even when you are sure that a prophet is lying or has missed the mark, do not be so quick to judge. For, what may appear to your child mind as a lie may be in fact truth. Do not take what I reveal out of context and believe that you understand. For, often, I speak in symbols and even when you know that you know, you may be wrong.

"Stop judging My prophets! I judge My prophets! And, I also judge the whore prophets, who are none of Mine. For, they are full of covetousness, greed, selfishness, rebellion, backbiting and so on. These are not Mine. You know Mine by their fruits! My prophets are full of love and long-suffering; yet they are also full of truth, My Spirit of Truth. They abhor a lie and will not abide greed, selfishness, pride, arrogance, rebellion, so on.

"I tell you now, My prophets are on the precipice of great and mighty blessings. For, I am about to pour out My Spirit upon My Faithful in a great measure. Mighty miracles, the likes of which this Earth has not seen since the time of My Son, are about to unfold. Those, who do not respect My prophets, and who mistreat them are going to suffer a mighty judgement. The Elisha-types of judgements will go forth and hit many of the rebellious, who wish to harm My prophets, So, be warned! This day is at hand, wherein My judgement is falling on the enemies of My people. I am Jehovah, Most High God.

"My Father, might I go back and ask for more understanding?"

"Yes, My Little One."

"Father, what is the relevance of the measuring-like-device, on which I saw myself walking?"

"Is this walk not straight and divided into sections?"

"Yes, my Father."

"And, you are in the middle therein, yet ready to move on up?"

"Yes, My Father."

"My Child, this is My Straight and Narrow Way and this also represents the walk of the prophetic. For, there are prophets, who are much younger than you and those, who are older. You are mid-way or middle-aged, as you might say."

"But, Father, this does not have to do with actual age, per se, does it?"

"This is good question. My Child, no, this is not actual age, but according to your prophetic walk in this life."

"So, I am near the middle, but moving up soon?"

"This is so and in due season, you will know what this means."

"And, the great light, Your light, which enveloped me?"

"This is all part of your walk and this light and power is going to increase in you in a great way. You are receiving this even now, but you are only on the precipice of this great wave of My power."

"Father, tell me about the whip and the horses with the carriage."

"My Child, this whip signifies a time of judgement for this land. It is also a time of judgement for My House. Those, who have been called to serve Me, who have entered into ego, pride, rebellion, etc are about to feel the sting of My judgement. My whip is going to sound in their very midst. Mine are going to clean up their walks, or they will be left behind."

"What about the horses and the carriage?"

"The horses represent teamwork among My people. My people love one another. My servants love one another and My true servants work as a team. They are not out to destroy one another through backbiting and judging My others true servants. This teamwork is coming into focus. I am calling forth My Anointed, that they network and love and support one another. Many of My Loved Ones, have lived isolated lives because others of you are full of self. You reach out with one hand to love and you slap with the other hand. I say, 'Enough!' Those, who will ride in My chariot of great spiritual anointings and power will ride under My power and love, one for the other! All backbiters, gossipers, two-faced, and idolaters, will be soon shut out for good! You will either humble yourselves before Me and repent, making amends for your wrongs, or you will perish! With this, My Child, we shall stop for today. I am your Father in Heaven."

FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES*Book VII*Chapter Seventeen*"The Runaway Train"

"My Precious Child, I am your Father in Heaven. Hear Me this day and write as I say that all may be the wiser. The vision of December 11th 2001, regarding the slaves of Lucifer, who have commandeered a runaway train and plowed it through your constitution and military is taking place now. This vision does not relate to some distant point in the future. Did I not tell you that in one month, certain ones in the White House will know that there is a Jehovah, Most High God?"

"Yes, my Father, You said it. You also said that you were calling up the winds and we have certainly seen this come to pass here. And, You said that you were calling up the fires; yet I have not seen this come to pass. (This very day, someone sent us an e-mail regarding a fire in the largest church in America, which is a cathedral in New York City. As I understand it, the fire in this church was started in the bookstore and caused extensive damage. A week or so before Christmas, as I was reading news on Rense.com on the internet, I was thinking of the fires, which our Father said He was going to call up and as I looked down at the very next article, I read of great fires in Australia. Since that time, we are all aware of fires in Peru that killed well over two hundred. This fire began in a shopping mall. Beloved, this saddens me so; but I sense God's judgement in these fires!)

"My Child, all has to do with My judgement upon the errant and rebellious of this land. My Child, do you believe that black is white?"

"No, my Father, I do not."

"My Little One, if the masses could see and hear, they would perceive the evil, which is coming out of Washington. They would perceive the lies and they would fight against evil so as to retain rights and freedoms."

"But, you have a president, who has been turned over to Lucifer; for he would not obey Me. You have a president, who is skating on ice, yet without the skates; and he shall soon take a fall. Oh, he will stumble to get up again, but he shall fall again and again until his work in the Earth is finished. Yes, indeed George W. Bush and his Father, plus the New World Order alliance, to which they belong, all gloat at the gullibility of the masses and the continued belief in and acceptance of the lies, which are foisted upon them. The world over they laugh, they guffaw, at the 'idiot' mindset of the masses. They ride upon great clouds of ego, not seeing their own Achilles heel. My Child, I have told you over and over that if people will repent, if the preachers and the congregations will repent and serve Me anew in truth, honor and Spirit, that I will delay judgement upon this land. I do not get joy from judging My people; but if you will not soon repent, greater, much greater calamities shall readily befall this land.

"My Beloved Child, I am aware of those, who are sending out the repentance letters to the Churches in America. I have heard your prayers, My Child, that all, who help with these works receive the Seven Thunders Blessings as I have promised. My Little One, I am true to My word, that those, who help with these works shall be blessed mightily. They shall see many a miracle straight from My throne; for each one, who works for Me by sending out these letters, is working to save souls and this is the most important work any of you can do. As pastors repent and as they cause My people to repent, I will show these parts of the country over and over that I have extended My hand of mercy upon them. Therefore, My Child, I say to the few, who have sent out this letter and to those, who are sending them out, 'My blessings are upon you and your households; and my hand of protection is upon you. Be faithful. Pray always and I shall send mighty spiritual blessings into your life. For, I am pleased in each of you and you shall know My great love and glory. Stay the course. Be faithful. Continue to come out of the world and put me first in your lives and I will give you a basket, which is overflowing with my miracles.'

"To those of you, who have read this letter of repentance and refuse to do your parts to bring America to repentance, I ask you, 'Do you love Me and My Son and your brothers and sisters in word only, or do you love Me and My Son and your Brothers and Sisters in word and deed?' If you love the lost and the rebellious, you will do your part to bring them to repentance. This land is full of rebellion and if you will not do your part to save your part of this country from judgement, who will? Do not pass off to another what you, yourself, are able to do. Get busy and get My message of repentance out into the churches; for My judgement is upon this land and save you repent in sufficient numbers, I will further bring down this land through grievous calamities.'

"Yes, My Child, the runaway train will be stopped in due season and I will stop it through My very judgements upon this land. Will each of you do your parts to cause My people to repent? Will you work to save the people of this land? Will you work to save this land? If you see the need and will not do your part, I shall doubly judge you. Each of you, who lives herein, bears a responsibility for the serious degradation in morality, for the rebellion, for the witchcraft and erosion of this government and for the spiritual erosion in the churches. If you will not do your part by helping in this work, even as I plead with you to do your part, I say to you, that there will come a time wherein you will also plead with Me and I will not hear.

"This land is in grave peril and for the sake of My Loved Ones, I am merciful; and I will always be full of love and mercy toward My Faithful. I will always provide for them. I love the wicked and I love the lost. I love the heathen and the rebellious and it is because of this love that I judge. For, I do not judge the wickedness and the rebellion, it will consume every bit of good. Evil absolutely destroys all good if left to do so; and I will not ever allow such to come to pass. For, My hand is upon the righteous, ... My hand of protection and provision. Therefore, I say to each of you. There is work to be done. Will you do your part? My Child, put this on the next message and also as the next chapter of Book VII. I am Jehovah, Most High God.

Prophecy fulfilled: Did George W. Bush not recently take his first fall before the whole nation? If you believe this was the result of a pretzel, read our Father's words in the first chapter of Book VIII. Then, you will know better!

FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES*Book VII*Chapter Eighteen*"2002, a grievous year!"

"My Beloved Child, hearken unto Me and write as I say, that My word may go forth, a warning unto My people! My Child, behold the pot before you; for it is broken, shattered and dispersed as shards. Even as you walk barefoot on the shards, feel them crumble beneath your feet. My Child, what more is the broken pot, than the government in Washington DC; and what more are the shards than the remnants of this constitutional republic, an empty, broken and destroyed pot before Me and My people?"

"Weep, My Little Ones! Weep for what lies before you! The wolf is a prowler and it is a lean and hungry wolf with vacant eyes and steamy breath. Yea, when you least expect the wolf of hunger and destruction to strike, it will strike your corn fields and lay barren your wheat crops. Weep, My Little Ones, for soon radioactive fallout will taint your food supply. Farms will lie barren; for the ground will not grow crops.

"Weep, My Children, for the cover of protection, My protection, has been lifted off this land and the wild dogs of barbarism and Satanism are set loose to roam in packs. Calamities, yea grievous calamities are upon this land! The vacant and empty churches will perish and the hungry flock are soon to be scattered!

"Yes, weep, My Little Ones, for a time of great upheaval is at your door. Grievous calamities and dark upheavals will soon sweep this land! Are you ready? Nay! For, you have lived a life of ease! You have lived a life of pampering, living off the fat of the land!

"I am turning tables on the money changers in my churches! I am turning tables on the hypocrites, the two-faced and the backbiters! I am turning tables on the false prophets and the liars and the deceivers! I am turning tables upon the mockers and the scorners! Yea, My Little One, in 2002, I am turning tables. I 2002, I am going to root out and judge the false prophets! I am going to root out and judge those, who persecute My true servants and falsely label them as 'false prophets.' I am going to turn the tables and when I turn the tables, the lamp, which shines on the false prophets and the hypocrites is going to spill and the flaming oil is going to burn them. 2002 is going to be a year of grievous separation. Yes, I am shining My light upon the false and the obscene in My Kingdom and I am shining My Light upon My Faithful. Great anointings and much power is flowing into My Faithful; but I am closing shop on the false prophets! Many cry, 'Lord, Lord, but their hearts are far from Me. Many make a big show and fool the masses; but this year, 2002, I am bringing down the false shows! I am tearing up the fake light shows! I am turning the tables. As My Tried and True, as My Faithful, move out into the limelight of My work, I shall work great and mighty miracles through them; and I shall use them in great and mighty ways to save souls!

"Watch out, fakers! For, your days and hours are numbered! My judgement is upon you and you will not escape My wrath. Yes, 2002 is a war year! For, your President Bush has proclaimed it. The 'dead bush' has proclaimed a war year! But, I say, yes indeed it is a war year; but not the Satanic kind that he speaks of. For, I am bringing My warriors, My army to the front lines, and woe to those, who come to make war with Me and Mine!

"Yes, in 2002, Washington DC will proclaim war; for I Jehovah, Most High God, am going to tear up Washington DC. I am going to rattle windows and I am going to shake streets. I am going to pound the liberty bell into thousands of pieces and I am going to send a black horse of destruction through the streets of Washington DC. Yes, I will ring some bells and I will make My mark on some doors; for this year, the grim reaper will make housecalls in Washington DC. I am purging this land. From North to South, from East to West, I am purging this land. Not only am I purging the churches, but I am purging this land. For, above all lands, I have blessed America and you have become all the more the whore. You have bedded with every strange god and you have marooned with every dark ship in every dark harbor. Your filth has polluted the whole Earth and your murders of the unborn and the newborn have created a ring of darkness, a ring of crying and weeping, in the ethers around this Earth. America, the abomination! America, the accursed! For, the curses of Deuteronomy have come upon you and the land from afar is within your very borders. Yes, 2002 is a war year, indeed, and 2002 shall bring war to the streets of America! 2002 shall bring war to the corn fields and to the wheat fields of America. Yes, America is coming down and with it shall come down a blasphemous leadership, which is full of evil and rottenness. Woe, woe, woe to the whores of Washington DC. My wrath is kindled against you and with one fell swoop of My hand, I shall eradicate you. I am Jehovah, Most High, the One God, and I have warned you to have no gods before Me. Yet, in the highest offices of this land, you sacrifice babies and you drink their blood. I tell you now that this year will not pass before the Destroyer visits you. Be warned; for this evil system is coming down. I am Jehovah, Most High God."

FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES*Book VII*Chapter Nineteen*"Our Father's Warnings to the World ...being fulfilled even now!"

Beloved Ones, below you will see our Father's Message to the World. Following this message is another word from our Father, which you will also want to read, as well as other very pertinent information. Even if it is six months down the road, or two years down, or even longer, when you read our Father's message to the world, I urge you to copy and disseminate His message to the churches, that the Faithful may be encouraged and the rebellious are brought to repentance

"Our Father's Message to the World"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God. My Beloved One, the winds come and the winds go; but the wind, which is at hand, shall not go. Yea, this is a mighty wind of My Spirit and it is being unleashed now upon My people. Yea, a mighty wind of My Spirit is rolling forth, even as a mighty tidal wave. It is rolling forth; and within three days, My Child, you shall know what I mean. This wind of My Spirit is bringing mighty miracles upon the face of the Earth; for as you know, My Child, Satan has been cast into the Earth for good. No more will he be allowed to come to My throne and no more will he be allowed the interdimensional spaces; for My mark of defeat is upon him. Even as he rises in his fury, he is bound by Me. He is bound for destruction.

"Yes, My Child, the devil is loosed and the antichrist is rising as you knew many months ago. Millennia of planning and millennia of human sacrifices and bloody orgies of evil have ushered in this time of great evil upon mankind. But, I tell you, My Child, the world is evil. The people are full of rebellion the world over. The churches are putrid with the shallow and with the lukewarm, with the cowardice. Yea, My Little One, the time of judgement is upon the world. I speak to you much about My judgement upon the USA and many in other countries think that they are exempt from My judgement. I tell you, My Child, Australia is under My judgement through fires. Yes, even the devil and his cohorts do My will and know it not. I can put My will into the smallest of creatures or into the minds of children; for I am all-powerful and all-knowing. Foolish men and women do not fear My power. They do not fear My judgement; but I tell you, Child, a great fear is upon this world. Those, who will not fear My power will fear the power of the devil. Yes, indeed, My Child, he and his have power; but not from Me. They get power from you. They feed off your sorrow and off your suffering. They feed off wars and violence. They feed off destruction and defilement of the human body. They feed off deception and horror. Yes, My Child, they are cut off from Me with little light, save that, which they steal from each of you. This is why they get great joy from sacrificing Christians in their bloody rituals; for you have My light. Even the lukewarm still have my light and these evil ones are vampires of My light and energy.

"Oh, yes, My Child, there is a feeding frenzy of evil. There is a feeding frenzy, which is motivated by horror, by blood and guts. Can you now understand why the television is a feeding ground for the devil. He puts out the evil. The masses slurp it up and in so doing they release My light; for I will not indwell those, who ascribe to evil.

"My People are in a constant deficit of My Spirit and My energy because they give it up for evil. Evil steals the light out of My people; but each of you gives permission. Each of you is accountable and each of you pays a price. For, you struggle with depression and with demonization of yourselves, your families, and your homes. You have no one to blame, but yourselves; for you have slept through the Satanic takeover of your government. You have slept through the Satanic rape of your homes through the violence of television, through the defilement of aberrant sex and through excesses of drugs, alcohol. Willingly, you have fallen into the Luciferian traps because you have loved the world and what is in it and willingly the masses will move out, take the mark, and they will willingly worship Lucifer.

"Get ready; for war is coming to America! Here a little and there a little until you succumb to nuclear attack! Yes, My Child, I have given America a little more time; for truly war was slated for America in 1998 and again in the Spring of 2001. But, you have not been given a lot of time. You have not been given a generation, only a few years.

"Countries outside of America, I warn you not to rally in your safety, believing that you are safe in your rebellion. Nay, you are not safe! I am going to tear up Scandinavia, ...for your rebellion against Me, for your worship of pagan gods, for your idolatry. I am going to smash My fist right into your abdomen. I am going to cut off your circulation and I am going to further blind and deafen you; for you put on a fake light show; and you are full of the shallow and the putrid.

"Canada, Oh, Canada, do not think that you will escape My wrath. For, you are every bit the harlot that America is. You are every bit as blind and deaf and you are puffed up, believing that judgement will not befall you. Oh, it is coming! My judgement is at your very door and it will not be long before soldiers make their door-to-door rounds in your very midst. It will not be long before you know famine all across your land; for I am judging the wheat and I am judging the cattle and the crops. Grievous illnesses and diseases are about to escalate all over the world and you will not escape. War, war, war and rumors of war shall be your constant dread; for you have forsaken Me. You have gone whoring with America. When you least expect it, you shall hear a snap and you shall see the deadly results of this snap. Yes, Canada, you are under My judgement and it is time that you wake up. It is time that you repent; for a wave of utter destruction will soon sweep your land.

"Europe, Oh foul Europe! Your heart is cold as ice. You are robots of the devil. A black cloud of evil is brewing over Europe The Nazis are set to march from door to door. The trains of evil are set to run and the wolf of famine is howling in your backyard. No, you will not escape your evil hearts. You will not escape that hot breath of the antichrist as he comes to steal, to kill and destroy. Yea, it is time to wake up before it is too late to do so. You, the masses, you, who are full of darkness, rebellion, self-sufficiency, have dug your own dark graves. It will be nothing for you to worship Lucifer; for you already worship what is of this world.

"Yes, My Child, I know that a few, here and there in Europe, love Me. They obey Me and keep My commands; but these are few, indeed! I tell you, My Child, I am going to shake and rattle Europe. I am going to tear it up from North to South and from East to West. The dead will be so numerous that they will not have the manpower to bury them. Yes, war, grievous war is coming to Europe!

"The Mideast is on the precipice of an explosion of war. As you see this war unfold, watch China and Russia. For, China has plans of her own and when the world expects it least, she will move to usurp land and power. And, North Korea, riddled with disease and hunger is a lean wolf; but one, which is on the prowl. They will not bow down to the antichrist agenda!

"My Little One, this war on terror is all about getting rid of those countries and those elements, who will not bow down to the antichrist. This is why the world is on the verge of a great war, which is going to utterly devastate this planet. Some will not be bought and they will not bow to the antichrist agenda; for many hate NATO. Many hate America! Many hate Europe! Therefore, the antichrist has his hands full. On every front, he plans to squash rebellion. On every front, he plans to stamp out terror; but this is best said that on every front he will terrorize the world!

"My Child, you think, 'Why is the New World Order moving forth like a steam roller?' It is because Satan has been cast down. He knows his days and hours are numbered and he knows that I have given him a season in the Earth. Yes, he is going to terrorize the Earth. Many will die, just from terror, alone. But, My Little One, there is a Higher Plan. This is My Plan and My Plan is to bring My Sons and Daughters home. My Plan is to give eternal life to My Faithful, so that they truly do not have to go out anymore. Are the numbers great, who will make the grade? No. This is why My Way is called the Straight and Narrow and why few find it and stay on it. As long as any of you go by the beat of the world, you will not make the grade. You will not receive your reward of eternal life as My Sons and Daughters; for you are cut off from My Spirit and My word. Yes, My Child, the time of the great sorting of souls is at hand and it behooves all to clean up their lives. It behooves the preachers of America to get out of the blasphemous covenant with Lucifer, which is called the 501 ( C ) 3. It behooves the Shepherds of My Churches around the world to arise from their slumber and to take up My staff of righteousness and to clean up their lives and to clean up their churches. For, if they will not repent and cause My people to repent, they shall soon be caught up in the fires of hell!

"My Little One, I am separating Mine out of this evil system. I say to you now, 'Come out of Babylon before it is too late!' Give up the porn. Stop the adultery. Give up the gambling, the drugs and the alcohol; for these are sure tickets to hell! Stop the lying and stop the deceiving; for those of you, who lie and deceive, are evermore the Child of the Devil. Stop fornication; for it is better to marry than to burn. Those of you, who look at My commandments and believe that you can pick and choose are evermore the fool. For, you are lost to the wiles of the devil and you know it not.

"Get ready, I say to South America. Get ready! Behold Argentina, for this is My judgement! Overnight, you will experience widespread conditions, like what you see in Argentina. A great wasting is coming upon Mexico and Central and South America. A great wasting is about to hit this part of the world with terrible plagues, which are going to wipe out many. This great devastation is coming, along with a great financial collapse, which will be worldwide, along with worldwide famine. A great and terrible dearth is headed for the whole world!

"When you see war, a great war grip the Mideast, and this is soon, know that a great war is about to grip the world. Great suffering is at the door of this whole planet. When you see foreign troops begin to go door-to-door in the USA, which is soon, very soon, then you will know that this will soon follow for the world.

"Yes, My Child, a howling is going up. Hear the great howling in the Spirit. A howling is going up even now and this shall soon manifest in the physical; for a purging of the Earth is at hand. Nuclear exchanges are at hand. How quickly you have forgotten! How quickly your memory has faded for the terrible destruction of nuclear war! When nuclear war hits the Earth, it will quickly spread throughout the world. Do not be so naïve as to think that it will not come to your part of the country or world. For, even if nuclear weapons are not detonated in your midst, fallout travels around the world. I tell you that areas of land will soon be uninhabitable and untillable.

"Are you prepared? Nay! The masses are not prepared! Has television told you to prepare? Has television told you to build fallout shelters? Has television told you to stockpile food and medicine for My people? Nay! For, you are scheduled for annihilation! Satan will devour you, for he feeds off your suffering! Over and over, I have told you through this very prophetess and through others, to prepare for hard times.

Have you built fallout shelters? Nay, few of you! Have you stored food, water, and medical supplies? Some of you, but still the numbers are few! If the errant preachers were awake, they would warn My people. They would tell My people what is coming down; but alas, they are fast asleep!

"My Child, for those around the world, who would like to make a copy of this message to send to the world churches or even to the local churches in America, along with My last letter for the Churches of America, I say to make these copies and send them now. For, the world is on the precipice of grave peril. Let all be warned. For, the concentration camps in America and elsewhere around the world will soon be overflowing, not with terrorists or war criminals, but with average citizens. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God.

Beloved, the following warning from our Father in Heaven was given to me on the morning of January 7th, 2002. On the night of the 6th of January, I was aware of great witchcraft, which was coming against me in the Spirit. The following from our Father in Heaven tells of His wrath at the sorcerers and Satanists and His word pinpoints the source of these attacks. Utter fools do not fear God; but alas the world is replete with utter fools!

GRAVE WARNING TO SCANDINAVIA!

"My Beloved Child, sit and write as I say that the rebellious ones in Norway will hear My words. I say to you in Norway, in Finland, and in Denmark, who have polluted My word and entered into blasphemous covenants with Lucifer, 'I shall break you as matchsticks and consume you with the hot fires of My breath! Like wild horses, I shall utterly break you! A great shaking is coming upon you. You shall look around you and you shall ask, 'Why is this severe judgement upon this land?' But, I tell you now, look around you and see why My judgement is upon you! See why My mark of destruction is bringing you down!

"I shall rip you asunder and My walk, as the walk of a mighty giant, shall be felt all across your lands. Great volcanoes shall erupt and earthquakes, like you have never experienced before, shall divide you asunder. Tidal waves shall sweep inland and many shall be carried out to sea. My rage will be seen in your skies night after night and you shall tremble in your horror, asking, 'Who has brought this judgement upon us?' I warn you now that a month will not pass until you begin to see My wrath against you. For, in your ignorance you come to make war with My anointed and I tell you now that when you come up against Mine to make war, you come up against Me.

"I have warned you that 2002 is a war year, indeed! I am raising up My mighty warriors and assembling My mighty army. Mine angels are going forth and even now they are reaping souls for eternal life or eternal hell. My angels are binding up the power of the Satanists and they are binding up their demons, so that when they are called up, they will not be able to come.

"Fear and trembling is going to hit those, who come to fight with Me. You will run when there is no need to run and you will hide when there is no need to hide. From the time that you get up until the time that you go to bed, you will have no peace; for fear shall follow you everywhere you go.

"The great war, which is at hand, is not about Satan, it is about Me and My power. You were warned by My Holy Servant, John, of this end-time war. Yea, it is upon you; but while many believe that it is about Satan, they are wrong. It is My war. It is about Me and My power. It is about My judgement and it is about My harvest.

"Those of you, who are blind and deaf, do not know the power I am giving to My elect. You do not know the power I am giving to My angels; for if you did, you would repent. But, you do not repent. You have aligned yourselves with Lucifer and you are headed for destruction. You will be uprooted one by one by My angels and you will be thrown into the fiery furnace. I say to you, get ready; for your days and hours are numbered and when you expect it least, My fear shall befall you and you and many of you shall be driven to insanity; for your minds shall utterly betray you. Your hearts shall betray you. Your emotions and your bodies shall betray you.

"Let all be advised that when you come up against Mine anointed, you come up against Me. My fury is upon you and My whirlwind of destruction is in your very midst. I am Jehovah, Most High God."

In the above Message to Scandinavia, our Father says, "You shall look around you and you shall ask, 'Why is this severe judgement upon this land?' And, in the second paragraph, He says, "My rage will be seen in the skies night after night and you shall tremble in your horror, asking, 'Who has brought this judgement upon us?'" As I read what He says, I am reminded of the Book of Jonah. Remember Jonah. God called Jonah to work for Him, but Jonah ran from God. He got on a ship and tried to get away from the work that God had for him. But, while the winds were whipping the ship, those on board knew God and understood the fury of God, which was in the wind and in the torrents of rain and water. This is when Jonah got cornered; for those on ship knew that God was angry with someone in their midst. Remember what happened to Jonah? They threw him overboard and he spent some repentance time in the belly of the whale. Through God's punishment, Jonah came to his senses. He went into the rebellious city of Ninevah and told the people that because of their rebellion, their city would be destroyed within a few weeks. Oh, the fear of God was upon Jonah and he was all too eager to obey God after a few days in the belly of the whale. But, Jonah, was not prepared for God to change his mind. He was not prepared for the people to come to repentance and be spared God's judgement and Jonah was angered when God's judgement did not come upon Ninevah. Yes, we all need to remember Ninevah and we need to remember Jonah. For, in the life of Jonah, we see God's intense judgement for rebellion and we see His great mercy. We see and understand how God punishes the rebellious, and we see His great mercy toward the repentant! Our Merciful Father in Heaven hears the cries of the truly repentant and He forgives. From the works of God through Jonah and Ninevah, we must realize that in no way can we know what God is going to do. Only He knows. What you and I must do is to spread His word and to do our best to make people see their wrongs, so that they repent and are spared His great judgment.

Prophecy fulfilled!

In our Father's Message to the Nations, which is above, He says in the very first paragraph that He is sending forth a mighty wind of His Spirit, likened even unto a tidal wave of His Spirit. He advised me that within three days, I would know what He is speaking of. Beloved, this has surely coming to pass. But, first go back with me to the Message for You of January 4th, 2002. In this message, I relate a little of my conversation with a prophetess, who told me of a dream in which she saw soldiers going door to door, among other things. One thing, which she mentioned as well is that she and other prophets had been hearing loud explosions in the Spirit. She related that some had heard these explosions to such a degree that they were having trouble sleeping. She asked me if I had been hearing these loud explosions, but I had heard none of what she was talking about. However, Beloved Ones on the sixth of January as I was sitting in the living room, I heard in the Spirit such a loud explosion that it seemed to shake my very being.

I jumped from the noise and shaking. This explosion penetrated my whole body and unexpectedly I proclaimed, "What was that?" Since that time, I have heard numerous very loud explosions in the Spirit and on one occasion heard smaller explosions, which reminded me of the explosions made when many fire crackers are lit in quick succession; and at that time I could even see the fire of these explosions. Now, let us go back to our Father's words above, "Yea, a mighty wind of My Spirit is rolling forth, even as a mighty tidal wave. It is rolling forth; and within three days, My Child, you shall know what I mean. This wind of My Spirit is bringing mighty miracles upon the face of the Earth; for as you know, My Child, Satan has been cast into the Earth for good." Let it be noted that on the afternoon of the second day, I began to hear these explosions. This is God's word come true. This is surely prophecy fulfilled! These very explosions are bringing in a great mighty tidal wave of God's Spirit! Many stalemates, which God's people have been up against for some time, are being broken in the spirit!

From our Father's Message to the world, above, you will see that He warns of His forthcoming judgements upon Canada, describing how soldiers will soon go to door. On the heels of His words comes this article about the New World Order's march of terror upon Canada. On the 7th of January, I read an expose on <http://www.rense.com/>. This article was entitled, "Canada's Globalization, Militarization and Police State Agenda," and it was written by Ingrid Rimland. It is the transcript of a speech, which was presented by Roco Galati, an attorney, at a forum for Scientists for Peace in Toronto in December of 2001. Read on for some very alarming information about Canada's laws of "terror."

Canada's Laws of Terror

C-32 relates to "secret trials." Protests that interrupt public facilities are acts of terrorism and even if one does not know that he or she is facilitating terrorism, one is still labeled a terrorist. There is a 72 hour arrest on "suspicion" and one can be held for 72 hours without being charged. Secret trials ALLOW FOR CONFISCATION OF ONES PROPERTY. (Read this again. Arrested on suspicion. Tried in "secret." And, all your property stolen! Can we say "Nazi Gestapo?")

C-22 makes lawyers SPIES FOR THE GOVERNMENT as they must report anything "suspicious" to the government. (There goes legal representation in these "secret" trials!)

C-42 "allows ministers to declare military zones on the spot, issue orders, and no one can discuss the orders; for if one does, it is a criminal offense."

Included in the definition of terrorism is a "threat to and including economic security".

Bill C-36 states that an act is prejudiced to the safety and interest of the state if a person:

Interferes with the security facility or system or computer program;

Damages property;

Adversely affects the stability of the Canadian economy, a financial system, or any financial market in Canada without reasonable economic or financial justification."

"Boycotts of the markets or the banks on ethical or environmental grounds are now an act of terrorism."

A terrorist, "impairs or threatens the capability of the government of Canada to conduct diplomatic or consular relations or conduct or manage international negotiation."

At the time that our Father in Heaven gave the above message for the world, I had read nothing of this anti-terrorist bill in Canada, but folks it is now law and any can read what is at the door for Canada. What we are seeing in the USA now with martial law and a declared state of emergency, is that the president is dictator and the constitution is no more! Read the executive orders, which enslave all Americans and you will understand what "state of emergency" and "martial law" mean. The USA is now under both, and Bush and company are proud of it, so proud in fact that they have been crowing about a ten year war, which they say may now be a six year war. All the while, they are working overtime to provoke the enemies of the USA to attack this very land! Keep praying, Beloved! Our Father in Heaven is going to stop this runaway train.

FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES*Book VII*Chapter Twenty*"The Castle on the Hill"

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven. Blessed are you, My Little One; for you are nearing the end of Book Seven. Blessed are those, who have heard and who have seen My truths herein. And, blessed are those, who have come forth through My messages in this book, with willing hearts and working hands; for as you do My work, I shall give you greater works and greater anointings. My Blessed One, there remains two chapters of Book VII and in this chapter, we shall go back to Book One, that I may answer questions posed by one of My very own, a babe yet, but greatly loved by Me. My Little One, in conversations past, this Child of Mine has asked you of the meaning of certain prophetic aspects of Book One. In the past, I have covered some of this with you in Book VII. But, there is more, which we have not covered. What is remaining are certain aspects of the "Castle on the Hill," which are covered in Book One.

This very castle is occupied by three evil families. These families are the Rockefellers, the Royals of England and the German family, which is called Rothschild. My Little One, we shall begin on page 55 of Book I. Reprint these relevant sections in this chapter, that all may have this information for easy reference."

"Yes, my Father."

From The Mountain Prophecies*Book One

Chapter Six, Pages 25, 26, & 27

"My Lord, this is terrible. But does it all relate to the castle on the hill? Tell me about this castle with the bats flying out turning into blue birds?"

"Child, I have reserved this for last. There is a rope ladder. Take it on up to the castle."

"My Lord, I have the rope, and I am climbing now up this ladder. This is very hard climbing, as this hill is very tall, and the castle sits way up on the hill, by itself. I see now, My Lord, that this castle has a door on either side. On the one side there is a sign above the door, which says Rothschild. On the other door, it says Rockefeller. Two families living in one, big castle on a hill."

"Or, so it appears, My Child."

"Now kick the door that says, 'Rothschild'."

"My Lord, I am kicking, but it is only a paper door."

"'Tis true, Child, only a paper door. Go on in."

"My Lord, I am in a very light and airy room. I do not see the roof, as there are trees growing in here. It is a room full of computers generating huge piles of ticker tapes. These tapes fall into piles, My Lord, and these piles turn into something."

"What do they turn into?"

"Rocks. These are talking rocks. They make a sound like the sound of a loud horn. And, they say the same phrase."

"And, what is that phrase?"

"‘Everything is alive and well on planet, Earth.’ Then, My Lord, each of these rocks tosses a small piece of paper with this message into a spring, which bubbles up in their midst. The spring takes the messages and turns them into worms. My Lord, this spring is full of worms. And, at the base of this deep spring is someone sitting on a rock, weeping. My Lord, it is Rapunzel."

"Child, do not be tricked by this one. You know this is Luciferian."

"Thank you, My Precious Lord, for reminding me. I was about to be tricked by a sob story. Now, I see two very tall trees with very long trunks, and at the top are many, many branches with leaves. These two trees go all the way out the top of the castle, where I see many blue birds flying around the tops of the trees. Sitting among these blue birds at the very top of the castle, I see a very large, ugly, black vulture. My Lord, what does all this mean?"

"Child, go to the door on the right and open it."

"My Lord, I am at the door, and it is only another paper door. I can stick my hand right through it. In fact, I am walking right through it."

"Tis so, Child. Now go outside and look at the name over the door. What does it say?"

"Rockefeller."

"Now, My Child, come around to the front of the castle. Walk around the circular porch. What do you see there?"

"My Lord, I see one empty bench. Then, I see a large clay flowerpot, which is also empty. This is all, My Lord, except for a screened door. The screen on the door is old and it is falling apart. The screen has large holes in it where it has corroded away. There is no need for this screen as it is so rotten and serves no purpose."

"Exactly, My Child. All is known."

"My Lord, will you explain this to me?"

"Child, I will. It is what you see. Two families living as one. They have no wealth save it be paper. This door to their castle is easily broken. Their computers constantly generate much saying all is well financially, but My Child, the rock solid appearance of their financial reports feeds Satan's spring, which is based on a lie. My Child, paper burns. It may enwrap the rock, as in a child's game, but in short notice it will turn into worms and feed Satan's stream of rot and destruction."

"Blue birds fly above these two trees, The Rockefeller and The Rothschild Trees, as they believe all is 'chirpy'. However, My Child, look who sits among the trees."

"It is a black vulture, My Lord!"

"'Tis so, and it shall devour them. For, they send out bats, which they wish all to see as bluebirds. Their works are evil, yet they wish others to see them as good. I stamp my foot in this castle, and the windowpanes crack and fall out. I toss a match into the midst of this castle and burn it to the ground. Now, Child what do you see?"

"My Lord, I see a hill with charred bricks and rocks. The trees are gone and nothing remains but one charred stub. The Rockefeller tree is burnt not even with the ground, but burnt into the ground, leaving a black hole where it once stood. The Rothschild tree, My Lord, has remaining a black trunk of about 18 inches high. This is all that remains."

"My Child, what you see is true. I am Jesus. I am Jehovah...even Most High God of Earth."

As witnessed, dictated and recorded this 9th day of July, 1997.

..... Excerpt ends

"My Child, as we begin this discourse, you will recall that we are speaking of the castle, which sets high upon a hill."

"Yes, my Father and this hill is very tall."

"My Child, the capitol of the USA is called what?"

"It is called 'Capitol Hill.'"

"Beloved One, remember this; for Capitol Hill is very important here. It is hard climbing as those, who sit in this castle deliberately isolate themselves from the world."

"But, Father, if the hill is Capitol Hill, what is the castle?"

"The castle is home to the money mongers of the world. These are the leaders of this evil scheme to rule to the world and they isolate themselves in their castle, high up and removed from all, lest others see their evil and utterly defeat them."

"So, Father, these three families come and go from this hill. Do they own the hill?"

"Yes, they come and go, but remember that they also reside there. Do they own the hill? They believe they do and most certainly they control it. When you kick the paper door, called Rothschild, and discover that it is only paper, realize My Child, that this is the same for all three doors on the hill. These paper doors represent the US currency, which is highly controlled and regulated by these three entities. Once you get inside the castle, you see only two trees, the Rothschild and Rockefeller trees; for the Queen of England, though very much a part as the other two, has kept her distance, lest more know and understand that you in USA have been for some time, colonists once more under the Crown of England."

And, the ticker tapes are no longer generated by computers, but complex spread sheets and financial documents have taken their place; but in your youth, you would have known of ticker tapes."

"Father, what is meant by the ticker tapes turning into talking rocks?"

"My Child, remember the paper door. This paper door represents your financial system, which is only paper. Yet, many grab the paper and think that you have a rock-solid economy. You do not. You have only paper, which is worth the ink and paper it is made of, actually worth little or nothing. And, what do the talking rocks say?"

"They say that everything is alive and well on Earth."

"My Little One, these rocks also represent people. They also represent doctrines and words. Have the talking heads of your financial system not told you as a people, ad finitum, that all is well with your economy, even when you look around and see your economy falling apart with hundreds of thousands out of work, trillions lost in the stock market and poverty on the rise. Have they not told these lies?"

"Yes, Father."

"Next, My Child, you see the talking rocks toss the same paper into Lucifer's spring and this message turns into worms. What do you make of this, Child?"

"My Father, I just have a vision that this lie will consume itself, like rot."

"Well, Little One, you are partially right and partially wrong. For, this paper is worthless; but when thrown into Lucifer's spring of evil, this lie takes on life. Albeit a disgusting life form to you, these worms are life."

"And, this spring is full of worms."

"My Child, there is more to these worms than meets the eyes; for worms have the ability to go where many creatures cannot. Worms can be destructive, or they can actually be constructive."

"But, Father, these worms are in Lucifer's spring. How can they be constructive?"

"My Child, look at it this way. When a system becomes so full of rot, what more is there to do, save turn it over to the worms?"

"But, Father, this is Lucifer's system to begin with. How can you turn his rotten system over to him to destroy?"

"My Child, few understand this, but Lucifer has an insatiable hunger, an insatiable thirst for more and more. He is full of greed and lust for more and more power and control. In this quest for power and control, he will devour his own tail to maintain power. So, in this, My Child, you will see him devour his own evil system as he pushes for more and more control of the world. Now, My Child, let us go to the very last sentence on Page twenty-five where you say, 'Now, I see two very tall trees with very long trunks, and at the top are many, many branches and leaves.' Those, who are reading along can follow the rest. Notice, My Child, that these tall trees go all the way to the top of the castle."

"Yes, my Father."

"My Child, these two families, in particular, control the economy from the very top. Remember that there are others, but these two are highly significant. You see as well the paper door of the Rockefellers as you walk around to the front of the castle and you see a third door, that of the Queen of England, which is covered later in this book. Note, My Child, that this porch is circular. It goes all the way around the castle and connects all doors."

"But, the flower pot is empty and the bench is empty and this door has a screen; but this screen is falling apart."

"Yes, My Child, let us go back to what I told you about the silent nature of the Queen of England in controlling this country. Her seat is empty. Her pot, (visible treasure chest) is empty. She has tried to conceal her role in the theft on capitol hill, by hiding behind a screen. But, Little One, this screen is rotten and no longer can she hide. For, she is part of the same family; and this very Luciferian family has strangulated the finances of this country for many, many decades. They have fought bitterly to make you a crown colony and they have succeeded without your knowledge or permission."

"My Father, I read that these two families have no wealth, save it be paper. But, Father, do they not own much of the world?"

"My Child, no one ever, ever, ever owns the world. Many stake a claim to part of the world and many build up great empires in this world; but My Little One, this is all illusion. And, since no one can own any part of this world, what is left for them, save paper?"

"Father, as we move on down, who is this black vulture?"

"The Devourer, the very destroyer I created, and he will destroy even those, who do his will. He will turn on them after they have served their purposes."

"Oh, my!"

"That's right, Oh, My! For, evil turns on itself until it is utterly consumed."

"So, Father, you burn down the castle?"

"Did I not toss a match into it? Did I not stamp My foot in the very midst and say, 'Enough is enough!'"

"Yes, my Father."

"Do you see the hill with charred bricks?"

"Yes, my Father, and surely this is equivalent to the Pentagon, which is a part of Capitol Hill."

"This is so."

"Then, my Father, this is what I wrote, for I saw this, 'The Rockefeller tree is burnt not even with the ground, but burnt into the ground, leaving a black hole where it once stood.'"

"Yes, my Child, this is what you wrote and this is evolving even now. As these three families are brought down, which will come to pass, you will see the Rockefellers beat the most severely and you will see this come to pass first. Even now, My very judgement is upon them and they are losing on many fronts."

"But, Father, is this tree not also akin to the trade tower, which was burned below the very ground?"

"This is the very tree."

"And, even the day after the devastation of these two towers, which is extremely symbolic of these two families, you read how the FED sent 50 billion dollars to Europe, which has been stolen from you, the taxpayers, but truly this is not even a drop in the bucket, compared to what they have stolen. So, My Little One, with the fall of the two towers, you see the beginning of the fall of these two trees, of the two financial empires. For, remember that their empires are based on paper."

"But, what about the Queen?"

"Does she not live in the same house? Is she not fed by the same spring? Does she not put out the same lies? After the burning of the towers, did England not rush forth to help the USA chase the imaginary windmills of the Ben Laden myth?"

"Yes, my Father."

"And, do you not now hear more of Germany, with German warships near Somalia and German troops even in Somalia?"

"Yes, Father."

"My Little One, what is given herein relative to the two trees represents the burning of these two towers. Very soon, all three families shall suffer mightily. Their evil is coming into their very houses to roost."

"But, Father, why would they destroy these towers?"

"They do not know that they are fulfilling prophecy and they do not know that in so doing they have begun their own demise. For, by blowing up their own towers for a greater greed and for a greater illusion, they have ripped the very rug out from under themselves."

"My Child, Lucifer, the very one, whom they worship, is the Destroyer. He destroys beautifully and I created him for this very purpose. He will destroy the very ones he has used to climb to power."

"But, Father, why does the Rothschild tree remain and is about eighteen inches high?"

"Did one tower remain a little above the ground and the other was burned below the ground?"

"Yes, Father."

"Then, realize, My Child, that the Rockefellers have been burnt so badly, that they will soon fall. As you know from the prophecies, the Queen also falls to the wiles of the Rothschilds; but the Rothschilds will remain for a while yet, before they, too, will be destroyed. For, evil always implodes upon its very self. With this, My Child, we shall stop for today. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."

FROM THE MOUNTAIN PROPHECIES*Book VII*Chapter Twenty-One*"A mighty thunder, ... A mighty fire ..."

"My Beloved Child, I am your Father in Heaven. Do you feel My great power come forth as I speak to you today?"

"Yes, my Father. I hear such great power in Your spoken word! It seems that every word is a thunderous roar, which reverberates through the heavenlies! Oh, Father, even as I hear Your words, I am seeing a mighty fire rolling forth. This is a raging fire and it is consuming everything in its path."

"My Child, My words are truly as a mighty thunder and they roll forth as a mighty fire, consuming all opposition until My will is accomplished."

"Father, You always speak so softly to me, but if people could hear and see in this way, they would be so afraid."

"My Child, once I spoke this way to My Children and they were so afraid that they believed they would die from My power. But, there will come a time when, once more, you will see Me and hear Me with your physical eyes and ears. My Child, I am opening you up to the power of My word. The many explosions, which you are hearing, are the manifestations of My Spirit going forth and fulfilling My word. My Beloved Child, it is time that all cease to fear the devil and his antics; for I am the source of all power. Those, who do not respect Me and who do not have a healthy fear for this power may very well end up as prisoners to their own fear of the devil."

"Oh, my Father, this is a terrible vision, which I am now having. For, it is night and the sea is churning. The waves are as tall as skyscrapers and the Earth seems to be wobbling and going out of control."

"My Child, what you see in only a small fragment of the great earth changes, which are at hand. This is only the surface; for you are yet to plumb the depths of what is at hand."

"My Father, you have said that this is the last chapter of Book VII."

"I have said it and this is so, but in many ways, My Child, you will see Book VII as only a beginning. For, what is revealed herein is only a harbinger of what is to come. A great shaking, a great rattling, is upon the whole Earth. The sun will shine after the eclipses, which are at hand; but you must first go through the eclipses. Murder and mayhem, murder and mayhem, these are at the door of this world and a shaking so great that even the tried and true will be trembling from the trials. Yes, My Little One, this is the great sifting and the great falling away, which you know of, and it is at hand. Each of will either see My light and walk in My light, or you will walk in the darkness and perish therein. There is no in-between. The gap between the believers and the non-believers is as one huge abyss, and it is ever increasing. This is truly a time of the sorting of souls and the time wherein each of you needs to draw closer to Me and to My Son with ever-increasing tenacity.

"My Child, you are about to walk through a gate and into a fenced area."

"Yes, my Father, I see this gate. It looks to be a normal gate of metal, which is attached to a fence; but when I touch this gate, I know that it is not made of metal, but of your holy power. On touching the gate, I think to open it and I sense that I am passing through it, but feel as if I am truly soaring over it, leaping high into the air. This is such a beautiful experience; for Your holiness is all around. The beauty of Your light engulfs me and I feel as if I could fly."

"And, fly you will."

"Father, what do you mean?"

"My Precious Child, are you all not beings of spirit, limited by flesh, but nevertheless beings of spirit? And, as spirit are you not one with My Spirit, which knows no bounds?"

"Yes, my Father."

"Then, know My Child, and this is true for all of My Faithful, that as you progress spiritually in your faith, I shall begin to remove some of the restrictions of the physical, which you perceive as permanent and unconquerable."

"Father, what do you mean?"

"I mean that I am about to make it much easier for My Faithful to be translated to parts unknown to do My work and to free My people."

"Like the time You carried me into Chinese prison?"

"Exactly."

"But, Father, what does this gate and fence mean? I see that You have carried me to the other side of this radiant gate and fence, and I feel so buoyant and free."

"My Little One, it means that up until now, you have been shut out of the fullness of certain keys; but you are now given what you have been denied for some time."

"Father, please explain what you mean."

"My Child, do you remember how My servant Isaiah wrote that each of you must go line upon line and precept upon precept?"

"Yes, my Father."

"Well, My Little One, those of you, who have been faithful over many years in the work that I have given you, are about to progress very rapidly in these precepts. What has been denied you is being given you, here one or two, and there, three or four. But this is only so for the Faithful, for the Tried and True, for those, who have been Tested and found faithful. These are the ones, who are even now going through these gates and receiving what has been promised, but denied before now. For, now is the time that My Faithful are coming forth and they are receiving papers from Me and My Son, yea assignments, very specific assignments for greater work.

" My Child, I know you have concerns about translators for these works; but My promise to you is that these works will be translated into many languages and that those, who work to translate these works, will move up quickly in My works; for they, themselves, are providing keys to others, that they do not even realize. And, in turn, I am giving them keys, which they do not even realize and when they expect it least, but most importantly, when they need it the most, they will find that they have the keys to unlock what is needed in their lives. My Child, these are not idle words, but My sure promises for those, who help with these works, but most assuredly for all translators of these works. They will come forth and they will be blessed.

"In addition, My Child, as I have promised, I shall send you and Dennis around the world to administer My word. I shall bless you in great and mighty ways so that you are able to do this and so that you, in turn, are a great blessing to My Faithful. Having passed through the gate means that many great works are at hand for you and Dennis and I will continue to bless you with more of My word and more of My hidden truths. For, as you have been faithful in a little, I shall give you much."

"Oh, Father, I am so humbled. I do not have the words with which to thank you; for there seem to be none, which can parallel the deep gratitude in my heart toward You and toward our Beloved Jesus. You and our Beloved Jesus are beautiful beyond words and we are so blessed to be able to do a very small part of Your work.

"Oh, Father I hear and see explosions in the Spirit all around and I see something, which looks like a curse, which is being consumed by Your holy fires. Then, out of this burning fire comes a beautiful angel and she puts something around my neck, which looks like a sash, which is worn by priests and there is much engraving and written symbols, which I do not understand."

"Not now, but you will soon."

"Father, Oh, Beautiful Father, I am so humbled by Your love and feel so unworthy to receive these awesome blessings; for I feel like the least of the least."

"My Child, you are not unworthy; for if you were, you would not receive."

"Father, the great fireworks in the Spirit continue and I wish I understood more of this."

"What don't you understand?"

"I do not understand why this is so great at this very moment."

"My Child, these explosions are breaking the power of the evil ones, who are coming up against you in prayer. These explosions are bringing down evil, which has risen up against you. These explosions are destroying the work of the enemy, and you will continue to see great explosions in the Spirit for the rest of your earthly life. Explosions in the Spirit will take place wherever you go and many of these explosions will mean My instantaneous judgement, which is spoken out of your mouth."

"Oh, Father, this is so humbling and frightening. Your power is so awesome and I have such fear of You and Your works. Father, have mercy on us! I am so afraid!"

"My Child, do not fear; for the fires will not harm you. But, be comforted, My Child, for this is a demonstration of My love for you."

"Thank You, Precious and Beautiful Father, You, alone are Most High and You, alone are worthy of praise! Father, comfort all those, who love You, but most of all, comfort the lost! Minister to the hurting!"

Strengthen the weak, and heal the sick, the infirmed! Father, touch the hurting souls with the miraculous; for so many are suffering!"

"My Child, I know you heart and it is full of love for Me and for My Son. You are filled with love for your Brothers and Sisters and I am pleased in this. I will never forsake you and I will never forsake the lost and the rebellious; for I remember My covenant with your Father Abraham. But, out of love, I must chastise the rebellious, lest they be forever lost. I am your Father in Heaven, yea Jehovah, Most High God."
